*Confession (In Unison) O Lord, we thank You for the gift of time - 24 hours in every day and at least 365 days in every year; yet, in spite of this we feel we have lost time in this past year. Forgive us, for wasting time on things of insignificant value and not finding time to do things of importance.

Forgive us, for the seconds we have yielded to temptation, when we should have been steadfast in our faith.

Forgive us, for the minutes spent in idle talk, while the proclamation of Your message had to wait.

Forgive us, for the hours of time spent in endless run of activities, while we failed to find time to pray.

Forgive us, for the days spent in sin and evil, when we should have spent them in witness for You.

Forgive us, for the years we have failed to receive the most from life because we have followed the desires of our own hearts, rather than Your will.

O Lord, help us to profit from our wrong choices and deeds of the past. Inspire us to use our time more wisely in the New Year, to Your honor and glory, through Christ we pray. Amen.

"Perpetual Priorities"

Scripture: John 17

(Illustration of April Fool's Day, and New Year's Day)

Happy April Fool's Day! Oh, isn't this April Fool's Day? Of Course it isn't. This is what day? New Year's Day of course.

Hundreds of years ago calendars listed April first as the first day of the year. It was this way for centuries. Then in the year 1564 a king of France, named Charles IX, decreed that there would be a new calendar. This new calendar began with January 1, not April 1, as the first day of the year. Some people didn't like that the king changed the calendar this way. They enjoyed celebrating New Year's on April 1 and they weren't about to switch. Other people made fun of them. They invited them to fake parties on April 1, and played tricks on them. They called them "April Fools" and that is how we got April Fools Day.

But this is New Year's Day and the start of a brand new year. It is perhaps the one and only time in each year that the element of time is pondered by most everyone. What kind of year will it be? What will it bring forth in fun and pleasure, what sorrow or sadness, what ~~if~~ about our jobs, our schooling, our homes??? and on and on our lists can go. But as each new year comes and goes, there are certain things which never change. For the unbeliever there may be the frustration and turmoil of striving to keep the ship of life on an even ~~kam~~ keel, or just stay afloat with the head above water. But for the believer it is an altogether different situation. The believer has a certain set of priorities that remain constant and never change. Life may take different directions, jobs may change, marriage may be altered, the children will grow and leave home, but there are certain priorities that are ours that remain unchangeable for all of life regardless of the year, or time of life. Jesus had been teaching His disciples privately ~~for~~ during His ministry and now that ministry to them had come to an end. Thus it is that we read in the last verse of the 16th chapter of John, that Jesus says, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

This is said in spite of the fact that in a very short period of time He was going to be arrested, tried and condemned to death. Jesus knew all this. But He wanted His disciples to know that He had given them the blueprint for life and now they would have to live life without ~~His presence~~ Him personally being with them each step of the way. So it is then that He prayed what has come to be known as His "Priestly Prayer," in the 17th chapter. There are many things which can be pointed out in this prayer, but one set of principles which ~~is~~ remains the same all the time are what we are going to look at today. There are four of these principles as given here and they remain, "Perpetual Priorities" for every believer.

Jesus begins His prayer and we read, (read verses 1 through 4). Jesus is talking here about His glorifying God while on earth. Then He prays For His followers as we read in verses 9 and 10, (read these). So we can conclude from this that one of the "Perpetual Priorities" of any believer is to glorify God. Just how do we do this? The answer is one simple word "Obedience." By obeying God and doing what He says we should do, we glorify Him. Jesus is our example of obedience. That obedience was so complete that He didn't flinch from giving His very all and as a result glorified God completely.

(Illustration of two boys and obedience)

A cartoon shows two boys walking to school and discussing their parents. One of the boys says, "I've figured out a system for getting along with my ~~xxxxxx~~ Mom. She tells me what to do and I do it."

That's the kind of obedience God desires from us. It's a priority that works everytime.

That's what glorifies God. Each time we obey and do what God wants us to do, we are glorifying Him.

(Illustration of Gil Dodds and fastest mile ever run on indoor track)

There was a young man named Gil Dodds, the son of a minister who went to the old Madison Square Garden in New York City to run at an indoor track meet. He was entered in the mile event which was his specialty and he ran the race at the then unheard of time of 4 minutes ten seconds. This was the fastest mile up to that time ever run in an indoor arena. After the race he was asked to speak after the crowd had given him a thunderous applause. He stepped to the microphone and said, "I thank ~~God~~ the Lord for guiding me through the race and seeing fit to let me win. I thank Him always for His guiding presence." The rafters must have trembled at these words, for these were strange words never heard in this place.

He went on: "I don't win those races, God wins them. You see, God has given me all I have. I have one great lack. I didn't have the one thing the coaches say a long distance runner simply must have. I couldn't sprint at the end of the mile. But God took care of that. In place of the sprint He gave me stamina." And that is correct for Dodds sprinted the whole distance everytime he ran the mile. He set a killer pace all the way and he won.

This young man saw that each time he ran, it was God who received the glory. This is what God wants from each of us. No matter what our talents are, or how much ability we have, whatever we do, God should receive the glory. And in so doing we will receive more than our share of praise, God Himself will see to that.

A second "Perpetual Priority" is to be found in the 17th verse of this prayer. Jesus prayed, "Sanctify them through Thy truth: Thy word is truth."

The word "Sanctify" in Greek means to purify, to consecrate, to set apart. Each believer is to be sanctified, to be set apart from all of the other things of life. It doesn't mean that we retreat to a cave and hide from the world. Quite the contrary. But it does mean that we are different from the rest of the world about us. Not religious freaks, or so fanatical about our faith that we turn everyone off, instead of on. But that we grow in the faith each and every day. If there is one resolution each one of us should make for this year, it should be the resolution to spend time in God's Word daily. Jesus said here, God's Word is truth. It is from God's Word that we derive the truth for our lives. Perhaps you have never really tried to read the Bible through in a year. This morning is a good time to resolve to do so. When you go home today, after lunch take your Bible to a quiet place in the house and take the daily Bible reading you have and begin to read the Bible through. If you don't have a schedule, take one with you this morning. Armed with God's Word each day you will be able to face life better and you will unconsciously be getting sanctified, set apart for what God wants from you.

Two other principles found in this prayer are intertwined and yet are separate from each other. They are the evangelization of the world, and Christian unity. In verses 21 through 23, Jesus prayed, (Read these verses). Jesus was definitely NOT, definitely NOT advocating a One World Church as so many try to interpret this to mean.

Jesus was advocating that every believer within the Church down through the ages would love every other believer regardless of denomination, skin color, area of the world and so on. He was advocating that each believer would see in every other believer that they were all followers of Him and not hungup on their own peculiar little quirks of belief or interpretation.

The fourth principle is found in the 18th through the 20th verses, (read these).

Jesus was talking here of the necessity for reaching out to the lost throughout all of the world. Each believer in his own right is to be an evangelist for Jesus Christ. There are many who see this as the task of only the educated and trained clergy of the church and ~~this~~ this is wrong. Each believer has a voice and opportunities to tell others of Christ by word of mouth, by actions, by living the faith. It is more than just words, it is deeds, life, and words.

Someone has written:

The clock of life is wound but once,
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop,
At late or early hour.

To lose one's wealth is sad indeed.
To lose one's health is more.
To lose one's soul is such a loss
That no man can restore.

Thirty-nine people died while I read this poem. Every hour 5,417 go to meet their Maker. What are you doing to help reach them with the Gospel, e're they are cast into Hell?

All of us need to see that God expects us to speak on behalf of Him and the wonderful salvation He has provided through Jesus Christ. As we begin this new year, are you in the proper relationship with Jesus Christ? And are you willing to live by the Perpetual Priorities God has given to each of us?

(Illustration of Tony Campolo and Junior High Camp, and cerebral palsied boy Billy)

A well known Christian speaker, Tony Campolo tells of being a counselor in a Junior High Camp. He said that a Junior High kid's concept of a good time is ~~making fun of people~~ picking on people. In that camp there was a little boy who was suffering from cerebral palsy. His name was Billy, and they really picked on him. As he would walk across the camp they would all line up and imitate his awkward movements. One day he asked direction to the craft shop, and in his tammering way, said, "Which ... way ... is ... the ...craft ... shop?" With each word he had to contort his mouth to say it and the boys gave him directions, but it was in exactly the same way he had asked. They mimicked his speech and the awkward contortions of the mouth. And then they laughed at him. Mr. Campolo said this made him furious, but what made him even more angry was when it was Billy's cabin who had devotions. They appointed Billy to be their speaker and it was evident the only reason was to get Billy in front of them and then to make fun of him. As he began to drag his way to the front the giggles began to roll over the crowd. This was going to be some good fun for these kids and they knew it. It took little Billy almost five minutes to say seven words. He said, "Jesus ... loves.. ... me ... and ... I ... love ... Jesus." When he finished there was a dead silence. As Mr. Campolo looked over that group of Junior High boys, he saw that most of them were bawling like babies. A revival broke out in that camp and many of those boys were converted to Christ.

The world is waiting out there for directions. People by the hundreds are hurting and look for something or someone to point them in the right direction. Do you make a difference as a Christian? If you don't think you do, then you don't understand God's plan for your life. You do make a difference, but you must be able to point in that direction, but you can only do that if you knew "Which Direction?" you are going.

Jesus had fed the 5000 and then had gone to the other side of the sea away from the crowds. But they had determined where He had gone and they followed Him to the other side. Jesus told them that they followed after Him, not because they believed, but because they were looking for another handout. It was then that He began to say some disturbing things to them and John tells us, "From that time many of His disciples went back, and walked no more with Him." verse 66.

His teaching was unacceptable to them. As long as He fed them and was able to teach nice little harmless doctrines they believed He was the Messiah. But as soon as He started talking about sacrifice and hardship, they turned away.

So Jesus turned to His regular disciples and asked, "Will ye also go away?" verse 67.

But as usual Peter had an answer for the Lord. But this time it wasn't an impulsive answer such as he had given on numerous occasions. We read, "Then Simon Peter answered Him, 'Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life. And we believe and are sure that Thou art that Christ, the Son of the Living God.'" verses 68-69.

Peter acknowledged that he didn't have all of the answers; he didn't understand all about Jesus; and he didn't come to this knowledge until after His death and resurrection. But at this point, Peter gave his testimony that he had a personal relationship with Jesus. He declared that Jesus had, "The words of eternal life." How could he make this declaration? For Peter it was because he was there and heard those words, but what of us? Where do we find those words?

The year was 1511. The place was Rome, Italy. A Roman Catholic priest had just completed climbing the 28 steps of the chapel Sancta Sanctorum - on his knees. He had been told these were the steps which had been taken from the judgement hall of Pilate in Jerusalem and brought here to Rome. Religious people of his time believed they received nine years of forgiveness for every step they climbed on their knees. Hundreds of thousands had done it before him, but as he slowly dragged himself up those steps, something kept ringing in his ears. "The just shall live by faith," Romans 1:17. Common sense told him that simply climbing stairs would not take away his sins. The Bible brought him back to the truth, and he spent the next 35 years of his life reading, understanding, and teaching the Bible. His name? Martin Luther of course.

(Illustration of Katie Luther in 1546)

The year was now 1546. The remains of Martin Luther had been brought back to Wittenburg, Germany and carried through the door of the church where he had defied the Pope and nailed his ninety-five theses 30 years before. But now Katie Luther was faced with feeding and educating their four children while having no guaranteed income. There was the threat of war with a ruler who had vowed to dig up Luther's remains and burn them in the square. On top of this Katie had the flu and someone had come to her with the shattering news that the plague had returned to Wittenburg. How could she protect her family from the seen and unseen enemies? She picked up her German Bible, translated for her and the German people by her husband and read, "Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; nor for the pestilence that walketh at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee" Psalm 91:5-7.

With these words ringing in her ears, she fell soundly asleep. The plague eventually left the city without touching Katie or her children.

(Illustration of Abigail Adams, her husband John and 10 year-old son)

The year was 1777 in Massachusetts. The War of Independence was now underway. A woman named Abigail stood at the dock waving as a ship pulled out into the bay. Her husband John and her 10 year-old son were on that ship. They were sailing for France and if her husband were captured by English troops he would be executed for treason, and she had no idea what might happen to her son. She watched as the ship became just a dot on the horizon and looked at peace with the world. What gave her that confidence? A verse of Scripture was running through her mind, "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much," James 5:16. Abigail prayed for them constantly until she heard from them six months later. The ship had been chased and fired on by British ships and they had passed through a hurricane, but they arrived in France unharmed. Abigail's husband John and her son John Quincy both became U.S. Presidents. Her son John Quincy Adams read the Bible in three languages each morning - English, French, and German. His values reflected a mother who believed in the Bible.

(Illustration of Jim Elliot missionary to Ecuador)

The year was 1948, the place, Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois. A young man graduating scrawled a Bible reference in the yearbook belonging to his girlfriend Betty. After graduation they went to Ecuador as missionaries and were married there. Jim's goal was to take the "Words of eternal life" to the unevangelized Auca Indians there. Less than 10 years after writing a Bible verse in his girlfriend's yearbook, Jim Elliot and four other of his missionary companions were brutally murdered by the very people they sought to befriend. Jim Elliot wrote in Betty's book, "No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life," 2 Timothy 2:4. A few years after Jim Elliot's death, his widow Betty saw the very man who had murdered him baptized as a Christian and begin his work as a Christian minister. Jim had enlisted in God's army and had completed his assignment.

The year is 1988, ~~xxxxxx~~ Sarver, Pa. I sit down with a steaming cup of coffee ~~xx~~ and my Bible. I turn to a familiar book by the Apostle Paul. This was a trying week and ~~xx~~ very early on this beautiful Saturday in October I read once again, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me," Phil 4:13. Once again this touches my heart and my life, and once again I know that I can trust God's Word.

(Ilus granddaughter and her strength through the Bible)

The year is approximately 2034. If the Lord has not yet returned for His Church, my granddaughter sits at her dining room table. The slump of her shoulders reflects the concern she feels for a rebellious teen-ager. She lives in very modern times, but the problems are the same problems we wrestle with today, and our parents before us. I won't be there to encourage her, but I know someone who will. I pray that she may pick up her used Bible and that she will read a passage perhaps that says, "Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you," 1 Peter 5:7. I pray that all of my descendents will come to Christ the Son of the living God and that their lives may be pointed in that direction given in and through God's "Words of eternal life."

"Which Direction?" There is only one direction and that is given through the blood of Jesus Christ. The question is not so much, "Can you make a difference around you this ~~year~~ year?", as it is, "Will you make a difference?" Are you content to let this year be the same old drab existence it may well have been for the past number of years? Or will you step forth boldly and make that all important commitment to have Jesus Christ as the Lord of life? And ^{will you} with that commitment, read of Him, learn of Him, and grow through His Words of Eternal Life as found in the Bible? "Which Direction?" will your life take this year?

"In House Memo: Build"

Scripture: Haggai 1:1-8

King Cyrus of Persia issued a decree in 538 B.C. which made it possible for about 50,000 Jews living in exile in Persia, to return to their beloved Jerusalem to rebuild the temple. With great enthusiasm they entered upon this work. The workers set up the altar of burnt offering on its original site and had laid the foundations of the temple, but then the work stopped as quickly as it had begun. The jealousy of the semi-pagan, half-caste Samaritans was brought to bear against these Jews and their enthusiasm turned to despair. For 16 years the work was at a standstill. Apathy had taken control and money-making absorbed most of the people.

A new king sat on the throne of Persia by the name of Darius. The prophet Haggai tells us that in the 2nd year of Darius's reign, God spoke to him and gave him a message for the returned Jews in Jerusalem. So it was that on August 29, 520 B.C., Haggai tells the people, "Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, 'This people say, 'The time is not come, the time that the Lord's house should be built.'" verse 2.

The people were putting off building the Lord's house and it was God Himself who was most aware that they were dragging their feet and had done so for 16 years. There was a reason for this and Haggai now launches into that reason. He writes, "Then came the word of the Lord by Haggai the prophet, saying, 'Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your ceiled houses, and this house lies in waste?'" verses 3-4

The people had paneled their houses to the neglect of the house of God. They were using the excuse, "The time is not come." Their own comfort and convenience took precedence over God and the things of God. But they were struggling in their lives; they were encountering hardships and they were not understanding "why?" this was happening. So Haggai speaks God's message about this and says, "Now therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts; consider your ways." verse 5.

God is saying to them, "Think this situation through, consider what you have done."

"Ye have sown much and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put into a bag with holes," verse 6.

Their efforts have been futile. When they planted, they got little in the way of crops. When they ate, they weren't filled. When they drank, their thirst was not quenched. Their clothing wasn't adequate and they simply couldn't earn enough money and it seemed as though the money dropped out of pockets that had holes in them. They were living in times of inflation and this inflation was eating up any and all profits. So Haggai God emphasizes, "Thus saith the Lord of hosts; 'Consider your ways,'" verse 7.

Once again the message comes and actually it is a warning, "Consider your ways!" In other words, look at what you are doing and the effect this is having upon your lives. Understand what happens when you turn from God and do your own thing.

God says through Haggai, "Go up to the mountain and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the Lord," verse 8.

The orders are, to cut wood for the Lord's House and God says He will "take pleasure in it." And that means, God would enjoy it, He would accept it, and it would be what He desired of His people.

God also said that if they ~~was~~ built His house, He would not only take pleasure in it, but He would also be glorified. You may recall that several weeks ago we said what it took to glorify God and we will see that again toward the end of this chapter.

God reiterates to His people what has taken place in their lives and why as Haggai the prophet continues, "Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. 'Why?' saith the Lord of hosts. Because of Mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house. Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from her fruit. And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labor of the hands," verses 9-11

The people were neglecting the things of God and then they were wondering ~~why~~ why it seemed as though all of their labor was for nought. They were seeking to feather their nests at the expense of neglecting God. If we apply this illustration to our own time and to the day in which we live, I believe we can readily see that the world today is reaping exactly the same harvest. Soviet Russia has tried to stamp out all belief in God and look how they have fared. Sure they have built themselves into a world power. But they cannot grow enough food to feed themselves even though they have one of the largest land masses for farming in the world. Is this a coincidence? To some it may be, but I believe it shows the hand of God in our world. Consider the drought condition throughout our own land this past year. Was it coincidence? I think not, simply because we have wasted water, we have wasted the abundant crops we have been able to grow, and we have wasted our abundant farmland. We can take a lesson from this Biblical example and change the error of our ways.

God said that if His people would seek to rebuild His house, He would take pleasure in it, and He would be glorified. Look at what the people did as Haggai records it, (read verses 12 through 14). How was God glorified? By obedience. We are told, "The people obeyed the voice of the Lord their God."

Obedience is what God wants. Obedience is the demand God places upon anyone and it is through obedience that God is glorified. The obedience of the people was brought about because they had been called upon to do so. ~~Haggai~~ Haggai spoke the message of God and used the words "Consider your ways" twice. The prophet Isaiah speaking to the Jewish people at another time in another setting appeals to them with the message, "Come now, and let us reason together." The words "consider" and "reason" have a similar meaning. "Reason" ~~was~~ in the Hebrew meant, "to decide, or to convince." Consider had a variety of meanings and usually dealt with the feelings, and determination of something. The task of Haggai was to convince the people to decide, to determine that what they had done was wrong and to ~~get back~~ get back to the task of rebuilding God's House.

To use the illustration of reasoning we have to use our minds to do that to come to a logical conclusion. Let's look at an example.

Suppose you were the owner of an ice cream stand. It is a very hot afternoon and a man and his wife, with about six kids stops on the sidewalk in front of your ice cream stand. Business is slow and you know that if you were able to ~~sell~~ sell ice cream to this family you would make eight quick sales. Think for a moment of how you could bring that sale off. Do you know what an enterprising young man did in that very situation? He gave an ice cream cone to the father. So here he is with a cone and his wife and six children looking on. If he eats it by himself he is being rude and inconsiderate. If he tries to share it, there isn't enough to go around. The solution?

Buy an ice cream cone for each member of the family. That's reasoning. It was reasoning on the part of the ice cream man and it took reasoning from the father to solve the problem.

This is what God asked His people to do. But in order to have them think their situation through, they had to ~~have something~~ have something which moved them in the proper direction.

(Illustration of School teacher, wanting to quit, and Mexican girl who loved her)

There was a teacher in the Texas Panhandle region who had been teaching first-grade. One day everything seemed to go wrong: her pupils seemed to be restless all day; at recess, she had to referee several scraps; ~~and~~ at noon the principal called her into the office because she had forgotten to turn in an important paper; she snagged her stockings on a chair; and to top it all off, she had to go to a teacher's meeting after school instead of going home. The speaker at the meeting spoke of being professional in every aspect of teaching and this teacher didn't feel like being a professional. To top it all off, she had to drive 50 miles to attend classes because she was working on her Master's Degree. When she arrived, she slumped into her chair determined to just be there and ~~not~~ just go through the motions. She had determined that she was going to quit teaching when this term was over. But a woman who sat next to her leaned over and said, "I saw an admirer of yours the other day." She explained that she was in the bus station and she had met a Mexican woman and her little girl. The mother couldn't speak English, but the woman talked to the girl. The little girl told her that she and her mother were on their way to Colorado to join her father who had found a job there. She said that she was now in the second grade and she told her her teacher's name. Then she pulled from her little purse a well worn picture and said, "This is the teacher I really love." It was picture of the discouraged teacher. She then thought back to the little dark-haired and dark-eyed little Mexican girl who was so eager to learn, and always seemed to be hanging around her. That teacher went home that night and thought through her situation. She pictured in her mind a little girl in a bus station taking a picture from her purse and showing it to a stranger and saying, "This is the teacher I really love."

Needless to say, she went back to teaching. She had been motivated. The people of Israel were being motivated by the message from God as given by Haggai. It was directly to them. It was an "In House Memo;" That Memo was, "Get back to building, God's House." That's the message we need as well. God continues to say, "These are My people whom I really love," and He is asking us to "consider our ways" and get back to the job at hand. To keep building. He invites each of us to do so. Will you accept that invitation today?

"In-House Memo: Bravery"

Scripture: Haggai 2:1-9

(Illustration of holdup men, young man and not giving his wallet)

A young man had a friend who lived in New York City. He learned that one day his friend was walking in lower Manhattan to go see his father who lived in Upper Manhattan. As he neared the bus station, he suddenly was aware that he was being followed. Out of the corner of his eye he ascertained that it was two young men. As he increased his pace, they did also and came up close behind him. One of them said, "Give us your wallet, I'm pointing a gun at you and will shoot you." He kept walking and called over his shoulder, "No." One of them said, "Listen, give us your wallet, I have a knife and I'm going to cut you up." He answered, "No." One of them then said, "If you don't give us your wallet we are going to beat you up." He kept walking and said, "No." He kept walking and after a while he noticed that he was no longer being followed by them.

Later, when the young man was able to relate this to his friend, his friend asked, "Were'nt you afraid?" He said, "Of course, what else would I be?"

Then his friend asked, "Why didn't you give them your wallet?" He answered, "I couldn't, my learner's permit was in it."

The covenant which God established with Israel in the Mosaic law was that God committed Himself to His people to be with each generation that obeyed Him. To do so, required that the people had to exhibit bravery repeatedly in order for the covenant to remain in effect. Much like this young man they had a reason to react bravely, but quite often, it was done because they sought to be God's people. They often strayed, but God continued to raise up men who would stir the people to respond in faith. Such a man was the prophet Haggai. We don't know too much about Haggai. His name means "festal" which is derived from the Hebrew word "festival." It is believed from this that he was probably born during one of the Jewish festivals and thus given a name to commemorate that. It is believed that he was in exile with Ezra and Nehemiah and was one of the people who returned to Jerusalem with them.

Haggai had first spoken to the people on August 29, in 520 BC and they had responded by getting back to work. It is now October 17, of 520 B.C.. In that forty some day period, the old foundations had been cleared completely and the building was starting to take shape sufficiently to reveal the outline of the building. Haggai begins to speak for God by addressing the governor, and the high priest in front of the people. He asks the questions, "Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? And how do you see it now? Is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?" verse 2.

When Haggai spoke these words it was in the midst of the Feast of the Tabernacles which was to be a joyous occasion celebrating a bountiful harvest. But the harvest was not bountiful and the situation was bleak. Haggai is asking how many in that group of people had seen the original Solomon's Temple before it was destroyed in 586. Those who had seen it would have been in a very small minority. It has been suggested that perhaps Haggai himself had seen the first temple in all of its beauty and glory and was reminding some of the older people present of what they had seen. If this is the case, then Haggai was a very old man at this time. But he also asks any who had seen the original to make a comparison between that temple and what it was now turning out to be. And with that comparison, whether they had actually seen it, or heard of it second or thirdhand, wasn't the present structure lacking in that beauty? Asking these questions, caused the people to reflect on what they were doing. It was a sobering if not a discouraging exercise for all of them. But Haggai speaking for God tells them, Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the Lord; and be strong O Joshua; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work: for I am with you, saith the Lord of hosts: according to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so My spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not." verses 4-5.

Everyone, from the governor, ~~now~~ to the high priest, right on down to the most common person is being encouraged by God to stand apart for the work at hand. They are being reminded once again of the covenant God made with their forefathers and how He has kept it as long as they have remained obedient to Him.

It was William Jennings Bryan who said:

"Never be afraid to stand with the minority which is right, for the minority which is right will one day be the majority; always be afraid to stand with the majority which is wrong, for the majority which is wrong will one day be the minority."

This in essence is what God was telling His people in Jerusalem. At this point they were in the minority and they were facing almost ~~unbearable~~ insurmountable odds to complete the temple. But God was calling for them to be brave. And once again, it was an "In-House Memo," not to the outside world, just to those within the fold. That message was, "Bravery stand fast and be brave."

There is an interesting parallel to this story concerning a group of heathens as recorded in the book of 1st Samuel, chapter 4. God had appeared to Samuel the young lad working in the House of the Lord. And God had told Samuel that the house of Eli would be overthrown because Eli's sons had done perversely as priests. Israel, shortly after this went out to do battle against the Philistines. In one of the first battles the Israelites lost about four-thousand men. So the Israelites decided that in order to win, they had to have God on their side and in order to do this it required the Ark of the Lord to go with them into the next battle. So they sent and brought the Ark to the scene of the next battle.. When the Ark arrived on the scene, the Israelites were encouraged and shouted. The Philistines heard this and they were alarmed. ~~So~~ So we read in the 6th through the 8th verses in 1 Samuel 4, (read these verses). The Philistines looked upon the Ark as an idol of the Israelites. Here was the God of the Israelites right in their midst. ~~So~~ This struck fear into the Philistines. But we do not know who started it, but we read in the 9th verse, (read this verse). Because of being encouraged to be brave, the Philistines fought the Israelites and defeated them. Their rallying cry was, "Quit yourselves like men, and fight." This is basically what God is calling the people of Israel to do. They are to stand fast and perform the task at hand.

Then follows a prophecy that had far reaching effects and which has yet to be fulfilled. It was a prophecy ~~if~~ that was actually two fold. It would come to pass in the near future, but it is to come to pass in the way distance future. We read, (read verses 6 through 9). God is promising that He is going to intervene in history, stirring up all nations, and the "Desire of all nations shall come." This was a reference to the coming of the Messiah, Jesus Christ. That Messiah was to come to God's House and the House would be filled with God's Glory. God promised further, "The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the Lord of hosts," verse 9.

God said that the temple which was being restored would be greater than the one which Solomon had built. And he says, "And in this place," meaning in the temple and in Jerusalem where the temple was located, God would bring peace. That was partially fulfilled when Jesus appeared in that temple on what we call Palm Sunday, where Jesus was acclaimed as "The Prince of Peace." But that prophecy is yet to be fulfilled when Jesus will come to earth for the second time.

The thrust of this Scripture is that the people were called upon to be brave in the midst of very fearful days and events.

(Illustration of Krushchev and the question of what he did during Stalin's massacres)

Some years ago the then Premier Krushchev of Russia was speaking before the Supreme Soviet and was severely critical of the late Premier Josef Stalin. While he was speaking someone from the audience sent up a note: What were you doing when Stalin committed all those atrocities?"

Krushchev was furious and shouted, "Who sent up that note?" But not a person stirred.

"I'll give him one minute to stand up!" He shouted. The seconds ticked off. Still no one moved.

"All right, I'll tell you what I was doing. I was doing exactly what the writer of this note was doing -- exactly nothing! I was afraid to be counted."

God was calling His people to stand up and be counted. It wasn't a matter of ability or talent. It was asking for selected skills or trades. It was simply an invitation to get involved. To take a stand for the Lord by getting into the work and doing what had to be done. Today, God is asking all of us who are in the church to do just that. His call comes to us at a time when the church desperately needs individuals who will collectively stand shoulder to shoulder in the fight against the evils of our world and society. We see the breakdown of our schools, our homes; we see the breakdown of morality; we see the breakdown of many of the values which have actually never changed ~~and~~ and will always remain the same. If there is to be any change manifested in our society or the world, it must come from the church, from Christianity. We can't expect it to come from the bars, or clubs or political parties. It can only come from the church because only the Church has the Truth. God is inviting each of us to get into the fray and rebuild. But this calls for "Bravery" and it is only through Jesus Christ that we can have that bravery needed.

Someone has written:

Courage! What if the snows are deep,
And what if the hills are long and steep
And the days are short and the nights are long
And the good are weak and the bad are strong.
Courage! The now is a field of play,
And the longest hill has a well-worn way.
There are songs that shorten the longest night,
There's a day when wrong shall be ruled by right,
So courage! Courage! 'Tis never so far
From a plodded path to a shining star.

Take courage as your goal and your courage will lead to ~~many~~ acts of Bravery and each step will lead ~~you~~ you on the path "To a shining star." That "Shining Star" is Jesus Christ, who at the end of life will welcome you home with His "well done brave one who loved and lived for Me." Will you accept His challenge and His invitation today?

"In-House Memo: Purity"

Scripture: Haggai 2:10-19

Haggai had begun to speak to the people on August 29, in 520 B.C. His second message was delivered on October 17, in that same year. At that time, progress had been made in getting the temple erected. Two months have now gone by and it is the 18th of December and Haggai once again addresses the people. God has laid a message on Haggai's heart that he is to question the priests about the law. And so we read, "Thus saith the Lord of hosts; 'Ask the priests concerning the law, saying, 'If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy?' And the priests answered and said, 'No.'" verses 11-12

In other words, Haggai is asking, "what does the Mosaic Law say about a person carrying meat that has been set apart and is thus declared holy, while being carried, does the very clothing of the person doing the carrying impart holiness to anything he would touch with his very clothing?" The answer given by the priests is ~~an~~ a very abrupt, "No." The answer to this question from the Law is found in Leviticus 6:27. That verse reads, "Whatsoever shall touch the flesh shall be holy."

~~This~~ The word, "Whatsoever" is better rendered, "Whoever" and only the person carrying the dedicated or holy offering is sanctified and not the things that he touches. The person is sanctified, but he does not impart sanctification to the things he comes in contact with.

Then there is a second question which God asks of the priests and we read, "Then said Haggai, 'If one is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean?' And the priests answered, 'It shall be unclean.'" verse 13.

The reference to this is found in the book of Numbers 19:11, "He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days."

The question is that if a man touches a dead body, if he touches other things, does he make them unclean? And the answer is, "Yes." The point that is being made here is that cleanness, or purity cannot be transferred, but uncleanness can. Similarly we cannot transfer health from one to another, but we can transfer disease.

It is then that God speaking through Haggai makes His pronouncement on His people. We read: "Then answered Haggai, and said, 'So is this people, and so is this nation before Me, saith the Lord; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean,'" Verse 14.

The people had handled that which was holy, but that holiness was not transferred to the people. And they had touched that which was unclean and that made all of them unclean before the Lord. God was calling them to "Purity."

(Illustration of teacher wanting to teach children proverbs)

The teacher was checking her students knowledge of the proverbs they had been learning in Sunday School. So she asked, "Cleanliness is next to what?"

One little boy replied with real feeling, "Impossible."

That boy may have seen it as a hopeless task, but it is an achievable goal. God calls us from the love of the things of this world, to the things of Him. The Apostle Paul writing to the people in the Church at Corinth called to them ~~in~~ for Purity and cleanliness. In his Second letter, the 6th chapter beginning at verse 11, we read, (read to end of chapter). Notice that the call is to separate from the ungodly around them. It isn't asking them to become monks, or nuns, or to crawl into a cave somewhere. It is a call to be separate and to pull away from those things that will pull us away from God. This is what the prophet Haggai is reminding them about. The works of their hands have contaminated everything. And if there is to be not only the temple in which to worship God again, there had to be a people who were seeking to be holy and set apart for God.

Haggai returns now to a familiar word which he used twice in his first message to the people. He says, "And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward," verse 15a.

The people are being asked to take a good look at their present situation and how it ~~will~~ all came about. They are being asked to "consider" from, "before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the Lord: since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten; when one came to the pressfat to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty. I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labors of your hands; yet ye turned not to Me, saith the Lord," verses 15b-17.

~~Haggai~~ God is calling the people to remember when they came back to Jerusalem, before they began to build, they had planted and sown and instead of getting the expected harvest of seed and grapes, they received only a portion of it. Things had been tough for them and God reminds them that even the weather had caused them problems. The "blasting" He speaks of here is the drought conditions they had endured. The rain was withheld causing parched ground and poor crops and the wind blasted them and their fields. Conversely, they had too much moisture with rain and hail and this is what caused their crops to mildew at times. And the people are being asked to consider this, to rethink their lives that in the midst of these problems and this adversity, they did not turn to God as they should have.

And again, God speaks through Haggai and the message is, "Consider now from this day and upward, even from the day that the foundation of the Lord's temple was laid, consider it," verse 18.

Think about it; ponder it; and reflect upon all of these events since you have returned to Jerusalem to begin this mighty task. God asks them to think all the way back to the time when the very first foundation was laid to erect this temple in the days of Solomon. They are to ponder all that has happened on this site. They are to think how their people were captured; how the temple was destroyed; how they had remained in exile; and how God had brought them back to their homeland. But they are to recall how they had started the work, and then deserted it for 16 years while they devoted themselves to fixing up their own houses to the neglect of the House of God. And as they ponder each of these things they are reminded that God was always there and He was waiting for their return to Him.

Having asked the people to "consider" all of this, God asks, "Is the seed yet in the barn? Yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day I will bless you," verse 19.

The answer to the questions concerning the harvest is that they have not reaped these things yet because they have just done their planting, but God promises that from this day onward He would bless them. They have been obedient and have heard God's call and are responding. The call of God is still an "In-House Memo." It is for these people within the fold. God's people whom He has called out of the world. That call in this third message is to "Purity." That means standing for the things of God which for them and anyone is an unpopular stance.

God has reminded these people that ~~if~~ when they sought to go the way of the world they were at odds with Him. They may have had acceptance by the world, but they were outside of the fold as far as God was concerned. But now that they have decided to come back, they are being asked to stand up for Him. This doesn't make a person popular with secular society. It may cause the hurling of abuse, or name-calling because the world cannot understand how or why anyone would want to follow God. But for the believer, there is always that promise that though the world may not accept us, there ~~is~~ are those promises that are ours from God Himself. We are called to stand for Him in righteousness and Purity.

(Illustration of Roman guard in Pompeii)

When Mt. Vesuvius erupted and Pompeii was destroyed there were many persons buried in the ruins who were afterward found in different positions. There were some found in deep vaults as though they had gone there for security; and there were some found in lofty places as well. But where did they find the Roman soldier who was standing guard? They found him still standing at the city gate, with his weapon in his hand. There, while the earth shook beneath him, there, while the floods of ashes, hot lava and cinders swept all around him, he had remained at his post; and there, after a thousand years he was found at his post for all the world to see.

We are called upon to stand at our posts wherever they may be in this life. Regardless what our past record. Today, God calls to us to throw off all past attitudes and actions and TODAY, stand forth in "Purity." He calls us to separate ourselves from the world and His promise to us is, "From this day will I bless you." The Lord awaits our response.

(Illustration of Marine during Korean War and his hope for "tomorrow")

During the early part of the Korean War a company of Marines were working their way south, being pushed in that direction by the Red Chinese. They had stopped for the night and were eating their makeshift evening meal. It was freezing cold and the men were not only cold, but hungry, and fatigued. Each moment was an eternity filled with anxiety and the fear of sudden death. One huge marine was leaning up against a truck eating cold beans from a tin can. His clothes were coated with mud, and were stiff from the cold; he had a growth of beard and looked the part of fatigue and despair. A reporter who was traveling with the troops, obviously wanting a story for his next article, asked that marine a rather strange and insensitive question. He asked, "If I were God and could grant you anything you wished, what would you want most?" The marine stood motionless for a few moments. Then he looked up at the reporter and said "Just give me tomorrow!"

The desire for another tomorrow shows that there is hope still ~~burning~~ burning and kept alive

~~It is like the little red-haired orphan in the musical "Annie" who sings:
"The sun will come out tomorrow, so you've got to hang on 'til tomorrow --
Come what may!
Tomorrow, tomorrow, I love you tomorrow; you're only a day away!"~~

Tomorrow is always the ~~hope~~ thought that keeps many a heart beating and alive.

The people of Israel who had returned to Jerusalem to rebuild the temple had the dream of seeing that beloved building raised from the ashes to reflect its splendor of the yesterdays past. They saw it in its destruction. It was a broken mass of stones and rubble. The work was hard and seemed fruitless. Their job had begun in enthusiasm and had slowly drifted into despair and hopelessness. They abandoned their love to restore God's edifice and went to work building their own private homes and lives. But God called them back to the task and they were once again encouraged as one of God's servants spoke to them the words of God Himself.

Haggai was that man. He began to address them in August and they responded by erecting the altar of burnt offerings and the foundations. Two months later he addressed them and the walls were beginning to rise once again. Then two months later on the 18th of December in 520 BC he addressed them again and God told them of the beauty the temple would once again come forth and that through their efforts to be obedient, God would bless those efforts. But also on that same day of December 18th, Haggai is told by God to speak to Zerubbabel with a special message. Zerubbabel is a special person. He was Governor of Judah, appointed by the Persian authorities.

The message that Haggai is to deliver to Zerubbabel is one of future significance. He begins by saying, "I will shake the heavens," ~~xxxxxx218x~~ "And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down every one by the sword of his brother," verses 21B-22.

It is most likely that Zerubbabel conjures up pictures in his mind of the immediate overthrow of the enemies of the Jews and that they will be restored to the power they once had. But these words of God were words that in the future, far off intime all of this owuld take place.

Hagai may or may not have understood what he was speaking on behalf of God, and it is a very good possibility that he didn't understand this prophecy. But in it are tied up the promises that God had made to His people beginning with Abraham down to this present age. It had to do with a covenant relationship which none of them completely understood.

Thus it is that God speaks to Zerubbabel and that message is, "In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, My servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the Lord, and I will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee," saith the Lord of hosts," verse 23.

Now the "In that day," of which God speaks, is the future of many events. But it is the fulfillment of a prophecy made to Zerubbabel's ancestors before him. That prophecy was given as recorded in 2 Samuel 7. In this chapter God speaking through Nathan the prophet tells David that he is not the one to build the temple of the Lord. This is the recording of what is known as "The Davidic Covenant." It is here that God ~~tells~~ sets forth this prophecy. He first tells David about one of his sons who will actually build the temple, as we read in verses 12 through the beginning of the 14th verse, (read these). Then God gives the prophecy concerning the end of history as we read in the 16th verse, (read this verse). A ruler from David's line will sit on the throne of David "forever." This individual by ancestry will be more than a mortal man because his reign will continue into "eternity." It is in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke that we read a careful tracing of the genealogy of Jesus, who is of David's family. It is He who will fulfill this prophecy and reign over the universe forever and ever. This is the meaning of the beginning of this 23rd verse in Haggai. "In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, My servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the Lord," verse 23A.

There is a slight discrepancy concerning the pedigree of Zerubbabel historically because of the end of Solomon's line, but it is Zerubbabel who carries on David's line and from that line came Jesus who is the rightful physical and spiritual King to reign forever. It is not actually Zerubbabel who will sit on the throne, but from him, from his ancestry.

As a seal of this, God says, "And will make thee as a signet, for I have chosen thee," saith the Lord of hosts," verse 23B.

The signet of the king was his ring. The bearer of that ring, represented the king and it was a sign of authority and power. Thus God is setting forth the establishment of His kingdom which will culminate in the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Zerubbabel at this time stood in the line of David. He could not be declared King of Israel because that would have been in opposition to Israel being captive of Persia. The Persian rulers were willing to make Zerubbabel Governor of Jerusalem because that was a secular role. But he could not be declared as the King of Israel. That is why God tells Zerubbabel, "In that day," because it is a future day. A day that is yet to come. God says, "I will take thee, O Zerubbabel, My servant," verse 23B.

God is saying that from Zerubbabel's line, not Zerubbabel himself, God will, "Make thee a signet, for I have chosen thee," verse 23C.

From Zerubbabel's line will come forth ONE who will stand in place of God. This was and is to be Jesus when He returns to earth for a Second Time. It is what is known as "The Second Coming."

Neither Haggai, nor Zerubbabel, nor the people completely understood what this prophecy was. But they accepted it as coming from God. And what did they do? They did what anyone must do. They lived their lives a day at a time and they passed from the scene leaving life to be lived by succeeding generations. It is comforting to know that one day in history all the wrongs and evils will be corrected and God will rule and reign supreme. But until that day we must live our lives one day at a time. In the hit Broadway musical, Annie, it is the cute little red-haired orphan who sings,

"The sun will come out tomorrow, so you've got to hang on til tomorrow ---

--- come what may!

Tomorrow....tomorrow, I love you tomorrow; you're only a day away!"

Until that tomorrow comes there is life to be lived; there are dreams to pursue; and there must be a dedication to live life as God unfolds it before us.

(Illustration of Tommy Cruse, Irish immigrant who struck it rich in Montana)

All of the dedication of Tommy Cruse, all of his hard labor paid off. But it was a continued day after day search that brought this about. God doesn't promise us wealth, or even health for that matter. But He does promise us that one day we shall live and reign with Him if we are willing to live now for Him, one day at a time. Tomorrow is only one day away. From this prophecy of Haggai we can take strength to live for the Lord. And may we hear His words spoken to us, "From this day will I bless you, for I have chosen thee." And let us take that as our invitation to begin living for Him today, looking to tomorrow.

"The Broken Bread"

Scripture: Luke 22:19

(Illustration of man planning to rob bank, getting away with it, but caught speeding)
There was a man who planned on robbing a certain bank. He figured he had the perfect crime. For months he planned each and every move. He knew where each teller was, when they went on breaks or out to lunch; he knew where the guards were and their daily routines; and he knew just when to enter the bank and what door to go out of. Everything was letter perfect and on the day he picked, everything went as he had planned - almost. Sometime later as he stood before the judge in Criminal Court, the judge asked him if he had anything to say before he passed sentence. He said, "Yes I do your honor." He said, "my plan was all so perfect. The only thing I didn't plan on was getting that speeding ticket."

There all kinds of plans which are made but many times some unforeseen thing comes along and ~~xxxxxxx~~ alters these plans. There are all sorts of instances which we could cite that are in the "what if" category. In almost all cases, such as this bank robber, there is a "what if," that can be asked and that "what if" may have altered the situation drastically. Ours is the benefit of hindsight when we look at God's plan of redemption. But what of those people who were living in the time of Jesus and believed that He was The Promised Messiah? What were their reactions to the events that took place in His life? For those who were His avid followers, such as the Disciples, it must have been extremely frustrating to have Him teach them that He was God's Promised One, only to see Him rejected and thwarted each step of the way. For them, God's plan ~~xxxxxx~~ must have seemed like so ~~xxxxxx~~ many "Broken Things." During these weeks of this Lenten season we are going to look at some of those "Broken Things," which took place in the life of Jesus.

Jesus was partaking of one last meal with His disciples. Jesus had made arrangements with a friend to use the Upper Room of this friend for that meal. When everything had been prepared we read, "And when the hour was come, He sat down and the twelve Apostles with Him. And He said unto them, 'With desire, I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer,'" verses 14-15.

He had told them several times that ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ about the arrest that would take place; how He would be tried, and executed, and He is just preparing them for those events at this point. He tries to assure them that His desire has been to spend this brief moment of time in fellowship with them. He is announcing to them that everything in God's plan was about to be accomplished through His arrest, trial and death, and that their times of fellowship on a regular basis is going to stop at this point. That is why He said, "For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God," verse 16.

Then He shares with them one of the four cups of wine which they drank with the meal and during the drinking of this cup He reiterates that His fellowship with them will not be the same until God's Kingdom is fulfilled.

It is then that we read, "And He took bread, and gave thanks and brake it, and gave unto them saying, 'This is My body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of Me.'" verse 19.

This was unleavened bread and it was probably baked in the form of being round about the thickness of a thumb, which was the normal way of baking the bread. This was done in this manner because it made it easier to transport and was the easiest way to bake it. This method dated back to the Exodus from Egypt. And since the bread was formed in this manner, it was easier to break it, than it was to cut it.

So here we read of "The Broken Bread, which in God's plan of redemption had a specific purpose and meaning.

As we analyse this verse we see that first of all, Jesus took the bread and then He gave thanks. This is important because any good, orthodox Jew conformed to the custom of acknowledging God as the Author of every good and perfect gift. The Jewish form of blessing which Jesus used at this time was probably, "Blessed be Thou, our God, King of the universe who bringest forth bread out of the earth!" This was the customary Jewish prayer. But also underlying this was the fact that this "Broken Bread" stood for something other than just something to eat. Jesus tells this by saying, "This is My body, which is given for you." The word "given" in Greek means, "to yield, to grant, to render, to give up." All of these definitions spell out what Jesus did. He surrendered His body, "giving it up" to be sacrificed on behalf of those who would accept Him as God's redeemer. Like the loaf of bread which He broke at this last meal, so His body would be given. His followers are to remember Him in this meal. The other Gospel writers Matthew and Mark, add to this Scripture the words, "Take and eat." This is why Jesus was giving this bread. It was to be eaten as a remembrance of Him.

(Illustration of missionary and Japanese soldier in 1945)

On a cold winter day in 1945, a missionary was being marched with a group of other prisoners from one Japanese prison camp to another. His long life of service among these people seemed to be at an end. His strength was giving out. He had not eaten since noon the day before and his weakened condition made walking difficult. His remaining strength was being sapped rapidly by the brisk pace enforced by the guards in the bitter cold. He begged the young guard nearby to let him fall out and die in peace, but there was only a curt, "Walk on!" He did, but a short while later he begged the same thing and received the same reply, "Walk on!" A third time he asked this of the guard and his answer was a very cold and loud, "Walk on!" But as he said this he edged close to the missionary and whispered, "We are coming to my grandmother's house." The missionary stumbled on wondering what this was supposed to mean. Soon his section of prisoners was halted by the young guard, who hurried into a little house by the roadside.. He returned quickly holding something between his hands. He ordered the missionary to hold out his hands and then he placed in those hands a hot potato. Bending close to the missionary's ear, he whispered, "Take, eat." Then stepping back, he raised his voice in the familiar gruff commands, "Walk on!" The old missionary understood. The gruff orders came because the young guard feared his officers, but his heart was filled with sympathy and his use of the words, "Take, eat," could only mean one thing: the youth was a Christian.

Jesus broke the bread for us. Then He gave His body on our behalf and He says, "Take, eat, this is My body broken for you. Do this in remembrance of Me. Come, let us gather at His Table, and Take and eat!

"The Broken Vial"

Scripture: Mark 14:7-9

It was Charles Dickens who wrote: "No one is useless in this world who lightens the burden of anyone else."

In the first chapter of Mark we read of a healing which Jesus performed. Beginning at the 40th verse, Mark describes this healing, (read verses 40 through 45). This healing would have a lasting effect on this man and probably out of gratitude to Jesus he gave a party at which Jesus was possibly the guest of honor. Thus our Scripture for this morning begins: "And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper," Verse 3A.

This is the leper whom Jesus healed as Mark records that healing in chapter one. Simon may or may not have known the circumstances of Jesus' life at this point. He may or may not have been aware that Jesus was soon to be taken captive and tried for treason. But just six short days before this was to take place, Simon gave a party and invited Jesus and His friends. It was six days before the shadow of that cross on Calvary became a reality in His life that Jesus was sharing some relaxation and a meal with trusted friends.

Mark further describes this scene by stating, "As He sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious," Verse 3B.

The woman is identified by John in his Gospel as Mary, the sister of Martha and Lazarus. It was at their home that Jesus stayed on several different occasions. And it would be from their house in just a couple days that He would leave to enter Jerusalem on ~~His~~ what we call His triumphal entry, better known as Palm Sunday. So it is possible that not only was Mary at this party, but Martha and Lazarus as well. Mark tells us that Mary had an alabaster box. Most likely it was in the ~~xxxxx~~ shape of a bottle and in that bottle or "Vial" was a precious ointment, or perfume. It was customary at this time to pour a few drops of perfume on a guest when he arrived at the house, or when he sat down to eat. But Mark tells us, "And she brake the box, and poured it on His head," Verse 3C.

Mary didn't just anoint Him with a few drops, she poured the entire contents on Him. John tells us that she wiped His feet with this ointment. She probably did both. But the point is, that she took this very expensive ointment or perfume and used all of it to anoint Jesus. This was a rare type of perfume and quite expensive. We can readily see how expensive it was when we look at what some of the other guests had to say about it. Mark tells us, "And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, 'Why was this waste of the ointment made? For it might have been sold for more than three-hundred pence, and have been given to the poor.' And they murmured against her," Verses 4-5.

The cost of this perfume was equal to an average man's yearly earnings. So we can see that it was quite expensive. But there were several reasons for this anointing. Probably those reasons were lost on the other guests, but they weren't lost on Jesus. Mary was not aware of the reasons behind her actions, because her purpose had only one reason which we shall look at shortly. But Jesus knew that in that part of the world it was customary to first bathe the bodies of the dead and then to anoint them with ointment or perfume. And after the body had been anointed the vial in which the perfume had been contained was broken and the broken fragments were laid with the dead body in the tomb. Mary broke the "Vial and in that act may have been the hidden significance of Jesus being prepared for burial without Mary or the other guests surmising that this was what was taking place.

Jesus defended Mary's action by saying, "Let her alone; why trouble ye her? She hath wrought a good work on Me," verse 6.

In Greek there are two words for "Good." The one word just describes what is morally good. The other word describes what is not only good, but lovely. This is the word which Jesus uses here. What Mary did was not something she was compelled to do, but rather, something she was moved to do on the spur of the moment. What was happening was that the other guests were made to feel uncomfortable by this simple act of love. They didn't do it to Jesus and there was a twinge of jealousy which Mary's act aroused. So in order to waver their jealousy, they picked at a point that they probably believed Jesus would support. I would believe that the other friends of Jesus who were there were thinking that He would agree with them and reprimand Mary for what she did. They knew His concern and deep feeling for those who were the poor and the downtrodden. They knew how He sought to help those who were of lesser means. But imagine their surprise when Jesus first told them to stop picking on her for her very generous action which she didn't have to do, but also imagine their surprise when He said to them, "For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but Me ye have not always," verse 7.

Jesus was quoting directly from the ~~Scriptures~~ Torah, from the book of Deuteronomy the 15th chapter and the 11th verse. God states there, "For the poor shall never cease out of the land."

This doesn't mean that Jesus was trying to tell these people to ignore the plight of the poor, but rather, He was trying to tell them that if this perfume had been sold and the money given to the poor, it still would not have eliminated the poor. There would still be individuals and families that were in need. He was also pointing out a fact which He elaborates on in the next verse where He states: "She hath done what she could: she is come beforehand to anoint My body to the burying," verse 8.

This is just adding to His words, "But Me have not always," verse 7B. If they were not aware that His life was going to be sacrificed shortly, here was a further indication of this. Jesus is excusing what some of these people were looking at as waste and pointing out that it was an act of love. We can see in this situation the actions or attitudes of what are often called, "the do-gooders." In our society we have people pointing fingers at the Christian Church and claiming that we just aren't doing enough for the so called "homeless." Yet, there are many examples of providing for some of these people and how they have spurned those efforts simply because within those ranks are some who simply do not want homes or responsibilities. Therefore, they swell the ranks of the homeless, the poor and show us the truth of what God said, "For the poor shall never cease out of the land." Sure, we must do what we can in the name of Jesus Christ to feed and clothe, and house those in need. But we must also be careful that we do not join that group which was prepared to find fault with Mary's actions because such love confronts us with our coldness and indifference.

As further proof of how Jesus perceived what Mary had done He went on to say: "Verily I say unto you, 'Whosoever this Gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this is also that she hath done shall be spoken of as a memorial of her,'" verse 9.

From this we see that although the Cross was looming larger and larger before Him, Jesus knew that it would not end His ministry. He knew that beyond all of that there was the message to be preached throughout the world. The "Gospel" the Good News of God had to be preached to the four corners of the earth. And where this Gospel is preached, there is the record of love which Mary gave to her Savior. It wasn't something she did out of compulsion. It was something she did out of just sheer love. Haven't we all at one time or another been confronted by this kind of love? Haven't you had someone do something for you that wasn't necessary, wasn't required, and perhaps wasn't even expected and it simply overwhelmed you?

(Illustration of boy buying slip for his mother who was "perfect;" but too small)

A small boy went to the lingerie department of a store to purchase a gift for his mother. Bashfully he ~~asked the clerk~~ told the clerk he wanted to buy a slip for his mother. She asked, "What size?" But he answered that he didn't know. So the clerk asked him to describe her --- was she fat, thin, short, tall? The boy answered, "Well, she's just about perfect." So the clerk sent him home with a size 24. A few days later the mother came to exchange the gift as it was too small. She needed a size 52.

That's the kind of love that grabs our hearts. Have you ever received a bouquet of dandelions from ~~xxxxxx~~ one of your children or grandchildren? Those are gifts of love without strings attached. Simply the giver saying in the gift, "I love you." This is what Mary did for Jesus.

(Illustration of Salvation Army officer in India and 7 criminal lepers)

These dangerous men responded to an act of love, with love. Mary saw what probably that houseful of guests didn't see. She saw that Jesus was her Savior, the One who would set her free from sin and death. For all the rest, it was just a "Broken Vial" that should have been used for another purpose.

What do you see when you read something like this? Do you see a waste of something expensive? Or do you see the love given by Mary, and the love given by Jesus?

"The Broken Circle"

Scripture: Luke 22:1-6

(Illustration of boy meeting grandmother first time, "On wrong side")

A little boy met his grandmother for the first time when she visited from out of state. He asked, "What makes you my grandmother?" She replied, "My dear, you have two grandmothers -- one on your mother's side and one on your father's side. I am your grandmother on your father's side."

The little boy thought about that for a moment, and then he said, "Grandma, you won't be here a week before you'll find out you're on the wrong side."

The Apostle John writing ~~for~~ instructions to the early Church, penned the words in his first letter, chapter 1, beginning with the 17th verse, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world." verses 15-16.

The truth of this is seen in the life of one of the ~~xxx~~ men Jesus had chosen to be one of His inner circle.

This revelation came to the Disciples shortly after Jesus had fed the 5000, and the people had followed Him to the other side of the Sea where He had gone to get away from the crowds. This was in the last year of Jesus' ministry and it was John who recorded ~~xxxx~~ these events. Jesus speaking to the people who had gathered, said to them as we read in John 6, verse 64, "But there are some of you who believe not." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray Him. And He said, "Therefore, said I unto you, that no man can come unto Me, except it were given him of My Father." From that time many of His disciples went back, and walked no more with Him." verses 64-66.

It was Peter who then, speaking for them made the statement that they knew that Jesus was the Messiah and the One who gave them God's truth. But Jesus answered this by saying, "Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?" verse 71.

John then adds his editorial comment because he knew the completed story and he writes, "He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray Him, being one of the twelve." verse 71.

It took about 3 years for the true character of Judas to emerge for everyone to see. There are all sorts of theological arguments as to whether Jesus knew He was picking a devil to be one of His disciples; or whether Judas was part of God's original plan to be the one to deliver Jesus up for execution. But putting all of those arguments aside, the example of Judas is what can happen to anyone whose life is not centered on God. So whether Judas was the original one to betray Jesus; or whether Judas ~~xxxxxx~~ had intentions of getting some extra money; or whether Judas suddenly became disenchanted with Jesus are ~~mmot~~ questions as well. What we do know is that it was time for the celebration of the Feast of the Passover and the religious leaders of the Jews wanted to bring an end to Jesus' ministry. Luke tells us, (read verse 2). They didn't just want to relocate Jesus to preach outside of Jerusalem where they had or wanted control of the religious life of the people. They were intent on stopping Him once and for all and that meant the death penalty for Him. But this posed a problem. Jesus was very popular and you just do not take the most popular ~~xxxxxx~~ and exciting personality and arrest Him and dispose of Him. This had to be planned because the people would have possibly started a riot and the Romans would have quickly stepped in and punished those responsible for causing the riot. No, you had to plan this meticulously and carefully. So Luke then explains this situation by stating,

"Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve," verse 7.

Notice, Luke identifies him completely. This is Judas who was called "Iscariot," and he was one of the 12 disciples. Judas was moved by Satan to do this. So it is in God's eternal plan that Satan is ~~is~~ actually bringing about his own downfall by having Judas take part in the plot against Jesus Christ. It was through His death that Jesus conquered Satan and death.

After Judas began to hatch his plan for whatever reason, Luke says, (Read verse 4). And of course it is not a surprise that we read, (read verse 5). The religious authorities were more than glad to have this offer made to them, so they made an agreement and gave Judas money for this deed. It is for 30 pieces of silver, or 30 shekels that Judas made a bargain to betray Jesus. In the Mosaic Law as put forth in Exodus 21:32, the Law read, "If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned."

In other words, thirty pieces of silver, or thirty shekels was the price of a slave and in modern money we are told that amounted to about $21.60. So we can see that Jesus was to be betrayed for a paltry sum of money. So it is easy to see that Judas was letting the "Lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life," enter into his life and crowd out the things of God. Luke concludes this portion of Scripture with the words, (read verse 6). Judas made a promise that he would handle his part of the bargain. But the agreement was that this betrayal would take place, "In the absence of the ~~crowd~~ multitude," verse 6B.

This would be done privately away from the crowd so there would not be a riot which the Romans would have to squelch. Strictly business for cash. It is here in the history of the world that a phrase was born that has been handed down through the ages. The ultimate of insults to be hurled at anyone is to be called, "A Judas." Have you ever known anyone who named their son "Judas?" I haven't and the reason is because of what this man did. President Roosevelt stated that what the Japanese did at Pearl Harbor would ^{be} a remembrance of infamy. But what Judas did far outstrips anything that the Japanese did there, or that any other nation or people has ever done in history.

Last week we talked of "The Broken Vial," which Jesus said would be an everlasting memorial to Mary. This week we are looking at "The Broken Circle," which is an everlasting memorial to the treachery of Judas. Mary will always be remembered for her love. Judas will always be remembered for his dishonor. A memorial of love contrasted with a memorial of hatred. We may be tempted to say that this is just an unfortunate incident reported in Scripture and has never been repeated. But look at the circumstances of this event. Jesus had surrounded Himself with an inner circle of men He believed He could trust and rely on to the very end. But there was one within that group who proved unworthy of His love and trust. Every congregation, whether we like it or not, has within it those who either have been or who are potential "Judas's." Those who perhaps have been a part of the inner circle, only to betray that trust. And when that circle is broken by those Judas's it is always because that particular "Judas" knew what was supposedly "best" for the church. We need to examine ourselves and question as the disciples did when Jesus announced that one of them would betray Him, "Is it I, Lord?" Am I guilty of betraying my Lord?

(Illustration of gravestone in Milford, New Hampshire)

On a gravestone in Milford, New Hampshire is the charge that a certain church had murdered one of its members by gossip and fake accusations. After her name and the date of her death in 1833 these words were inscribed:

At age 33, she was accused of lying in church meeting by the pastor and a deacon, (their names are given), was condemned by the church unheard. She was reduced to poverty."

At this point the inscription stated that the church closed the matter to all discussion. The message on the marker concluded, "The intentional and malicious destruction of her character and happiness as above described, destroyed her life. Her last words on the subject were, 'Tell the truth and this iniquity will come out.'"

Judas was responsible for the death of Jesus. Church members can be responsible for the destruction of the character or reputation, or programs of the church in much the same way. God wants and desires His Church to be pure and spotless. But He also wants the circle to be unbroken. An old Gospel hymn raises this question and asks, "Will the circle be unbroken by and by Lord, by and by Lord?" The question pertains to the family unit and whether each of them will be in heaven together as an unbroken circle. But it also pertains to the church family to which we belong. God desires that circle to be unbroken and that, "no one should perish, but have eternal life."

(Illustration of Hellen Keller and Anne Sullivan)

I'm sure that all of us have heard of Helen Keller the woman who became world renowned without sight or sound. But Helen Keller had another self- another half.

Her name was Anne Sullivan. She was born in Massachusetts in poverty and half-blind.

Her mother died and she went to the poor house. A brilliant operation restored her sight and she determined to help the blind. Anne Sullivan was hired to work with Helen Keller who could not see, speak, or hear. In two weeks Anne Sullivan taught her thirty words.

Under Anne's system Helen Keller rose to renown. Teacher and pupil remained inseparable for 49 years. But then Anne became blind and it was Helen who taught her how to overcome that handicap. She schooled her former teacher as she had been schooled.

Then Anne Sullivan died, leaving Helen Keller alone in this world. It was then that Helen said, "I pray for strength to endure the silent dark until she smiles upon me again"

Helen Keller's circle was broken until she passed from this life. But no human illustration can make the comparison of "The Broken Circle" which our Savior had to endure. The sadness of this incident should prompt our submission to Him and claim Him as Lord of our lives, never to know our betrayal of Him. The Circle can only be unbroken if we turn our lives over to Him completely. All that He asks is to enter our hearts and lives this day.

"The Broken Vows"

Scripture: Mark 14:27-31

(Illustration of sweeper salesman and house with no electricity)

A sweeper salesman was traveling in a remote rural area, (probably Carver), and he knocked on the door of a farmhouse. When the farmer's wife opened the door he walked in and dumped a bag of dirt on the floor. "Now," boasted the salesman, "I'll make a deal with you. If this super duper, most powerful sweeper ever made doesn't pick up every bit of this dirt, I'll eat what's left." The farmer's wife went out to the kitchen and when she returned she ~~xxxxxx~~ said, "Here's a spoon, we don't have electricity."

The moral of the story is probably twofold. First, make sure you have all the facts correct. And second, don't make extravagant claims unless you are willing to back them up. It was Peter, who always had a ready response for whatever the occasion was. It was Peter who seeing Jesus walking on the sea stepped out of the boat to walk over to Him; it was Peter who along with James and John was taken up into the mountain and who witnessed the Transfiguration of Christ and told Him that booths would be erected for Jesus, Elijah and Moses there; it was Peter who declared that Jesus was the Christ; and it was Peter who played such a prominent role in the last hours of Jesus' life.

In the Gospels of Matthew and Mark it is recorded that Jesus had a special little talk with Peter after they had left the Upper Room. But in Luke and John this conversation is recorded as taking place ~~xxxxxx~~ at the table. It really doesn't matter where or when it took place and the difference is simply due to a difference of remembrance of the chronological sequence of events. It probably did take place at the table since Jesus must have been deep in thought about what was to take place and He went directly to the garden to pray.

But Mark tells us, (Read verse 27 and 28). The Greek word Jesus used here is SCANDALIZO from which we get our English word "Scandal." It meant to be offended, but specifically it means "To fall over an obstacle" "fall into a trap," or be "impaled on a stake." And it was after the fact that a realization must have dawned upon one of these disciples more than any of the others and that disciple was Peter. It was Peter. In this portion of Scripture it is Peter who says, "Although all shall be offended, yet will not I," verse 28.

Peter says that although every one else may turn against Jesus, he never will. Like the sweeper salesman, "If it doesn't pick up the dirt, I'll eat it," so Peter is making the extravagant boast.

"And Jesus saith unto him, 'Verily I say unto thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.'"

The Jewish day began at sundown, at 6:00 P.M. and so Jesus uses the term ~~xxxxxx~~ "Day," because they were into the new day, Friday, but He knew that it was going to be a long ordeal that He would face well into the night and so He amends the wording to say, "No, not just in this day, but, this VERY night, you will deny Me."

And again it was Peter who could not visualize himself as being one to deny Jesus and we read, "But he spake the more vehemently, 'If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise.' Likewise also said they all." verse 31.

Peter and all the disciples, but especially Peter is saying, "No way!. I'd rather die first than turn against you." Here was the extravagant claim again and it is interesting to see what transpired.

So it is that we read, (Read verses 32 to 36). And then we read, (Read verse 37). Who is pointed out first in this verse? Peter! Peter, the one who said he would die first rather than betray Jesus. So we read on, (Read verses 38 to 41). Here were the big three of the disciples and chief among them Peter and all of them are sound asleep while their Lord is agonizing over His fate.

So we read on, (Read verses 43 through 47). The disciple who cut off the ear of the servant is identified as Peter. Good old extravagant Peter.

But then notice what took place after Jesus was arrested as Mark relates in the 50th verse, (Read this verse). ALL of them fled and ran from the scene and that includes Peter.

But from a safe distance they must have watched the proceedings and knew what was going to take place. And Peter summoning up his courage, worked his way to the home of the High Priest. Mark tells us, (Read verses 66 through 68). That's once! (Read verses 69 to 70A). That's twice! (Read verses 70B through 71). That's three times! (Read verse 72). Now Peter recalled his extravagant boast that he would never turn against Jesus and he wept bitterly as Matthew and Luke explain it. It may have been at this point that Peter came face to face with the full definition of the word "Offend." He knew that Jesus was going to be tried by the Romans and the Jews were declaring He was worthy of death. He knew the execution of a criminal was on a Roman cross and the shadow of that cross loomed before him and to be offended was to be impaled on a stake." All of this was taking place and here he was the one who declared that even if everyone else failed Him, Peter knew that he wouldn't. But the vows he had made were now broken. The very thing he said he wouldn't do, he did. And he wept bitterly.

How often are we quick to declare that we are willing to stand up for a certain person, or a certain cause? And when things get a little sticky, how quick we are to back down. It happens to all of us. It was the Apostle Paul who wisely wrote in his letter to the church in Corinth chapter 10:12, "Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall." He was saying that when we are at our cockiest best, when we think we have it all together, we better be careful because we are riding for a fall. The visible mistake that Peter made was in one statement he made. In the 31st verse he states, "I will not deny Thee." He is saying the equivalent of our word "Never." Have you ever used the word "never" and found out that you couldn't live up to your "never?" God has a way of making us eat our words sometimes and the word "never" should "never" be used when we are declaring that we are going to do or not do something. It was the Apostle Paul again who wrote about this and if you really want to see yourself in the Bible, read the 7th chapter of Paul's letter to the Romans. "The very thing I don't want to do is what I do," is what he writes. And that description fits each one of us no matter how spiritual we may think we are.

Peter is the classic example of one who took the vows of being the Lord's man even if it meant his death. Yet, when he had the opportunity to stand up and be counted, the vows he had taken were broken.

(Illustration of Alexander the Great's soldiers walking off cliff on his command)
How committed are you to the cause of Jesus Christ? Have you taken a vow like Peter to stand with Him and for Him in your life when you joined His Church? When we joined His Church, we all took this vow. Can He expect us to give our all for Him? He does expect that. But He knows our humanness, that we can say, "I'll never ~~desert you~~ desert you or forsake Your cause," and then do just the opposite. But this morning He is calling us once again to His side. He is giving us the opportunity to mend our "Broken Vows." Will you answer His call and accept His invitation to recommit your life to Him?

"The Broken Relationship"

Scripture: John 19:25-27

For 33 years Mary had watched her son go from infancy to manhood, knowing that His was not to be a normal life. Now on this spring day ^{on a hillside} just outside of Jerusalem she stood looking up into His pain wracked face. ~~The thought of His death was a terrible thing to think of~~ The day had turned ominously black blotting out the sun as if the very forces of nature were crying out against this injustice. She knew that He did nothing deserving of death, and yet, here ~~was~~ she was watching His strength ebb, and His body ebb slowly toward His inevitable death. And wasn't it ironic that at His crucifixion only a small group of people were with Him to the end? And more ironic was the fact that it consisted of women and one disciple. Who were these people, and what were they possibly thinking as the final minutes of His life ticked away?

John identifies the situation by stating, "Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother," verse 25A.

The woman identified as "His mother," was of course Mary who bore Jesus miraculously as told to us in His birth narratives. She must have been thinking back to those days 33 years ago when Jesus was born. He had been acclaimed as God's Savior, The Christ. She was perhaps recalling how after 8 days she had taken Him to the temple in Jerusalem. From where she stood on this hillside she could look back toward Jerusalem now and see the temple standing there as a mute reminder of that special day. When she presented Him in the temple to the Lord, the aged Simeon had greeted her and had taken the child and blessed Him before God. But Simeon also blessed Mary and Joseph and it is Luke who records those words in Luke 2:24-25, (Read these). At the time those words probably didn't have a great deal of impact upon her life. But now, standing beside this cross they may have been ringing once again in her ears, "Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also." Her heart was breaking as she watched the agon of Her son, and it couldn't hurt any worse if someone had stabbed her with a sword.

Then John tells us, that along with Mary His mother, there was, "His mother's sister." This was Salome. She was the wife of Zebedee and the mother of James and John. It was these two disciples that Jesus had nicknamed, "The sons of thunder." Both of them were angry young men. It was Salome who came to Jesus as Matthew records it in the 20th chapter of his Gospel, and she made the request that her sons be permitted to sit on the right and left hands of Jesus in His kingdom. Jesus had rebuked her and her sons for this. But yet, here she was. As she stood there she may have been thinking back to that day and the dawning of what Jesus had said to her and her sons was now beginning to take place. He had asked if they were worthy to drink the same cup as Him and to be baptized like Him. Now she perhaps understood what He had been talking about. But there is no mention of hostility or anger on her part. So it was Mary and her sister Salome and next John tells us, "Mary the wife of Clopas." Another name for Clopas, (which is the correct name instead of Cleophas), is Alpheus. Clopas, or Alpheas was the brother of Joseph, Jesus' ~~stepfather~~ earthly father. Clopas and Mary, his wife had three sons which were numbered among the 12 disciples of Jesus. And lastly, there was Mary, called Mary Magdalene. She was from the prosperous but corrupt town of Magdala, hence the name "Magdalene." It was she from whom Jesus cast out 7 demons.

The responsibility now falls on the shoulders of John and to give proof that he followed through on this deathbed desire of His Master, John gives us the editorial comment, "And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home," verse 27B.

For Jesus, this was another of "The Broken" things He had to deal with. Those whom He had loved as friends and earthly relatives were now to be taken from Him. This very hour, one of His last going through this horrible ordeal, would end with "The Broken Relationship." No more would these women be aunts to Him; no more would Mary be His mother; no more would John be His cousin. He was now on the verge of giving up the human for the heavenly. No more was His an earthly mission only. This was "The Broken Relationship" which God had planned for Him since the beginning of the world.

In the Alpine Museum of Zermatt, Switzerland there is displayed a piece of rope. It is stout and it looks strong, but there is a story behind it. A man named Edward Whymper was a wood carver and climber but he had never climbed the Matterhorn. He had climbed part way but never made it to the top. Then a climbing party was put together which consisted of 4 climbers and 3 guides. They were able to climb to the top. Then they roped themselves together to begin the descent. All went well until one of the men slipped and as he began to fall he dragged 3 other men with him. The other 3 men above saw what was happening and they braced themselves for the moment when the ropes would become taut and the fall of the men would be broken and they would get reassembled to continue going down the mountain. The moment came when the rope ran its length, but at that point the rope snapped like a thread and the remaining 3 men could only watch in horror as their 4 companions hurtled to their deaths below. The 3 men slowly and cautiously made their final descent to the bottom and when they arrived they examined the rope. Why had it not held as it should have? It was discovered that it was not a genuine Alpine club rope. All genuine Alpine club ropes have a red thread running through them, proving they have met the exhaustive standards required for rugged mountain climbing. It was never discovered how a substitute rope had been used for this climb. And so it is that the rope displayed in that museum clearly shows that it is not a genuine Alpine rope.

At the point of the crucifixion of Jesus the evidence is given that the earthly relationships of Jesus were broken. But what remained unbroken was the red thread running from the Father, through His Son to mankind. In all of this plan as it was fulfilled step by step there were broken things all around Him. But Jesus carried that unbroken red thread making it possible that the broken relationship man had with God was now restored.

The simple fact of the death of Jesus Christ is that He died so that man might live. God extends His invitation to each of us to have that restored relationship but it is only possible through coming to and through the cross of Christ. Is Jesus truly your Lord and Savior? We need to make sure we have that relationship restored by coming to Him.

We meet pressing human need with fear and pain and inaction. In a chorus with worshippers everywhere, we say, "We have fallen short, we live in a state of brokenness and alienation. We have sinned." O God, our Sustainer and Redeemer, help us to discover the gifts of power, talent, and energy which you give us, that we might bring healing into a broken world. "The Broken Bones"

Scripture: John 19:31-33

(Illustration of man calling about time to fly to New York, & accepting ridiculous time)

A man called the airport and asked how long it took to fly from where he was to New York City. The airline clerk said, "Just a minute, sir," to which the caller replied, "Thank you," and hung up.

This proves somewhat that people will believe most anything. The cross ^{and redemption} is the central theme of the whole Bible. Yet, because there are certain ~~things~~ circumstances surrounding the crucifixion of Jesus, all sorts of beliefs have been formulated. An example of this is trying to prove the meaning of the cross in rather odd ways. A book known as the Epistle of Barnabas, written around 130 A.D. takes a text from Genesis 14:14 to prove the cross.

It is there that we read, (read this verse). This tells us that Abraham had 318 servants. In the Greek alphabet letters also represent numbers. Thus 318 is IHT. Since IH are the first two letters of Jesus' name this reference in Genesis is about Him. The letter T is a picture of the cross and therefore Genesis 14:14 is in reality a prefiguring of Christ's death.

Now that is stretching Scripture too far. There ~~was~~ was in the first century of the Church a group of people called "Docetists." These people derived their name from the Greek word describing them which means, "To seem, or appear." They believed that it seemed as though Jesus died on the cross ~~in~~ but that wasn't so. Simon who carried Jesus' cross was the one who was crucified, because he exchanged places with Jesus. Thus it only seemed as though Jesus had died, and since He didn't it made it possible for Him to supposedly to appear as though resurrected from the dead.

Since the Scriptures do not depict the crucifixion of Jesus in graphic terms or ways, beliefs such as these have arisen along with the belief that Jesus really didn't suffer because He was God and God is above suffering.

James Watkins a Christian writer, writing in the March issue of Moody Monthly writes: "They just don't make crosses like they used to. Two thousand years ago the Romans handcrafted them out of real wood - rugged, solid, durable - stained with natural colors. Folks respected the manufacturers. But like many products, most crosses today are machine made and mass produced. Solid, rough wood has been replaced with polished veneer in walnut, oak, or cherry - co-ordinated, of course to match padded pews."

He goes on to describe how we have fashioned crosses out of aluminum, or silver, or 24 carat gold to wear strictly as jewelry and not necessarily denoting that the wearer is a true Christian who knows the meaning of that cross worn around the neck. We need to see the complete picture when we look at the cross of Jesus Christ and preach or teach, or read the account of His execution on Calvary. We have glamorized it to the point that everything about it is pictured as being sterile and clean. It wasn't that way at all. The execution of Jesus was dirty business. There was nothing nice and clean about it at all. Each of the Gospel writers tells different incidents which took place during this execution. We must remember they were acting as reporters so to speak, and each gave a different account telling of what they were inspired of God to write.

It is John who tells us matter-of-factly that Jesus had died. He describes it this way in the 30th verse - "When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, He said, 'It is finished: and He bowed His head, and gave up the ghost.'"

John tells us earlier in this chapter that the Jewish religious leaders had asked Pilate to change the inscription on the cross and he had refused to do so. Filled in that attempt they now come to Pilate and request that this execution be hurried along because it was beginning to interfere with the observance of ~~their~~ their High Holy observances. John tells us, "The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away." verse 31.

The punishment of crucifixion as practiced by the Romans took days for the victim to die. Thus, what the Jewish leaders ~~were~~ were requesting of Pilate was a humane treatment of these criminals. But that was not the real motive behind their request. The Mosaic Law stated that a criminal was not to hang upon a cross all night and should be removed before sundown. It also stated that it ~~was~~ profaned the sabbath to not dispose of executed criminals, or dead bodies. Since the next day was the sabbath, beginning at 6:00 P.M. and it was now 3:00 P.M., and also since the next day was the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, they needed to dispose of these bodies. But if this execution took as long as was normal, the sabbath and the high holy feast would be profaned. So to make sure that the people would not be able to accuse them of this abomination, they sought Pilate's help in this matter. And Pilate complied as John tells us in the next verses, "Then came the soldiers and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with Him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that He was already dead, they brake not His legs." vs 32-33

In 1968 Israeli archaeologists discovered burial caves a mile north of Jerusalem's Damascus gate. The one cave contained the bones of a child and a young man named Yehohanan. He had been crucified. His heel bones were still penetrated with the rusty remains of a seven inch nail. Both legs had been broken. An anatomist was called in to reconstruct a typical crucifixion. From the position of the nails he was able to do so. The nails were driven through the forearms below the wrists to give greater support, and the victim's legs were twisted to one side and folded up. This unnatural position would enable the victim to continue breathing and thus prolonged his life and his agony.

From this then we can see that when the legs were broken the prisoner could no longer draw himself up to breathe, and he soon died of suffocation. From this we can also see that the death of Jesus was no simple, clean, matter. He suffered just as fiercely as the other two men crucified with Him.

John adds his editorial comment to this by stating in verses 35 and 36, (Read these).

~~Since His death was so painful, it is possible that He died before He had time to say anything, and that He was just going through the motions and did not feel anything of the suffering or crucifixion.~~

John is making the Theological point that Jesus was not just a mere man going through an execution. He is referring to the lamb which was used to celebrate the Feast of the Passover. The Mosaic Law decreed that the lamb would be a male one year old, and further God gave the instructions to Moses and in Exodus 12:46 we read, "In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof."

John knew that Jesus had been called "The Lamb of God," and it was from the lips of Jesus Himself that John heard that this was not just another execution. Jesus had stated that He was offering Himself up for the whole world. So then John was pointing to Jesus as God's Passover lamb; the lamb who would take away the sin of the world; and in order for this to be possible, all of the elements of the original Passover had to be involved here.

At their Passover meal which they had eaten shortly before this, Jesus had referred to His Body as the Bread, unleavened and pure; He had referred to His blood as a New Covenant thus meaning the old covenant had been fulfilled through Himself. And just like the lamb, none of His bones would be broken.

Perhaps it is because His ~~bodyxxxxxxx~~ bones were not broken there has been the belief that He really didn't suffer the pangs of crucifixion and just went through the motions. But for those who truly know that God used this method to reconcile the world to Himself, Jesus is accepted as the Lamb who was sacrificed for all mankind. It is the cross in all its shame and humility that stands forth as the symbol of complete love.

(Illustration of Sir John Bowring and his hymn - "In The Cross Of Christ I Glory")

Sir John Bowring was the British Governor of Hong Kong from 1854 to 1856. While he was there a portion of the city had been devastated by an earthquake. As he was looking over the destruction of a piece of property, he noticed the tower of a church among the ruins. On top of that tower was a cross and the sight of this cross amid the ruins prompted him to write, "In the cross of Christ I glory, towering o'er the wrecks of time."

(Illustration of college boy crawling forward to accept Christ)

Dr. Marshall Craig was preaching in a southern university. At the close of his sermon he extended the invitation for these young people to give their hearts to the Lord. Slowly they began to come forward - the president of the student body, football players, cheer leaders, young men and women from all walks of life were responding to the call of Christ. And then Dr. Craig noticed a strange thing. Far back in the auditorium he saw a boy start down toward the front crawling on his hands and knees. He turned to the president of the university who said, "It's all right Dr. Craig. That boy is one of our students, but he is a hopeless cripple, and the only way he can get around is on his hands and knees." Dr. Craig waited until the boy had made his way to the front, then leaned down to greet him. The young man looked at the preacher and said, "Sir, you said God had a place for a man. I know God has a place for these athletes with their muscles of steel; I know God has a place for these campus leaders with their brains and intellect. But tell me, does God have a place for a wreck like me?"

And Dr. Craig told him through his tears, "Son, God has just been waiting for a wreck like you."

God has a place for all of us wrecks. The cross of Jesus Christ will always be "towering o'er the wrecks of time," and His invitation is to come through the cross and receive the salvation that is only possible through Jesus Christ who suffered and died there in our place.

"The Broken Heart"

Scripture: John 19:34

(Illustration of Mark Twain and how he reported only that which he knew)

At one time Mark Twain was working as a reporter and he was sent to cover an important social event for the newspaper. His editor had warned him to state only facts which he could verify from his own knowledge. This is the story he turned in:

"A woman giving the name of Mrs. James Jones who is reported to be one of the society leaders in the city gave what is reported to be a party yesterday to a number of ~~xxxx~~ alleged ladies. The hostess claims to be the wife of a reputed attorney."

A cynical philosopher once remarked, "Scratch a Christian and you will find a pagan." Cynicism and scepticism go hand in hand in the world. There are simply many, many people who will not believe unless the situation can be seen, or proved beyond the shadow of a doubt. It was one of Jesus' faithful disciples who made the remark that unless he could see the print of the nails in His hands and put his finger into the print of those nails, and thrust his hand into His side, he would not believe. It was thus that the earthly ministry had ended on a note of scepticism. But it had also begun that way. Jesus had been born miraculously and the story of that birth had spread throughout all of the nation of Israel. He was acclaimed as the Messiah at birth. Twelve years went by and a young boy appeared in the temple in Jerusalem at the Feast of the Passover and he had confounded the educated religious leaders there with His ~~xxxx~~ Scriptural wisdom. Word of that had spread also throughout Israel and the waiting continued with expectancy for this young man to grow to adulthood.

Thus it was that the other miraculous baby born to the priest Zacharias and his wife Elizabeth appeared on the scene and began to preach that the kingdom of God had arrived. As he went about the countryside, ~~xxxxxxx~~ baptizing people, he was joined by a man whom he proclaimed to be the Lamb of God. This caused quite a stir and as this man took His leave of John the Baptist He began to assemble a small group of followers. One of them asked the derogatory question, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" There it was, at the very beginning of His ministry, a putdown on His qualifications.

People began to come to Him to be healed of all sorts of ailments. On one of these first occasions He was met by two men who were demon possessed. He healed them, and caused the demons to enter a herd of pigs nearby, and the pigs ran down a steep hillside and drowned in the sea. This caused anger and fear and Matthew recorded it and related, "and behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw Him, they besought Him that He would depart out of their coasts," Matthew 8:34.

He began to be unwelcome at the very first when He came back to His hometown of Nazareth. He went into the synagogue on the sabbath and since He was considered as the local boy who had made good, He was afforded the opportunity to preach on that day. But His direct style of preaching wasn't to their particular liking and it is Luke who tells us, "And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, and rose up, and thrust Him out of the city, and led Him to the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast Him down headlong. But He passing through the midst of them went His way," Luke 4:28-30.

At another time He was in Nazareth, again near the beginning of His ministry and Mark tells us, "And He could there do no mighty work, save that He laid His hands upon a few sick folk and healed them. And He marvelled because of their unbelief." Mark 6:5-6A.

It was on the day which is referred to as His triumphal entry into Jerusalem that Luke tells us, "And when He was come near, He beheld the city, and wept over it," Luke 19:41. Matthew tells us that shortly after He had come into the city and been acclaimed as "He that cometh in the name of the Lord," He was sitting outside the city teaching His disciples about the end times and it was while relating these events and the fall of Jerusalem that He looked down over the city and cried, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not," Matthew 23:37.

He felt the rejection deeply and He cried, literally wept because not too many were listening or hearing God's message for them.

Even those who were His friends were subject to the pain of life and this hurt Him as well. He was preaching in a town near Bethany and word was sent to Him that His friend Lazarus had died. He returned to Bethany and when He arrived and began to talk to Martha, Lazarus's sister, John tells us simply, "Jesus wept," John 11:35.

Although He brought Lazarus back from the dead, He knew that mankind was subject to death because ~~six~~ of sin and in His humanity He was deeply moved and He cried.

All of this led up to the ultimate rejection when He was placed on trial before Pilate and Pilate not wanting to condemn this man to death, gave the crowd the choice between Jesus and a hardened criminal. Luke records, "And they cried out all at once, saying, 'Away with this man, and release unto us Barrabas,'" Luke 23:18.

But Pilate not sure that the people really wanted this criminal set free spoke to the crowd again. And again Luke tells us, "But they cried saying, 'Crucify Him, crucify Him,'" Luke 23:21. And Pilate again appealed to them a third time with the same results.

It all started with His rejection as being a resident of Nazareth. It carried on through His ministry which was questioned each step along the way. And He was briefly acclaimed for what He was, but that was soon swept aside by public sentiment of wanting Him done away with. In all of these events He felt strongly the rejection and lack of understanding of the very people that He had come to help. So what was His reaction to the rejection which He faced? How would you feel? What would your reaction be? In circumstances like these the normal reaction is one of anger, frustration, disappointment, disillusionment, and a "What's the use" attitude. I'm not certain that Jesus reacted in all of these ways, but He did react as many other humans would. The author of Hebrews tells us that He, "Was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin," Hebrews 4:15B.

He was human, just like us. He wasn't a robot going through the motions and feeling nothing. He hungered, He thirsted, He had all of the same emotions such as we do, yet He endured all of it to show us that it could be done. But while He was going through all of this He showed His humanness. On several occasions He remarked to the unbelieving about Him, "O ye of little faith," because they would not accept what He could do. On several occasions the disciples were unable to exact a cure for someone and so they came to Jesus and He exclaimed, "How long shall I be with you and suffer you?" He questioned His sleeping disciples in the garden where He had placed them to keep Him company by asking, "Could you not watch with Me one hour?" He felt the rejection and the loneliness very deeply. And it was one of His last prayers to His Father that requested, ~~xxxxxxx~~ "If it be possible, let this cup pass from Me: nevertheless not as I will, but as Thou wilt."

He was resigned to face His imminent death, but in His humanness He didn't want to. And so it was that He was nailed to the cross, going through that horrible ordeal with all of these feelings of rejection and His heart must have been very heavy to realize that God had to go to this extreme to redeem the world. Is it any wonder then that John tells us, that Jesus was already dead, ~~and~~ "But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced His side, and forthwith came there out blood and water," verse 34.

Medical authorities tell us that in the case of heart rupture, the blood collects in the lining around the heart and the ~~mix~~ water in the blood separates from the blood, thus creating both water and blood. When the Roman soldier pierced the side of Jesus, his lance probably pierced the heart and heart lining causing the flow of blood and water. If this is the case, then Jesus literally died of a "Broken Heart." Figuratively, we can see that this was so, because His heart must have ached for the lack of recognition of who and what He was. *

(Illustration of "Anybody for Calvary?")

A man tells of an elevated train which had one of its stops near a large cemetery. But the trains did not automatically stop at the cemetery to let people off. If anyone wanted off there, they had to ask for the train to stop. As it neared the stop for the cemetery, the conductor would go through the train and say, "Next stop is Calvary Cemetery. The train only stops on signal. Anybody for Calvary? Anybody for Calvary?"

On life's train as we live it, we travel down many streets with little or no thought. But we have the choice of getting off at Calvary by choice only. But to make that choice requires a "Broken Heart." Our hearts should be broken for the sin and sinful people around us who know ~~xxxx~~ little or nothing about God's complete love for His creation. Jesus gave all that He had to give willingly for you and me and the world. But it was His "Broken Heart" that proved that complete love.

* But it is also at Calvary that we are confronted by the simple symbolism of this last event of the crucifixion of Jesus. Within the Church of Jesus Christ there are two sacraments. And with the two elements which flowed from the side of Jesus, each one is symbolic of a sacrament. The Water is symbolic of the sacrament of Baptism, while the Blood is symbolic of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Only when ~~we~~ our hearts are broken because we know that God died in our place can we ever comprehend the full significance of all of this. And only then can we claim it fully as being done for "Me," personally. And we can claim as the hymnwriter declares, "Hallelujah, What A Savior."

The word "Tenebrae" means "darkness." In this service this evening seven candles are lit at the beginning of the service. After each Scripture is read a candle is extinguished. A hymn is sung and some of the sanctuary lights are then extinguished. Each of these portions of Scripture, hymn, and increasing darkness are reminders to us of the darkness which descended to earth with the suffering and death of Jesus Christ. At the end of the service, all of the lights in the sanctuary will be extinguished for a brief period. Then the light on the cross will again be lit and each worshipper is to leave in SILENCE. This means NO talking, and as little noise as possible as we each depart, reflecting on what our Savior endured on our behalf. There is no benediction because our vigil begins, awaiting the day of Resurrection. We pray that this service will inspire each of you to keep that vigil and come and worship the Risen Lord on Sunday.

LOVE LOAVES are to be brought to Church on Sunday morning and presented for dedication at the given time in the worship service.

SUNRISE SERVICE AND BREAKFAST will begin at 6:00 A.M. in Rehoboth Hall, on Easter morning. Rise and shine and join in our celebration of the Risen Lord and Savior.

Third Reading: Matthew 26:36-46

Then Jesus brought them to a garden grove, Gethsemane, and told them to sit down and wait while he went on ahead to pray. He took Peter with him and Zebedee's two sons James and John, and began to be filled with anguish and despair.

Then he told them, "My soul is crushed with horror and sadness to the point of death . . . stay here . . . stay awake with me."

He went forward a little, and fell face downward on the ground and prayed, "My Father! If it is possible, let this cup be taken away from me. But I want your will, not mine."

Then he returned to the three disciples and found them asleep. "Peter," he called, "couldn't you even stay awake with me one hour? Keep alert and pray. Otherwise temptation will overpower you. For the spirit indeed is willing, but how weak the body is!"

Again he left them and prayed, "My Father! If this cup cannot go away until I drink it all, your will be done."

He returned to them again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy, so he went back to prayer the third time, saying the same things again.

Then he came to the disciples and said, "Sleep on now and take your rest . . . but not! The time has come! I am betrayed into the hands of evil men! Up! Let's be going! Look! Here comes the man who is betraying me!"

Fourth Reading: Matthew 26:47-56

At that very moment while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived with a great crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent by the Jewish leaders. Judas had told them to arrest the man he greeted, for that would be the one they were after. So now Judas came straight to Jesus and said, "Hello, Master!" and embraced him in friendly fashion.

Jesus said, "My friend go ahead and do what you have come for." Then the others grabbed him.

One of the men with Jesus pulled out a sword and slashed off the ear of the High Priest's servant.

"Put away your sword," Jesus told him. "Those using swords will get killed. Don't you realize that I could ask my Father for thousands of angels to protect us, and he would send them instantly?" But if I did, how would the Scriptures be fulfilled that describe what is happening now?" Then Jesus spoke to the crowd: "Am I some dangerous criminal," he asked, "that you had to arm yourselves with swords and clubs before you could arrest me? I was with you teaching daily in the Temple and you didn't stop me then. But this is all happening to fulfill the words of the prophets as recorded in the Scriptures."

At that point, all the disciples deserted him and fled.

Fifth Reading: Matthew 26:57-68

Then the mob led him to the home of Caiaphas the High Priest, where all the Jewish leaders were gathering. Meanwhile, Peter was following far to the rear, and came to the courtyard of the High Priest's house and went in and sat with the soldiers, and waited to see what was going to be done to Jesus.

The chief priests and, in fact, the entire Jewish Supreme Court assembled there and looked for witnesses who would lie about Jesus, in order to build a case against him that would result in a death sentence. But even though they found many who agreed to be false witnesses, these always contradicted each other.

Finally two men were found who declared, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the Temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'"

Then the High Priest stood up and said to Jesus, "Well, what about it? Did you say that, or didn't you?" But Jesus remained silent.

Then the High Priest said to him, "I demand in the name of the living God that you tell us whether you claim to be the Messiah, the Son of God." "Yes," Jesus said, "I am. And in the future you will see me, the Messiah, sitting at the right hand of God and returning on the clouds of heaven."

Then the High Priest tore at his own clothing, shouting, "Blasphemy! What need have we for other witnesses? You have all heard him say it! What is your verdict?"

They shouted, "Death!—Death!—Death!"

Sixth Reading: Matthew 27:1-2, 11-18, 20-26

When it was morning, the chief priests and Jewish leaders met again to discuss how to induce the Roman government to sentence Jesus to death. Then they sent him in chains to Pilate, the Roman governor.

"Are you the Jews' Messiah?" the governor asked him. "Yes," Jesus replied. But when the chief priests and other Jewish leaders made their many accusations against him, Jesus remained silent. "Don't you hear what they are saying?" Pilate demanded. "But Jesus said nothing, much to the governor's surprise.

Now the governor's custom was to release one Jewish prisoner each year during the Passover celebration—anyone they wanted. This year there was a particularly notorious criminal in jail named Barabbas, and as the crowds gathered before Pilate's house that morning he asked them, "Which shall I release to you—Barabbas, or Jesus your Messiah?" For he knew very well that the Jewish leaders had arrested Jesus out of envy because of his popularity with the people.

Meanwhile the chief priests and Jewish officials persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas' release, and for Jesus' death. So when the governor asked again, "Which of these two shall I release to you?" the crowd shouted back their reply: "Barabbas!" "Then what shall I do with Jesus, your Messiah?" Pilate asked. And they shouted, "Crucify him!" "Why?" Pilate demanded. "What has he done wrong?" But they kept shouting, "Crucify! Crucify!"

When Pilate saw that he wasn't getting anywhere, and that a riot was developing, he sent for a bowl of water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this good man. The responsibility is yours!" And the mob yelled back, "His blood be on us and on our children!"

Then Pilate released Barabbas to them. And after he had whipped Jesus, he gave him to the Roman soldiers to take away and crucify.

Seventh Reading: Matthew 27:45-54

That afternoon, the whole earth was covered with darkness for three hours, from noon until three o'clock. About three o'clock, Jesus shouted, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani," which means "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Some of the bystanders misunderstood and thought he was calling for Elijah. One of them ran and filled a sponge with sour wine and put it on a stick and held it up to him to drink. But the rest said, "Leave him alone. Let's see whether Elijah will come and save him."

Then Jesus shouted out again, dismissed his spirit, and died. And look! The curtain sealing the Holiest Place in the Temple was split apart from top to bottom; and the earth shook, and rocks broke, and tombs opened, and many godly men and women who had died came back to life again. After Jesus' resurrection, they left the cemetery and went into Jerusalem and appeared to many people there.

The soldiers at the crucifixion and their sergeant were terribly frightened by earthquakes and all that happened. They exclaimed, "Surely this was God's Son."

First Reading: Matthew 26:17-25

On the first day of the Passover celebration, when bread made with yeast was purged from every Jewish home, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where shall we plan to eat the Passover?"

He replied, "Go into the city and see Mr. So-and-So, and tell him, 'Our Master says, my time has come, and I will eat the Passover meal with my disciples at your house.'" So the disciples did as he told them and prepared the supper there.

That evening as he sat eating with the Twelve, he said, "One of you will betray me."

Sorrow chilled their hearts, and each one asked, "Am I the one?"

He replied, "It is the one I served first. For I must die just as was prophesied, but woe to the man by whom I am betrayed. Far better for that one if he had never been born."

Judas, too, had asked him, "Rabbi, am I the one?" And Jesus had told him, "Yes."

Second Reading: Matthew 26:26-30

As they were eating, Jesus took a small loaf of bread and blessed it and broke it apart and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take it and eat it, for this is my body."

And he took a cup of wine and gave thanks for it and gave it to them and said, "Each one drink from it, for this is my blood, sealing the New Covenant. It is poured out to forgive the sins of multitudes. Mark my words—I will not drink this wine again until the day I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom."

And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Mocked By The Soldiers

Scripture: Matthew 27:27-31

Those who believe in God, believe that His Word, the Bible tells the truth. But what about a verse written by the Apostle Paul in his letter to the Galatian Church where he states, "Be not deceived, God is not mocked?" That statement is not true when we look at it from the Scripture text in Matthew's Gospel, the 27th chapter, beginning with the 27th verse. ~~xxxxx~~ The trial of Jesus has ended. It ended with a severe beating administered by the Roman soldiers. The Apostle John tells us in his Gospel that Pilate had Jesus scourged trusting that those calling for His death would consider this as punishment enough and He could be released. But whether that is true or not we cannot say for certain. But we can say for a certainty that Jesus was at the mercy of these soldiers. After He had received the beating rendered by them, Matthew states, "Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto Him the whole band of soldiers," vs 27. These were the bodyguards of Pilate. It fell to them at this point to prepare this man for execution. But before they did ~~that~~ that, they were determined to have a little fun at His expense.

Thus it is that Matthew adds, "And they stripped Him, and put on Him a scarlet robe," vs 28. When Jesus had been brought to Pilate, Pilate had learned that He was a galilean, thus putting Him under the jurisdiction of King Herod. This gave Pilate an excuse to beg off making a decision in this case, so he sent Him off to have Herod rule in this matter. From the accounts of the encounter between Herod and Jesus we learn that Herod questioned Him and since he knew that he didn't have authority to sentence Him to death ~~xxxxxx~~ which was the penalty being demanded by these religious people, he sent Him back to Pilate for that decision which only a representative from Rome could make. But before sending Him back, we read in the other Gospels that Herod had a gorgeous robe placed upon Him, mocking Him as a king. This scarlet robe which Matthew speaks of here, may have been that robe from Herod. But not only did they array Him in a robe like a king, Matthew relates, "And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon His head, and a reed in His right hand: and they bowed the knee before Him, and mocked Him saying, 'Hail, King of the Jews!'"

The crown of thorns was a symbol of royalty as well as the scepter in his right hand. But it was all done in mockery. Here was God being mocked. These ~~Romans~~ pagan Romans believed that the Emperor was god. They saluted him with "Ave, Caesar!" Thus, when they saluted Jesus, decked out in this gorgeous robe, a mock crown, and mock scepter in His hand, they were giving Him a similar greeting. But their greeting was not that He was God, but instead that He was not God. Thus God was actually being mocked. And their mockery went further than just the bowing of the knee before Him. We read, "And they spit upon Him, and took the reed, and smote Him on the head. And after they had mocked Him, they took the robe off Him, and put His own raiment on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him." vs 30-31/ To these battle-scarred and hardened soldiers this man definitely was not God or represented a god. He was the beginning of what became to them a nuisance to be dealt with since it posed a threat to the Roman Empire.

In ancient Pompeii when Christians were being persecuted and slain for their faith, there appeared on the walls graffiti poking fun at the Christians. One of these was a picture of a Christian kneeling before a jackass. Below it were the words, "Anaximenes worships his God."

It is easy to see how this hatred started in Jerusalem as Jesus was being prepared for His execution. He was looked upon as a radical by both His own people and the Romans, ~~xxxxxxx~~ ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ There was only one way to deal with radicals such as Him, and that was to dispose of them. We are made aware of this from the Gospel writers. But what does that do for us? How does it affect us?

(Illustration of little boy in novel by C.E. Montague - Rough Justice)

In a novel by C.E. Montague, entitled, "Rough Justice," a little boy is in church with his mother and he is listening for the first time to a sermon on the crucifixion of Jesus. The little boy gets so caught up in the preacher's description of the Event that he begins to cry. He can't hold back his tears and so he is sniffling and making a bit of noise. People in church are turning around and looking at him. The little boy's mother leans down and whispers, "Don't take the preacher so seriously. What will people think?"

How seriously do we take the message of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ? Is it just a story that we repeat within our churches and community once a year? Is it something we have grown so accustomed to that it doesn't have any effect on us and we don't take the message seriously anymore? God was being mocked. Yet, Paul writing to the Galatian Church said, "Be not deceived, God is not mocked."

What was he trying to convey? First, he was saying that this Event was past, and God is no longer mocked. Man cannot mock God in any way whatever. God permitted Himself to be mocked in this Event to fulfill His purpose for mankind. There is an addition to what Paul wrote in this 7th verse of the 6th chapter of Galatians. That addition reads, "For whatsoever a man soweth, that he shall also reap."

We can hear this message of salvation as given through the life and blood of Jesus Christ and let it have no effect on us and that is fine with God. But we need to be aware that if we do not respond to that ~~xxxxx~~ salvation, bought and paid for by Him, we are sowing our own separation from God. No, the Bible does not lie. Paul was not lying when he wrote that God is not mocked. Man may think he mocks God today by not accepting God's gift of salvation. But man is only mocking himself and not God.

(Illustration of Thomas ~~Carlyle~~ Carlyle quotation)

Thomas Carlyle once said, "If Jesus Christ were to come today, people would not even crucify Him. They would ask Him to dinner, and hear what He had to say, and make fun of it."

What would be our reaction? Each day of our lives we have the opportunity to ~~wither~~ live for Him, or live for this world. When we choose to live for the world we are in effect mocking Him, for we stand with those exposed to Him. "Be not deceived," God was mocked on Calvary with the crucifixion and death of Jesus Christ, "But God is not mocked" now. For whatever we do against God and the things of God, we actually do against ourselves. God invites us to respond to His gift of salvation through Christ. What is our response this day?

*Invocation

Hymn "Because He Lives"

God sent His Son, they called Him Jesus,
He came to love, heal and forgive;
He lived and died to buy my pardon,
An empty grave is there to prove my Savior lives.

How sweet to hold a newborn baby,
And feel the pride and joy He gives,
But greater still the calm assurance,
This child should face uncertain days because He lives.

And then one day I'll cross the river,
I'll fight life's final war with pain;
And then as death gives way to victory,
I'll see the lights of glory and I'll know He lives.

Chorus: Because He lives, I can face tomorrow,
Because He lives all fear is gone,
Because I know He holds the future,
And life is worth the living just because

Easter Poem

Scripture: John 6: 26-35

Sermon: "Not the Last Supper, but your first Breakfast!"

*Hymn "He Lives"

I serve a risen Savior, He's in the world today!
I know that He is living, whatever men may say;
I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of cheer
And just the time I need Him He's always near.

In all the world around me I see His loving care,
And though my heart grows weary I never will despair;
I know that He is leading through all the stormy blast
The day of His appearing will come at last.

Rejoice, Rejoice, O Christian lift up your voice and sing
Eternal Hallelujahs to Jesus Christ the King!
The Hope of all who seek Him, the help of all who find,
None other is so loving, so good and kind.

Chorus:

He live, He lives, Christ Jesus lives today!
He walks with me and talks with me along life's narrow way.
He lives, He lives, salvation to impart,
You ask me how I know He lives? He lives within my heart!

"The Broken Silence"

Scripture: Luke 23:55-24:12

~~XXXXXXXXXXXXX~~

It was one of those early fall days that we wish we could have everyday, because the weather is so ideal. The sun was warm on that afternoon; the leaves were just beginning to turn giving a hint of the weather to follow. On that hillside, overlooking the city, only the sound of an occasional car on the road below, or the singing of a lone bird in one of the nearby evergreen trees, or the rustle of the wind ~~xxxxxxx~~ through the pines broke the silence. As I stood looking down at the six foot by three foot indentation in the ground I was struck by this silence. I thought of how men with shovels and machinery had scooped out the earth and on a day in May we had committed the earthly remains of my brother. Now, all that remained was the evidence that the ground at this spot had been disturbed, and the earth was gradually settling into place to be leveled off and made smooth like the ground surrounding this spot.

And the one thing I felt the most, was the silence. The unbroken silence that death brings into our lives. It was then that I thought of the mightiest King that Israel ever had and his reaction at one point to death. Bathsheeba had delivered a son, but that son became ill. While the child was ill, David fasted and prayed. Then the child died. When he received news of this, he got dressed, and ate, and went about his ~~new~~ normal routine. His servants questioned this and asked him why he fasted when the baby was alive, but now that it was dead, he didn't fast. David replied, "But now he is dead, wherefore shall I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me," 2 Samuel 12:23.

That is the only answer we can give when faced with the silence of death. "I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me." Each of us will go that way into the silence, but these who have gone on before cannot come back.

But think back to another time far removed from our own. Think of ~~explains~~ another cemetery in a distant land. It was there in the late afternoon of a Friday in the spring that two men of means set about the grisly task of removing an executed criminal from the instrument that He was executed on. It was in just a few short hours that the Feast of Unleavened Bread would begin, as well as the start of the sabbath day. These two men were risking defilement in touching a dead body and according to the law they would be declared unclean for seven days. But with those risks involved, these two men took the body of their loved one and buried Him in a garden tomb. Luke tells us simply, (read verse 55). They saw where this tomb was in that garden cemetery and so they made adequate preparations as Luke relates in the next verse, (read verse 56. the day

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

It had been still dark when a group of women started out from their homes to visit a nearby cemetery. All was still and quiet. And then just as the first ray of light began to dawn on that morning after the sabbath, one lonely bird began his morning song to greet the day. It was at that time of the day when the day is still new and unspoiled, when the sun bursts through in all of its ~~glory~~ splendor that these women began to make their way toward the tomb they had seen sealed the evening before the start of the sabbath. They had heard the resounding clunk as the two men used all of their energy to push the large round stone in front of the tomb, thus closing and sealing that tomb from ~~humans and~~ both humans and animals. They hadn't given a thought to the truth that they now must have faced. "Who would they get to roll that heavy stone away?" But Luke tells us that problem was solved for them, "And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in and found not the body of Jesus," verses 2-3.

Not only was the stone no obstacle to them, the body of their loved one was missing. "And it came to pass as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments: and as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, 'Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember how He spake unto you when He was yet in Galilee, saying, 'The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?' verses 4-7.

And Luke tells us simply, "And they remembered His words." Now, the Silence was Broken. Now all of those nagging questions of "why He had to die, and what purpose," and so forth were answered. Up to this point all they could remember was the horrible death He died on that horrible cross outside of Jerusalem.

(Illustration of Beyond the Cross)

There is a mountain in the Italian Alps which every year thousands of tourists climb. On that mountain there are the stations of the cross leading to a crucifix at the end of the stations. But one tourist noticed a little trail that led beyond the cross. It was not well traveled and his curiosity was aroused. So he stepped beyond the cross and followed the trail. ~~xxxxxxx~~ It was overgrown with brush and weeds and he had a tough time getting through the thicket. To his surprise he came to another shrine that symbolized the empty tomb. It was neglected and the brush had grown up around it as well. Almost everyone had gone as far as the cross and then stopped.

This is true of too many people. They only go as far as the cross and stop. But the cross is not the end of the salvation story. It ends with the empty tomb. ~~It~~ It is true that we are cleansed and forgiven through Jesus' shed blood on the cross. But Jesus arose from the tomb "Breaking" the silence of the grave and conquering man's last enemy, death.

That message is so fantastic that even the immediate disciples of Jesus had trouble believing it. Luke tells us that the women told the Apostles of the empty tomb and the resurrection of Jesus and he adds, "And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not." verse 11.

Peter, good old inquisitive Peter, wasn't satisfied to be told this account. He had to go and prove it to his own satisfaction. So Luke adds, "Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed wondering in himself what had come to pass," verse 12.

Today, there are those who find it difficult, if not impossible to believe that this took place. But God has broken through the silence of death and given mankind the only joy which can make life worth living. That joy is that there is life beyond the grave and it can be lived with our Redeemer and Creator, Almighty God. Perhaps today you are waiting for God to speak through the silence you face. Come to Him in faith, believing that He has shown us absolute proof of His love through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Zula Evelyn Coon has written of this joy and this is what she wrote:

Last Easter when my voice was lifted up
To sing the praises of my risen Lord,
I had not tasted sorrow's bitter cup;
The music held for me no minor chord.
This Eastertide my stricken heart sends up
The strains I lift in accents clear and strong,
For I have drained the dregs of sorrow's cup
And learned the meaning of the Easter song.
I know the sweetness of the minor chord,
The glory of the major full and clear;

I know the power of the Risen Lord --
He lives, and they shall live whom I hold dear.
And though I cannot help the tears that flow,
And though my heart is sad as heart can be,
I sing the Easter song because I know
The blessed Easter message is for me.

The silence is "Broken." Jesus said, "I am He that was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore." Listen to God speaking through the silence of the ages! Jesus Christ is alive! Know it! Believe it! And claim that "Broken Silence" as yours from the only One who will ever love you fully and completely. Claim Jesus Christ as your Savior and know for a certainty that all He did was for you personally. Jesus Christ is ~~alixst~~ Risen! He is Risen indeed!

"That Afternoon"

Scripture: Luke 24:13-24

(Illustration of Chinese worker in mine in charge of supplies, & "Surprise")

A Chinese man applied for a job with a mining company. The personnel manager hired him, and gave him a slip of paper to give to the mine foreman. The foreman told him to go down into the mine and to speak to the crew boss and tell him that he was in charge of supplies. He said the crew boss would tell him what to do. A few days later the personnel manager had to go to the mine and he happened to meet the foreman. He asked him how the Chinese fellow was working out. The foreman said, "What kind of idiot did you hire?" The personnel manager said, "Why he seemed to be adequate for our work, so I hired him. Why, do you call him an idiot?" The foreman answered, "Well, I sent him down the mine to see the crew chief and told him he was in charge of supplies. I had to go down into the mine and as I was rounding a bend in the tunnel, out jumps this guy and yells, 'Supplize! so I fired him.'"

(Illustration of Allen Funt and Candid Camera)

Allen Funt always signed off his program, "Candid Camera" by saying, "Don't be surprised if someday, when you least expect it, someone will walk up to you somewhere, and say, 'Smile, you're on Candid Camera.'"

There are all sorts of surprises our friends and other people may pull on us, but the surprises which sometimes unfold as we live our lives are those that are long remembered.

It was now the afternoon of that spring day in Jerusalem; Two men leave the city from the Western Gate. They walk briskly for about 25 minutes and as they turn around to look behind they can see the city stretching around them in the distance. It is as if they have left the ~~xxxx~~ cares and concerns of the past few days back there and dropped them as they departed. Luke describes this simply by saying, "And behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus which was from Jerusalem about three-score furlongs," verse 13. The two disciples at this point are not identified and a bit later on, one of them is named. It is only in Luke's Gospel that we read this incident and it is believed by many Biblical scholars that the unidentified man was none other than Luke himself. The other man was Clopas, or Alpheus ~~xxxx~~ which is his other name by which he is known. And we had said at another time that Clopas was the brother of Joseph, the earthly father of Jesus. This then would make Him the uncle of Jesus. The distance they traveled was about 8 miles. What they were traveling to Emmaus for is not certain. It is a good possibility that they decided to take a walk to work off some of their frustrations. In any event, Luke tells us, (read verses 14-16). They were walking with none other than their Lord Jesus Christ and did not know it. The question that Jesus raises was, "What manner of communication are these, that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?" verse 17.

(Illustration of "wait three days")

A woman tells of noticing an old flower lady on a beautiful Easter Monday morning. She was sitting in her usual place inside a small archway. At her feet corsages and boutonnières were displayed on an open newspaper. The flower lady was smiling and her wrinkled face seemed alive with inner joy. On an impulse the woman ~~asked~~ said, "My, you look happy this morning!" "Why not? she answered. "Everything is good." She was dressed so shabbily and seemed so very old that the woman couldn't help saying, "Don't you have any troubles?" "You can't reach my age and not have troubles," she replied. Only it's like Jesus and Good Friday. When Jesus was crucified on Good Friday, that was the worst day for the whole world. When I get troubles I remember that, and when I think of what happened only three days later -- Easter and our Lord arising. So when things go wrong, I've ~~learned~~ learned to wait three days ... and somehow everything gets much better." And she smiled goodbye. But her words still follow that woman wherever and whenever she thinks she has troubles ... "Give God a chance to help ... wait three days."

These two men had waited three days and their feelings were showing. They had heard that something miraculous happened. But to them it was not a reality. Thus, they appeared sad and dejected. Jesus, unknown to them at this time, who is the searcher of all human hearts, read ~~their~~ from their attitudes ~~xxxxx~~ their sense of defeatism. Thus it was at this question from this stranger that Clopas takes the opportunity to inform this "stranger" of the events he didn't seem to know anything about. Clopas asks Him why he didn't know these things. Surely he must have been the only one in the whole world who didn't know this as far as Clopas was concerned. But Clopas reveals the utter dejection and defeat he felt by what he said as Luke tells us, "But we trusted that it had been He which should have redeemed Israel." To these two men all of that stuff Jesus had said about being "The One" God sent, was over and done with. But what they didn't know and what many others like them don't know, is that Jesus is ever present with those who desire His presence. They earnestly desired to see Him; to know that He was really alive. Their hopes and dreams had been shattered and what they wanted more than anything else was to know that He had come back from the dead. Clopas went on to recount the events of that morning and what had been told them. And then this "stranger" begins to speak and Luke tells us, (read verses 25 to 27). Even though He quoted the Scriptures pertaining to the Messiah, His identity was not revealed.

So their walk was coming to an end and Clopas and Luke had reached their destination as Luke relates, (read verse 28). Their intentions were to evidently spend the night there, because Luke states, "But they constrained Him, saying, 'Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent.' And He went in to tarry with them." verse 29.

The Greek word "Constrain" means to "compel by entreaty." In other words, they coaxed Jesus to spend the evening with them and to share their meal. There was something about this "stranger" that must have intrigued them and they wanted to continue their interesting conversation with Him. It is interesting to note that if they had not coaxed Him to stay with them He would have gone on. He would not have intruded in their lives. This is the truth of Christianity. Those who choose to ignore Jesus, will certainly have their wishes met. Jesus does not intrude on anyone's life. By their entreating the "stranger" to stay and eat with them they had the opportunity to have a personal encounter with the very One they thought was still dead. Luke explains it simply, (read verses 30-31). It was when He broke the bread and blessed it that something familiar came to mind. It was then that God removed the clouds from their eyes and they recognized Him as Jesus. But with this revelation He disappeared from their midst. Here we encounter the Resurrection body of Jesus. Although He seemed normal and human in every other respect, yet there was a spiritual quality about Him that the normal human life and body does not have.

After Jesus disappeared from their midst, Luke and Clopas must have sat for sometime in silence looking at one another, trying to determine if they had actually been privileged to this strange episode. Luke then records their words to each other by saying, "And they said to one another, 'Did not our heart burn within us, while He talked with us by the way, and while He opened to us the Scriptures?'" verse 32.

"The Sunday Friend"

It had been a very busy day for all of them. For some, it had started several hours before dawn. Each of them had related their experiences several times, going over the details and questioning over and over again what it all meant. Mary Magdalene had explained how she had been the first one to whom Jesus had appeared and ~~how~~ the conversation He had with her; the other women related their experiences and how Jesus had made His second appearance to them; Peter, excitedly told how he had ~~xxxxxxx~~ met Jesus as He appeared for the third time; and it was Cleopas and Luke who had burst into the room returning quickly from Emmaus to tell them the meeting they had with Jesus as He had appeared for the fourth time. ~~xxxxxxx~~ Now, after relating these details over and over, they sat silently, locked securely in this upper room. Night had fallen over Jerusalem. Their fear that the Jewish authorities would suddenly break into the room and arrest them had subsided somewhat. There was some safety and security in numbers, or so it seemed. It hardly seemed possible that all of these events had been crowded into one day. And yet, it was still Sunday.

Then suddenly, without the opening or closing of the door, there in their midst stood Jesus. His first words were, "Peace be unto you." This was a familiar greeting and is comparable to our greeting one another by saying, "How are you?" But in the case of Jesus using this phrase it means much, much more. At His birth, Jesus was announced to the shepherds with the words of the angels, "Peace, good will toward men." His resurrection was proof that He made peace with God through His blood on the cross. So He was greeting them with the joy that through Him they now were reconciled with God.

As proof that it is He, John tells us, "And when He had so said, He shewed them His hands and His side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw it was the Lord," verse 20.

Any doubts or fears that all the things they had been talking about which were not realities to all of them, were dispelled. Each of them could see Him, and hear Him, and know that it really was Jesus. And if there were any doubts they were further dispelled by what took place immediately after He had greeted them. John reports, "Then said Jesus to them again, 'Peace be unto you: as My Father hath sent Me, even so send I you.'" verse 21.

The salutation is repeated but now He is instructing them as He did before His crucifixion. The purpose of their lives was not to just become the first members of His Church, but to go out and tell others of Him.

To empower them with their mission we read, "And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and saith unto them, 'Receive ye the Holy Ghost: whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.'" verse 22.

At the creation as recorded in Genesis we read of God creating Adam. We are told that God made man of the dust of the ground and "Breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul," Gen. 2:7B.

Here was God once again breathing His Spirit into these disciples of His to empower them for the work that they were being ordained to do. But we must also add that He was not giving them the power to forgive sins. That right belongs to God alone. No man can forgive the sins of anyone. Jesus was empowering His disciples to go out and spread the Good News of man being reconciled to God through the blood of Jesus Christ. To those who accept Christ as their Savior, their sins are forgiven and the disciples could proclaim this. To those who refuse to accept Christ, ~~xxxxxx~~ they are still living in their sins and the disciples could proclaim this as well. It was not a matter of them having the power to forgive or retain sins because that prerogative belongs to God alone.

John doesn't include any thing further and we must conclude that there wasn't anything further which took place of real significance. The only thing that is added to this is a notation about the disciple Thomas. John reports, (read verses 24 and 25).

Then we read, "And after eight days again, His disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, 'Peace be unto you.'" verse 26.

A week has gone by and it is Sunday again. The disciples ~~xxx~~ once again have their Sunday Friend in their midst. Jesus extends the invitation to Thomas to make certain that he knows that He is Jesus. We are not told whether he actually does this or not, we are just told that Thomas answered and said unto Him, "My Lord and my God," verse 28.

Thomas declares that Jesus is God in the flesh. Thomas is the first one who called Jesus God. And the disciples were privileged to this special relationship with Jesus.

(Illustration of little boy going to art museum every day)

A little boy visited a certain art museum every day. When he came he only looked at one painting and it was a painting of Jesus. The museum guard noticed this little boy and he watched him each day to see what he would do. The boy came in, walked up to the painting, looked at it for a few minutes and then he would leave. Finally the curiosity of the guard got the better of him and he decided to ask the boy what this was all about. The next day when the little boy arrived he stopped him and he asked, "Son, why are you always coming in here and looking at that painting?" The little boy answered, "Oh I just look at Jesus and He looks at me."

We may have never thought of church in that light, but that is exactly what it is. We come on Sunday to look at Jesus, and He looks at us. He is "The Sunday Friend," who should be a part of our life. But there are those who see the church in a different light.

(Illustration of man not going to church because he was "established")

It was Dwight L. Moody who told the story of a ten-year-old boy who asked his Dad, "Daddy, why don't you ever go to church with us?" The father replied, "I don't need to go to church son. My faith is established."

Later that same day the man drove his horses out of the barn and nitched them to the buggy. As he and his son drove out of the yard, the horses became mired in a mud hole. The man tried in vain to extricate them and it was then the boy observed, "They're not going anywhere, Daddy. I believe they're established."

All church members establish themselves in one way or another. We establish a patternn of either attending regularly or irregularly. Those who attend irregularly have certain excuses that "establish" that they have justification for staying away. They amount to all sorts of things from not liking the preacher, or his preaching, to wanting to spend the only day they have away from people. But just why should we be in church? What reason can we possibly give for being here Sunday after Sunday?

It was the late comedian and singer Eddie Cantor who sang his themesong at the end of the program ~~xxxxxx~~ on Sunday night, and the words were, "I love to spend each Sunday with you, As friend to friend I know that it's true." Each of us should be able to say this to the Lord, that we love to spend each Sunday with Him. We may not know it, or be aware of it, but we can be certain that the Lord Jesus loves for us to spend Sunday's with Him. Church attendance does more than give the opportunity to get money in the collection plate to pay the bills of the church. (And that is what some people feel the only purpose of the church is). Church attendance is not a lot of other things that people think it is either. So just what is the purpose of coming to church?

(Illustration of girl traveling to Alaska and being "hugged" by two truckers)

As we live our daily lives each week has its ups and downs. We need the fellowship which only the church can give on a Sunday morning. It gives us a chance to spend some time with "The Sunday Friend" Jesus Christ. It prepares us for the week ahead and strengthens our relationship with Jesus to continue through the week.

Jesus invites us to let Him share these lives that we live. He wants to be the friend who sticks with us through thick and thin. The friend that sticks closer than a brother. The friend who is a friend in all circumstances of life, whether joy or sorrow; or health or pain. Take Him as your friend today and let Him share a friendship with you that you cannot have with anyone else.

(Illustration of "The Broken Lily")

Clarence Foraberg, a Christian minister tells ~~how~~ of the events which followed their worship service one Easter Sunday. He said that after the service which was one of those beautiful inspiring services of the church year, he went back to his study. He was there a short period of time and when he was ready to leave the church he walked back into the sanctuary. The people were all gone, the choir was gone, the musicians had departed and the sanctuary was empty. The lilies had all been claimed and as he walked up to the altar he noticed that there was one lonesome lily standing all by itself. Two of the four blossoms had been broken and nobody had claimed it. The thought struck him that it was almost like a parable. It seemed to say that Easter was now over for another year; that it had been nice while it lasted, but that it didn't last very long. Weeks had been spent in preparation, but by twelve-thirty on Sunday afternoon, as far as the sanctuary was concerned, it was over.

Jesus had appeared to different individuals following His resurrection. He had appeared to His disciples as a group twice, but the former relationship He had with them was broken by His death on the cross. He was separated from the disciples and they must have greatly missed the sometimes hectic schedule they had kept for three years or so.

Chapter 21, of John's Gospel is actually an epilogue or an anti-climax to his book. John had actually ended his Gospel with the ~~warm~~ closing words of chapter 20, (read verses 30-31

But like many authors, after he had completed his writing he discovered something that needed to be added and so he wrote, (read verse 1). He remembered the encounter they had with Jesus on the shore of the Sea of Galilee. As he recalled this event, he remembered who was there with him. "There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, (of which he was one), and two other of His disciples." verse 2.

All told there were seven of them and evidently, shortly after Jesus had appeared to them and revealed Himself to Thomas and then departed, they had grown restless and the inactivity made them anxious to be doing something. But what could they do? It was Simon Peter who wisely knew that the sure cure for boredom was to get busy doing something, and what better thing to do than something which he knew about. And that was fishing. So he said, "I go a fishing," verse 3A.

And since the others were also feeling the effects of inactivity, John tells us, "They say unto him, 'We also go with thee.' They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night caught nothing." verse 3B.

So they fished all night and caught nothing. John recalls that as it began to get daylight with the breaking of the dawn, there was a man seen standing on the shore. Although their boat was fairly close to the shore, they did not recognize Him as Jesus. But the man called out to them and asked, "Children, have ye any meat?" verse 5A. His term, "Children" was the endearing term of endearment. It was like, "My beloved, My special sons, My very close friends," etc. But even with this term of endearment, they didn't recognize Him. Their simple answer to His question was "No." Then He gave them instructions to put their net on the right side of the boat and immediately the net filled up and they couldn't drag it to the boat. Seeing that this action seemed to have a familiar ring to it, John says, "Therefore that disciples whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, 'It is the Lord,' verse 7A.

John recognized something familiar and immediately knew it was Jesus. John explains that Peter was not completely dressed. Scripture tells us he was naked, but he had simply removed his outer cloak and was working ~~xxx~~ actually in his underwear. The Jewish law stated that when one offers a greeting he is performing a religious act, and in order to perform a religious act a man must be dressed. So Peter put on his outer cloak because he was going ashore to greet Jesus and he stepped into the shallow water to make for shore.

John tells us the simple setting, "As soon as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread," verse 9.

But before they ate with Jesus, He told ~~them~~ to bring in the fish they had caught. We read that the net was full, yet not broken. The number of fish is said to have been 153. There are all sorts of allegories as to what the significance of the number means. They probably knew the number since they would have split up the fish caught. There are those Biblical scholars who have said that there were 153 different kinds of fish in that net and it signifies the church which Jesus started. Inside the church of Jesus Christ there is room for any and all who will come in. The church can hold all of them and there is still room for more. But whatever the reason for this large number of fish, it remains that once again it was one of Jesus' miracles. This was also further proof that it really was Jesus, not an imposter.

Following this, "Jesus saith unto them, 'Come and dine.'" And none of the disciples durst ask Him, 'Who art thou' knowing it was the Lord," verse 12.

They sat down around the fire and the breakfast took on the air of old times. "Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise," verse 13.

Here in the early morning stillness, when the sea was relatively calm the disciples were sharing "Breakfast At Ebbside" with their beloved Lord. Nothing fancy, just bread and some fish which Jesus Himself had cooked.

The disciples probably ate in silence as they shared and savored these fleeting moments with their Lord. And just what does this Scripture give to us? What is the point it is making? I believe that at this point in the disciples lives, their spirits were at Ebbside. True, they had heard and seen all of the events leading up to this day. Jesus had been arrested, executed, and had miraculously come back from the grave; they had seen him and here John says, "This is now the third time that Jesus showed Himself to His disciples, after He was risen from the dead," verse 14.

But after His three appearances to them collectively, and appearances to individuals on four other occasions, He had gone away and was not their constant companion as He has been before His ordeal. But their relationship was different and they must have known that relationship would never be the same. So while their spirits ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ had reached the depths and they were at their lowest ebb, here with their Lord they had a different relationship than before. Here was Jesus not only sharing fellowship with them, but providing it as well. He was providing them physical food along with His spiritual presence. The comfort of His words prior to His death may well have been ringing in their ears, "I will not leave you comfortless, I will come to you," John 14:18.

And in the reality of these silent moments of eating with Jesus, they came to know Him and understand Him as they had never done before.

(Illustration of minister telling ministry student about God holding his hand)

A young man tells how as he went off to study for the ministry his pastor told him a story that stuck with him throughout his ministry.

The minister told of how when his son was a small boy he would walk through the fields and pasture behind the parsonage with him. The little fellow would take hold of ~~his~~ his Dad's little finger and they would set off together. But when he tripped over a stone, or came to a rough place he would stumble and fall, and his grip would let go. He would pick himself up, brush himself off and grab the little finger again, gripping harder, but he would fall again and again.

This happened over and over until one day the little boy picked himself up and he said, "Daddy?" The minister said, "Yes son, what is it?" He said, "If you would hold my hand I wouldn't fall." The minister explained emotionally to the ministerial student, "You know, he still stumbled many times after that but he never hit the ground. Now, as you walk with God, don't try to hold on to Him, let Him hold on to you. You may stumble but He'll never let you fall."

This was the beginning of what these disciples were going through as they had "Breakfast At Ebbtide" with their Lord. He was demonstrating to them that He was just as concerned about them now and in the future as He had been in the past. The relationship had changed, and would be changed in the future. But He wouldn't let them fall.

God continues to demonstrate this each day that we live. His desire is that we let Him hold on to us. Why not begin this walk with Him today? Your life may be at ebbtide; you may feel that you have reached the bottom and things couldn't get any worse. But God does care. And God does want to have a special relationship with you. Let Him hold on to you and find that He won't let you fall.

At the close of the service the invitation is extended to each worshipper to respond to God's leading for your life. This invitation gives the opportunity to accept Christ, to pray, to meditate, or to seek counseling. The Pastor will assist you if you desire.

"On Happy Hill"

Scripture: Matthew 28:16-20

After His rejection in Nazareth, Jesus made Capernaum His headquarters. Matthew records in the 9th chapter the 1st verse, "And he entered a ship, and passed over, and came into His own city."

It was here that significant events of His ministry took place. Nearby, He called the fishermen Simon, Andrew, James and John to be His disciples; it was here that He summoned the tax collector Matthew to be a disciple; it was here that He cured Peter's mother-in-law and the centurion's daughter, also the paralytic, and a demon-possessed man. Capernaum, was one of the chief cities of Galilee in the time of Jesus. It was in the Garden just before He told Peter that he would deny Him three times that He told His disciples, "But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee," Matthew 26:32.

It was the angel at the tomb who told the women, "And go quickly, and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead; and, behold, He goeth before you into Galilee. There shall ye see Him; lo, I have told you," Matthew 28:9. returned

Some time after the resurrection of Jesus the disciples ~~went~~^{returned} to the province of Galilee and Matthew explains this by writing, "Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them," Matthew 28:16.

We don't have any idea how long they waited for Him to appear, or how long they were at this mountain. All that we do know is that Matthew states, "And when they saw Him, they worshipped Him; but some doubted," Matthew 28:17.

Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 15:6, "After that, He was seen of above five-hundred brethren at once."

In order for that many people to see Jesus, there had to be ample room. It is believed that this appearance to more than five-hundred took place at this time of which Matthew is writing. Those who doubted, as he states were most probably some of these other people and not the disciples. This event took place after Thomas had been sceptical and had his curiosity answered. In Galilee, there were two mountains which are mentioned in the ministry of Jesus. It was Mt. Tabor on which Jesus was transfigured before Peter, James and John.

This was a much higher mountain than the other. The second mountain is the one identified as the Mount of the Beatitudes. It was here that Jesus preached the Sermon on the Mount. It is also a good possibility that this is the place where Jesus now appeared for the 8th time following His resurrection. It was here then that Jesus had spoken those famous words of "Blessedness" which we call "The Beatitudes." That word, "Blessed," means "Happy." So it was a return to "Happy Hill," and it was "On Happy Hill," that Jesus gave further inx Far-reaching instructions to His followers. For it was here that He said, "All power is given unto Me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen." Matthew 28:18-20

Their happiness had been fulfilled by His resurrection from the dead. They had not completely understood all that He had told them. But when they saw these events begin to unfold before their very eyes, much of ~~their~~ their previous frustration disappeared. Now, it was like old times once again. Here was Jesus just ^{as} they knew Him from the years they had spent at His feet hearing, and learning, and being instructed. But now He was saying something that He had never said to them before. Now, He was giving them the authority to go out in His name and to preach and teach and baptize. But more than that it was the complete authority of Almighty God. That authority carried with it the threefold power of God. They were to do everything in God's Name. But they were also to do it in the Son's name and they knew Him to be Jesus. It had been Jesus who had told them, "He who hath seen Me hath seen the Father."

They knew from this that they had been experiencing God on earth with them. But they also knew Jesus to have spiritual qualities about Him. At first it must have been rather spooky for them to be locked up in a room and suddenly there is Jesus in front of them without ever using a window or door to enter. And then, just as quickly He vanishes out of their sight. So they must have known that when Jesus said they were going to minister in the name of the Holy Spirit, He had given them the evidence of that.

So here, "On Happy Hill," they received their instructions that they would very shortly be about.

But these instructions were not just for the eleven, they were for every follower of Jesus. Each of those 500 or so who were witnesses to this event were being given the power and authority to stand forth and proclaim Him as the Savior of the world. Jesus didn't say, "Do only this much," or, "Only do this." His command was to give the Gospel message to ALL people not just a certain few.

(Illustration of Corrie Ten Boom ministering to the "feeble-minded")

Sunday in Holland was a day of rest for many people and especially for the Ten-Boom family. Corrie Ten Boom, one of the girls in that family used Sunday afternoons for what she called Church for the feeble-minded. She started bringing the Gospel to people who were not able to go to church because of their physical or mental problems. She worked with the Down's Syndrome people, those of low IQ, and feeble-minded. She told of a special Sunday afternoon about a 12 year-old boy. His name was Karel'tje. He was one of a large, ~~family~~ poor family. His father was cruel to him because he was feeble-minded. He listened as Corrie told the story of Jesus providing food for five-thousand people and how the disciples passed it out. She said as the five loaves and two fishes passed from Jesus' hands to ~~the~~ the bread and fish became sufficient to feed the multitude. Suddenly, Karel'tje jumped up and swinging his arms around him, he cried, "There is enough! There is plenty for everyone! Just take as you like! Plenty for everyone!" Karel'tje felt himself one of the disciples. He ~~identified~~ identified with them.

We who have been given all that God could possibly give us have the task of sharing it with others. We are not excused from that task by position, or age, or any other feeble reason we can muster. The command given to all disciples is, "GO YE THEREFORE." That doesn't give qualifications, or time limits. It is specific!

But I believe there is another point which Matthew is making here in this Scripture. You won't find it in so many words. But it is my belief from observing the church for some years there was something which took place after Jesus appeared and made His pronouncement.

I believe this event took place and the prologue to this Scripture would read, "And after Jesus finished speaking, some doubted." They may have broken up into little groups and talked about the things Jesus had told them. But in at least one of these little groups ~~the~~ there would be those who said, "All that stuff He says is well and good. But what's in it for me? I've got a wife and kids to support. I ~~want~~ just start going from door to door and telling people about this Jesus. People will think I'm nuts. It's easy for Him to say that stuff but He doesn't know the people I'm talking about." And this is the attitude and feelings people have had in the church and will continue to have as long as people are unwilling to turn it all over to the Lord and let Him lead and guide and direct.

(Illustration of little old lady in prayer meeting and thinking tithing has not blessed her) Dr. Russell Conwell, the founder of Temple University once asked for testimonies during a prayer meeting. He asked for anyone who had tithed for years to tell of the blessings they had received. Six people got up and gave glowing testimonies of how God had taken care of their needs, many times miraculously. The seventh to speak was a frail woman of seventy, and she reluctantly said, "I wish I could bear such testimony, But I cannot. I have scrimped and saved ~~xx~~ and denied myself through the years to keep a vow made many years ago that I would tithe my income. But now I am old, am losing my job, and have no means of support. I don't know what I shall do." When she sat down the service was closed with a depressing chill.

The next day Dr. Conwell was lunching with John Wanamaker the founder of the Wanamaker Department Store. Mr. Wanamaker said, "Mr. Conwell, I think you will be interested to know that our store is starting a new plan for our employees. We have been working on it for years and we finally can inaugurate a pension plan for our people. Today we are going to give our first life pension to a woman who has ~~xxxx~~ served our firm for 25 years. And then he named the woman who had given the pessimistic testimony in the prayer meeting the night before.

There are too many who claim to follow Jesus Christ who ~~xxx~~ must have proof of what He is going to do for them before they will give Him wholehearted service. We have built a society on "What's in it for me," and sadly, we reap that attitude in the church. When we come to the Lord He doesn't promise that life will be lived on Easy Street. But He does say, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

That is the promise His disciples received "On Happy Hill." And that is the promise we ~~xxxx~~ each have on our individual "Happy Hills." Come to that "Hill" today and meet the One who will give you life, who will empower you to live each day for Him; and who will be with you to the very end of this life itself.

"Bloom Where Planted"

Scripture: Luke 24:44-49

Someone once said that the Greeks had a word for it. To which someone else added that the Greeks not only had a word for it, they had many words for the same word. Our English language isn't too far away from that definition. For instance, if I say the word "ate," what do you think of? You may be thinking of having eaten something, or you may think of the number eight. Both sound the same, but are spelled differently with different meanings.

If I use the word "wait," many of us will immediately think of the ~~xxxxxxx~~ xavoirdupois that makes up our body. But there may be those who immediately thought of a time of pausing to await results. And that is exactly the word I wanted you to think of.

(Illustration of Dr. Phillips Brooks and his impatience).

Phillips Brooks the noted New England preacher, better known for writing the Christmas Carol, "O Little Town Of Bethlehem," was noted for his poise and imperturbability. One of his very close friends tells of a time he came upon him and he was pacing the floor of like a caged lion. He was definitely irritable and frustrated. His friend asked, "What is the trouble, Dr. Brooks?" He answered, "The trouble is that I'm in a hurry, but God isn't!"

This is what life had evolved to in the case of the disciples. They had been accustomed to being with crowds of hustling, bustling people; people who had places to go and things to do; people who had needs they sought to have met by Jesus; and people who took up time and caused time to pass quickly. Now, they were at a standstill in their lives. Oh, they had seen Jesus. They had either been involved in His eight appearances or knew those who were since He came back from the dead. They had heard how He had appeared to His half-brother James, thus convincing Him that He was the promised One of God. That had been His 9th appearance. Now they were back in Jerusalem and once again Jesus appeared to them. This was His 10th appearance and it would prove to be His last. They had grown somewhat accustomed to waiting if for no other reason than to see just what was expected of them. With this final appearance, if there were still some doubts that this was actually the same Jesus they had known and walked with, those doubts were dispelled ~~for~~ once and for all. Jesus took this opportunity to prove Himself completely to them. Luke says, "And He said unto them, 'These are the words which I spake unto you while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the Psalms, concerning Me,'" Luke 24:44.

Jesus probably quoted to them from the Old Testament book of Deuteronomy, which was a part of the law of Moses. One quotation would have been from the 18th chapter the 15th verse, and it is here that Moses recorded God's Words, "The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto Him shalt thou harken."

Jesus probably quoted to them from the 2nd Psalm verse 7, "I will declare the decree the Lord hath said unto me, 'Thou art My Son; this day have I begotten thee.'"

The 16th Psalm verse 10, "For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell: neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption."

He probably quoted from the 22nd Psalm which gives a vivid description of all that He went through on the cross. And He probably quoted all or part of the 53rd chapter of Isaiah which speaks of God's suffering servant. And He may well have quoted the 1st verse of the 61st chapter of Isaiah which He expounded in the synagogue in Nazareth at the start of His public ministry which states, "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon Me; because the Lord hath anointed Me to preach good tidings unto the meek; He hath sent Me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound."

This is just a partial list of the Scriptures Jesus may have quoted from Moses, the Psalms and the prophets which made up the Jewish Scriptures. Luke says, "Then opened He their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures," Luke 24:45. "And said unto them, 'Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day. And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem,' verses 46-47.

Where once the disciples were unable to understand these spiritual things, now Jesus opened to their eyes, their hearts, and their intellects to them. Now they could understand completely the "whys" and "wherefores" that must have bothered them as they worked and walked with Him on a daily basis. We read throughout the Gospels before the arrest, trial and crucifixion of Jesus what amounted to stupid questions they asked Jesus. At least they seemed stupid to us because we have the advantage of hindsight which they didn't. But they were like anyone else who cannot understand spiritual things until they come into that special relationship with God through Jesus Christ. Paul spoke of this when he wrote to the Christians in the Corinthian church. We find recorded there in chapter 2, verse 14, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness to him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned."

When a person is outside of the kingdom he is unable to look at God's Word and understand it completely. But when he accepts Christ and is ushered into the family of God and becomes a child of God, then it is like scales being removed from his eyes and God's Holy Spirit gives the new believer spiritual insights he never had before. You may have experienced this. I have and it is a difference of night and day in spiritual understanding.

And then Jesus added to this the words as Luke records, "And ye are witnesses of these things," verse 48.

Jesus is merely saying that the disciples had seen and heard these revelations and were now able to go forth and to share what they had seen and heard with other people.

But something dramatic is going to happen and Jesus is preparing them for it as He says, "And behold, I send the promise of My Father upon you," verse 49A.

This is something that is going to happen in the near future. But before that happens, Jesus tells them, "But tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high," verse 49B.

Before they are to make a move they are to stay put. Jesus is cautioning these disciples to get their act together before they move out into the outside world. This is the advice that every believer should heed. There are too many who seem to believe that they must get on a ship or a plane and head for some unknown quarter of the world to share their faith. The simple advice Jesus is giving is, "Bloom Where Planted." Wherever you are is the place where God wants you to work and labor until He gives you a ticket to somewhere else. We hear all the time that we are to go out in the name of Jesus Christ and minister in His name and this is true. But our world is right under our noses until God demands we go elsewhere.

(Illustration of A. W. Tozer and description of a "Real Christian")

A. W. Tozer describes a "real Christian" in this manner: A real Christian is an odd number, anyway. He feels supreme love for One whom he has never seen; talks familiarly every day to Someone he cannot see; expects to go to heaven on the virtue of Another; empties himself in order to be full; admits he is wrong ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ so he can be declared right; goes down in order to get up; is strongest when he is weakest; richest when he is poorest and happiest when he feels the worst. He dies so he can live; forsakes in order to have; gives away so he can keep; sees the invisible, hears the inaudible, and knows that which passes knowledge.

All of this seems so unwise to the unsaved world. But God says, "My ways are not your ways." But not all Christians are like this. Too many of us sit back and marvel at what we hear about other Christians and how they live and labor for the Lord. And then we shake our heads and say, "I wish I could be like that," and then go about our old routines and never seek to be obedient to what God demands of us. Most of us will never be called of God to move out to another town, or city, or state, or country. But God has called each of us to where we are right now. He has called each of us to BUNTER, and BUTLER COUNTY. This is where we are to "bloom," because this is "WHERE" we have been "PLANTED."

(Illustration of Leighton Ford's missionary friend and communist officer in Viet Nam)
Leighton Ford tells of a missionary friend of his who was in Viet Nam who was taken captive by a band of Communist guerrillas. He was held captive for several weeks. During that time he became friendly with their young officer and he taught him English by using the Bible. At the end of this time the officer told him of an operation they had planned which would be against tremendous odds. The missionary pointed out that the officer may die. The young man thought about this for a moment and then he said, "I would gladly die if I could advance the cause of Communism one more mile." Then he made a telling comment, "You know, as you read to me from the Bible I have come to believe that you Christians have a greater message than that of Communism. But I believe we are going to win the world, for Christianity means something to you, but Communism means everything to us."

What does Christianity mean to you? How committed to the cause of Jesus Christ are you? Does He just mean SOMETHING to you, while the things of this world crowd that out and mean EVERYTHING to you? How much of our time are we willing to give to Him? How much time do you spend in God's Word during the week? ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ Or how much time do you spend in the newspaper, or magazines, or TV? How much do you know about speaking to others of your faith and your Savior Jesus Christ? Or how much do you know about batting averages, or golf scores, or bowling scores, or of athletes on the scene today? When we contrast what we know of this life with what we know of Jesus Christ the comparison gives us mostly a weak picture of what we are and should be. How many of us are really "Blooming Where Planted" today? Or how many of us are wrinkled and shriveled from lack of ~~nourishment~~ nourishment from the things of God?

(Illustration of boy's answer about "fertilizer for growth")

A Sunday School teacher wanted to impress her young pupils with the miracle of life in nature. She pointed to a large plant in the room and asked, "Who made those beautiful flowers grow?" One of the boys answered, "God did." The teacher was pleased with the answer, but before she could comment another little boy spoke up and said, "But fertilizer sure helps!"

We must take these lives we live and add the enriching nutrients we need to make us "Bloom Where Planted." God extends the call to do that and we turn our backs on Him time after time. Why not accept that call today and promise Him that you will begin to blossom forth and bloom right where you are?

"Lift Off"

Scripture: Acts 1:9-12

The Florida morning dawned bright and clear on January 28, 1986. The spacecraft Challenger sat on its launchpad gleaming and glistening in the morning sun. Everything proceeded as planned and the countdown continued with clockwork precision. As the countdown reached zero, fire burst from the bottom of the rocket and the announcer repeated, "We have ~~gim~~ ignition, we have ignition." Slowly the rocket began to lift into the air and the announcer informed viewers and listeners alike, "We have lift off, we have lift off." The sleek, beautiful rocket began to rise into the clear Florida sky amid the cheers in the background coming from NASA control. The lift off had been carefully planned so schoolchildren across the nation could view this special mission carrying a selected teacher into orbit. All eyes in the millions of homes and in the classrooms across the nation ~~xxxxxx~~ were fixed on ~~xxxx~~ their television sets. People were spellbound by this flawless performance. But then, just as suddenly as it had begun, an explosion erupted aboard the spacecraft and debris trailing smoke fell into the sea.

It was exactly two years, eight months, and one day later that a similar spacecraft named Discovery sat on the launch pad at Cape Kennedy Spacecenter in Florida. Once again the countdown proceeded with precision and once again the cry of "We have lift off, we have lift off" ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ echoed around the world. But this time it was a flawless and successful mission.

It was a bright Friday morning in May over 1900 years ago that Jesus and His disciples had walked from Jerusalem to the Mount of Olives a distance of about a half mile. After a brief conversation with them we are told, "And when He had spoken these things, while they beheld, He was taken up; and a cloud received Him out of their sight," Acts 1:9.

Without the aid of engines, motors, pumps, ~~or~~ any mechanical means, God provided, "Lift Off." This event took place exactly 40 days after Jesus had been resurrected from the Garden tomb. This event we celebrate in the Christian Church as Ascension. It is an event which is overshadowed by another event considered of more importance and that is Pentecost, which is what is to be observed this day, today. But were it not for "Lift Off" on that day in Jerusalem, there would have been no Pentecost following it ten days later. There had to be an Ascension in order to have Pentecost.

It is the Apostle Luke who records this event twice, but he is the only writer to record it. He records it first in his Gospel in the 24th chapter. Although there is a difference in the reporting of this event in Luke and Luke's book of Acts, the events and circumstances are exactly the same. In the Gospel of Luke we read, (Read verses 50 through 53, chapter 24). The ~~discrepancy~~ discrepancy that is often pointed out in this Scripture is that Luke says that Jesus, "Led them out as far as Bethany," while in Acts he records, "Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount ~~xxx~~ called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey."

Bethany was about two miles from Jerusalem on the east slope of the Mount of Olives. It is believed that Luke is stating in his Gospel that Jesus led the disciples toward Bethany and did not actually lead them as far as Bethany. In any event, "Lift Off" took place on a part of the Mount of Olives and Jesus was taken from their sight. Two angels appeared to them and said to them, "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into heaven," Acts 1:11.

This is a prophecy of the 2nd Coming of Jesus in the future. The prophecy is that He will appear at the same place and it will be the reverse of How He left the earth. He will come back. The disciples understood that this was the final special meeting they would have with Jesus. But they knew that although He was not with them physically, and would not be so in the remainder of their lives, He would be with them spiritually. Now, they understood some of the things He had said to them before His death. At the last Supper He had spoken words as recorded by John and one of those sayings was, "Lo, I am with you even unto the end of the world."

He had said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you. I will not leave you comfortless."

All of these things must have been ringing in their minds as they traveled back to Jerusalem.

Luke tells us in his Gospel, "And they worshipped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy: and were continually in the temple praising and blessing God," Luke 24:52-53.

You do not have great joy when a very dear friend takes his leave of you and you know you will never see Him again. That isn't normal. It is usually a time of great sadness. But the disciples were assured that they had His presence with them wherever they went, and whatever they did. They knew this because they were going to go out and minister in His name. They were His followers and would have that special communion with Him that is only possible through a life of commitment.

(Illustration of Lloyd Ogilvie & woman who wanted the "simple Gospel")

Dr. Lloyd Ogilvie the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Hollywood, California, tells of one of his member who came to him and said, "I really wish we'd stick to the simple Gospel rather than all of this talk about commitment and our ministry as members!" At first he was taken aback at what she had said and couldn't believe what he had heard and then humorously he asked her, "Which pages of the Bible do you want to tear out?" But his humor was lost on her because she didn't see the church as a place for personal commitment or involvement, or consecration. To her the church was a place of cultural Christianity which didn't call for these things. He said she believed that she had won him over to her side and that now she heard little more of being an obedient disciple. She had become part of the cheering section and was stuck on dead-center spiritually. But Dr. Ogilvie said that it took a personal crisis in her life to get her off dead-center. That crisis brought her to an awareness of what her life should be for the Lord. It was then that she saw the simple Gospel is to live for the Lord in commitment and consecration and God never intended for us to have a cultural Christianity.

As a part of the Church of Jesus Christ, each of us is called to live for Him whenever, and wherever we are. Once again Jesus gave the command to His disciples to go back to Jerusalem and to wait for the Spirit from on High. That is our task as well. We need to pray that God's Holy Spirit will make an entrance into our hearts and lives and motivate us off dead-center to come alive for Him. And then we can move out in our Jerusalem, or Judea, or Samaria, or the uttermost part of the earth.

(Illustration of Commitment - how to eat an egg without cracking it)

A man told how his eight-year-old son told him a joke one morning while he was frying eggs for the family breakfast. He asked, "Dad, how can you eat an egg without cracking the shell?"

The man thought about it a moment and then conceded that he didn't know.

The boy replied, "Have someone else crack it for you."

He said this reminded him of some church people. They want the benefits the church has to offer without sharing the responsibilities. They want revival as long as someone else does the praying. They want good programs as long as someone else does the work.

If you want to eat eggs, you're going to have to break some shells.

How do you want your eggs in the church? Are you willing to concede that you have a definite place in your Jerusalem, or Judea, or Samaria, or the uttermost parts of the world? Or is your desire to have the "simple Gospel," and tear out the pages that you think shouldn't apply to you?

To be about the work which Jesus had now given to them, it was necessary for the disciples to come down from the mountain. They had to begin the work they had been trained to do. Theirs had been a true mountaintop experience because they had lived and labored with the Messiah. They knew this now for a certainty. But their labor now began to take on an altogether different aspect.

(Illustration of William Gibson desiring to have his mother's faith)

William Gibson wrote an autobiography entitled "Mass For The Dead," and in it he relates how after his mother's death, he yearned for the faith that had strengthened her during her life and upheld her during her courageous dying. So he took his mother's gold-rimmed glasses, her faded and well-worn prayer book and sat in her favorite chair. He opened the prayer book because he wanted to hear what she had read. He put on her glasses because he wanted to see what she had seen. He sat in her place of prayer and devotion because he wanted to feel what she had felt, to experience what had so deeply empowered her. But nothing happened. It didn't work.

And it never does. We cannot claim another person's faith for our own. The example and commitment of another person may inspire us and help us in our spiritual growth, but we cannot substitute their commitment for our own.

The disciples could not take what belonged to Jesus and claim it for themselves. They had to come down to the valley and begin their own work.

We can watch the spacecraft "Lift Off" and be enthralled by all of the scientific data which surrounds them, but that is not the life we have been given to live. Our feet are planted here on the ground and like the disciples our mission is to spread the message of Jesus Christ to our fellow-earthbound ~~people~~ travelers on the road of life. And may we like the disciples depart from the House of the Lord to our individual Jerusalem's with great joy to serve Him. And may we also be continually in His House, praising and blessing God. Let us "Lift Off" from our routines of life to seek and serve as He issues that call to each of us.

"Lifting The Load"

Scripture: Acts 20:25-35

(Illustration of Apathy)

In New York City a mailman shot by a sniper, is ordered from a building lobby because he is dripping blood.

In Oklahoma City a woman gives birth unexpectedly - on a city sidewalk. Bystanders turn their faces. A taxi driver looks, then speeds away. A nearby hotel ~~fr~~ refuses a blanket.

In Dayton, Ohio, a dozen people see a woman drive her car into the Miami River. They watch indifferently as the woman climbs on the car's roof and screams that she can't swim. The woman drowns.

William Schlamm made the statement: "The epitaph of our society should be: This civilization died because it didn't want to be bothered."

These may all be signs of our present times, but do they really tell the whole truth? We have all heard and read such stories, but most people want to be of service and help others. But the message of accomplishing this must come from those who know about it and seek to live it.

The Apostle Paul was a man who had started his life going in one direction and had been dramatically turned around to go in the opposite direction. He hated Christians because he was a devout Jew. But God brought him to his knees and there he met Jesus Christ face to face. This changed him for all time and eternity. He became a champion for Christ and set the example of what a person's life should be.

Paul was going back to Jerusalem and he wasn't too sure that he would ever see these people again. So Luke records in this 20th chapter of Acts, beginning at the 17th verse, (read verses 17 through 24).

a labor

He has recounted how he had labored among them and how that labor had been ~~xxx~~ of ~~love~~ for the Lord. Now he recounts to them the sadness of this his leave-taking, (read verse 25). His farewell speech then recounts how he has nothing on his conscience concerning anything that he has done, verses 26-27, (read these). Here we have the pattern for service. What was Paul showing forth? It was the whole, "Counsel of God". That was the life of Jesus. His was a life of obedience to God's plan, or pattern. Jesus was obedient to serve others; to give of Himself, and this is what Paul was using as a pattern. This is what we must use. But how can we do this?

A family was planning to give mother a full day of rest and relaxation on her birthday. She was to have the entire day to do what she wanted. The father and children would cook the meals and clean the house while she relaxed. They had planned a special picnic. Nearby was a lake where they would spend the day. The son could join some friends in water skiing, and the daughter would play tennis at the nearby court. Mother could rest and read while Dad tried out his fishing rod he had received for Christmas. When the day arrived the family was getting ready for the day. So mother got breakfast ready for everyone. Then after she had helped them to find their things and load them into the car, there was only room enough in the car for three. Mother said she didn't mind spending the day at home alone. At least she would have peace and quiet. So she sent them on their way to the lake without her. After all, she said she was only going to read and she could do that at home. So while the family was gone she tidied up the house; ironed the daughter's dress for that evening; picked up the father's suit at the cleaners; did a few odds and ends; fixed supper for the family and even baked herself a birthday cake. At the supper table they all agreed it had been a special birthday for Mom. Even she said that it was the most meaningful birthday she had ever had.

But what had made it so special? Even though she was doing many of the things she always did, she did ~~in~~ them in service to others who wanted to serve her. We must be obedient to God's will for us and that will is to be servants as Jesus was our servant.

Paul then admonishes the believers to beware of those who would come in after him and tear down the ~~mx~~ foundation that he has laid with false-doctrine and false-teaching. He says,

"And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the Word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them that are sanctified," vs 32.

So long as the believers are willing to listen to God and to continue following God's leading so long will they remain as a part of God's kingdom. They had to continue to be obedient.

It is then that Paul speaks to them of his example for them. First he says, "I have coveted no man's silver or gold, or apparel. Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me," verses 33-34.

Paul is saying that he worked to support himself and didn't expect anyone to give him something for nothing. But along with this is the example that he set for them so they in turn could imitate him in their lives.

He said, "I have shewed you all things, how that so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of Jesus, how He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive,'" Verse 35.

Nowhere in any of the Gospels do we find those words recorded by Jesus. That doesn't mean He didn't say them, but they are just not recorded. But Jesus implied servanthood in many different ways, and in many different sayings. Paul is giving his admonishment that believers are expected to be "Lifting The Load." We share in the lives of many different people outside of the church. As we know of needs and hear of others, those within the church need to be helping to ease the burden and struggles of these people.

(Illustration of Howard Kelly, a girl who gave him a glass of milk)

During one summer when school was out a young man named Howard A. Kelly was selling books door to door to put himself through school. One particularly hot day he became thirsty and stopped at a farmhouse for a drink of water. A girl came to the door and when he asked for a drink of water, she sweetly said, "I will give you a glass of milk if you wish." Years passed and that girl, now a woman was taken to Johns Hopkins Hospital where she underwent major surgery. One day, she was told by the head nurse, "Tomorrow you can go home." She was overjoyed, but she knew that she had a very large bill to pay and didn't have the money, nor any idea where to get it. When she was discharged the next day she was given the bill. As she sat in the wheelchair in the lobby waiting for a member of her family to pick her up, she glanced over that rather large bill. Item by item each procedure and medication was listed. She sighed, wondering how she could ever manage to pay off this huge debt. On the very bottom of the bill was handwritten, "Paid in full with one glass of milk!" And it was signed; "Howard A. Kelly, M.D. The young man who had asked for a drink of water and received a glass of cold milk many years before had risen to be the noted chief surgeon of Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. He was also a believing and practicing Christian.

As we live our lives we have many opportunities along life's road to "Lift The Load" of others. Most of the time those opportunities only come once and we either help or that chance is lost forever. But whether we respond to help or not is really pre-determined by our attitude toward life. If we look at life from the standpoint that we all have to hoe our own row, then we aren't much concerned with others because we are all wrapped up in ourselves. If we are always looking to be paid or rewarded for what we do, our helping of others will not be done too often. But if we see each day as an opportunity to serve the Lord and our fellowman, we will take the chances that arise to be "Lifting The Load" of others. It is all a matter of perspective. Someone wrote:

I stood on the streets of a busy town,
Watching men tearing a building down:
With a "Ho, heave, ho," and a lusty yell,
They swung a beam and a sidewall fell.

I asked the foreman of the crew,
"Are those men as skilled as those you'd hire if you wanted to build?"
"Ah no," he said, "no indeed.
"Just common labor is all I need.

I can tear down as much in a day or two
As would take skilled men a year to do."
"And then I thought as I went on my way,
Just which of these two roles am I trying to play?

Have I walked life's road with care,
Measuring each deed with rule and square?
Or am I one of those who roam the town,
Content with the labor of tearing down?

Ours is the choice to be a part of the building, or the wrecking crew. God gives us many opportunities to be "Lifting The Load." How will we respond to His call?

Scripture: 1 Chronicles 11:15-18

(Illustration of mother telling son about her childhood)

A mother was telling her small son about the good times she had when she was little girl. She told him about riding a pony, sliding down a haystack, and wading in the brook at the farm; of the animals and all of the other things that he knew nothing about.

"Mother," he said at last with a sigh, "I wish I'd met you earlier."

To look back and recall things of the past is very easy to do. It's easier to remember the good times and forget the bad ones. How often have you perhaps found yourself saying, "I wish," and then you express a wish to be able to do something that you had formerly done which was done in happier times? This is exactly the position King David finds himself in as he is with his men at the stronghold at Adullam. They are poised to attack the Philistines and capture Jerusalem. While they are waiting ~~for the attack~~ and making the necessary plans and strategy for this battle, David is reflecting upon times past. Here, in this cave, they are forced to drink water which is stored in containers of some sort and although it eases their thirst, it is warm and tasteless. David, as well as his men may have commented on this fact and this reminds David of the nice cold, clear, water that is available at the well in Jerusalem. But to get some of that water is impossible because that well is now in the control of the Philistines. So it is merely wishful thinking on David's part when he said, "Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, that is at the gate," verse 17.

David didn't actually mean that he wanted someone to risk life and limb to bring back a bucket of that water. It was merely what all of us do when we harken back to something that we knew of days gone by and ~~express~~ express the desire to have things ~~as~~ as they once were. But when David made this wish aloud, he was unaware that three of his trusted and courageous leaders would risk everything for their king. So they infiltrated the Philistines lines and brought a container full of it to their king.

And what was his reaction? The end of verse 18 tells us, "But David would not drink it, but poured it out to the Lord."

Perhaps the first time you read that, without going on to the explanation you said, "What an ingrate!" "What an insult to those three valiant men who risked their very lives to bring that clear, cold, fresh water to King David. They loved him so totally, and were so completely willing to serve him that his very wish was their command. But although this may seem to be an insult or a slap at what had been done for him, David had some very valid reasons for what he did. First we read, "He poured it out to the Lord," verse 18. It was like an act of worship for what had been done for him. He was thanking God for water such as this, and thanking God for men such as his three leaders who brought the water. But he was also showing all of his men that he would not indulge in something that they didn't have. He was not sleeping in a warm comfortable bed in some luxury hotel while his men slept on the ground wrapped in a blanket. He was not eating banquet food while his men subsisted on cold beans and bread. He was with them and he shared what they shared. Therefore, David said, "My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing," verse 19. God forbid, he ~~is~~ is saying, that I should drink this cold, clear, water, while my men watch and know that their drinking water is not the same as mine.

He then asks the question, "Shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? For with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it." verse 19B.

David is reflecting on the fact that these three men could have all been killed and it would have meant that they risked their very life's blood to get him a drink of cold water. And the author of this book of Chronicles writes, "Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest." verse 19C.

David "Remembered!" He Remembered that this water was taken and brought to him with a price. The price was the risk of the loss of their lives. Everything we have and enjoy in this great land of ours has been bought with a price. That includes the land, the water, the food, the natural resources, our government, and the right to worship as we please. David was sharing a thought that all of us should possess. That thought is to ask the question, "Shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy?" We share in that sacrifice when we enjoy all of the freedoms which are ours as Americans. ~~Remember that~~
~~these freedoms which we have bought with their blood~~

(Illustration of Howard Vincent O'Brien writing about son going off to war)

There was no band, no flags, no ceremonial. It wasn't even dramatic. A car honked outside and he said, "Well, I guess that's for me." He picked up his little bag and his mother said, "You haven't forgotten your gloves?" He kissed his mother and held out his hand to me. "Well, so long," he said. I took his hand but all I could say was "Good luck." The door slammed and that was that-another boy gone off to war. After the door closed behind him I went upstairs. I went to what had been his room. It was in worse chaos than usual. His bureau was littered-an incredible collection of things, letters, keys, invitations to parties he would not attend. Clothing was scattered about. I went then to my room. On the wall was a picture of a little boy, his toothless grin framed in tawny curls-the same boy who had just taken my hand and said: "Well, so long." Suddenly a queer thing happened. Objects came alive and whispered to me. The house was full of soft voices. They led me to the attic-to a box of toy soldiers, a broken music rack, a football helmet, a home made guitar, school books, class pictures, a stamp album, a penny bank with the lid pried off...telegrams, passports, a baptismal certificate, a ribbon won in a track meet, faded photographs-one taken on the memorable ~~day~~ first day of long pants-a bit of golden hair. Well, curly head-you're a man now, bearing your bright new shield and spear. I hated to see you go out of my house and close the door behind you; but I think I would not have halted you if I could. I salute you sir. I cannot pretend that I am not sad; but I am proud too. So long."

I can picture another Father many long years ago watching His Son grow to manhood. Seeing him learn a trade and working long hard hours to be the very best; giving of Himself in each piece of material that he worked with. That Father watched as His Son began His life's work among people. His was a work of love. Wherever He went, to whomever He shared Himself and His time, it was all a labor of love. I can picture the heartache of that Father as He knew of the heartache and disappointment He experienced in trying to be of service. He may not have been involved in mortal conflict armed with sword and shield, but it was a conflict of seeking to bring love to those who weren't accustomed to receiving love. That conflict eventually cost Him His life. I can picture that Father as He had to stand by and see all these events fall into place which led His Son to the place of execution, for crimes He did not commit. It was at the place of execution, as He hung beside two others being executed, that one of them said to Him, "Remember me." In other words, "Do not pass me by, don't forget me!" And His response was that He would Remember that very day.

Can we honestly stand by and "Drink the lifeblood" of the One who suffered and died for us? Can we be so ungrateful that we refuse to accept Him as our Lord and Savior? If we can answer in our hearts today that we have refused to accept Him for whatever our reason or excuse, then we are ungrateful indeed.

We are called to "Remember" what others have done for us to purchase the precious freedoms that we enjoy. But it is more important that we "Remember" that our salvation ~~expiation~~ has been bought and paid for with the precious blood of Jesus Christ. It is either through our acceptance or rejection of Him that determines our eternal destiny. We will not spend eternity here on earth in our beloved United States of America. But we will spend eternally either with God, or separated from Him. Let us "Remember!" and make our decision.

"Keyed To The Past: Escape"

Scripture: Psalm 3

The morning had dawned on the second day and it ~~was~~ must have been one of those mornings like the songwriter wrote about in the song, "On The Road To Mandalay." He described the dawning of a day ~~xxxxxxx~~ on that road by writing, "Where the sun comes up like thunder." It was such a brilliant morning and the handsome man approaching middle-age appears just as buoyed up with life as the beauty of the morning unfolds. But his men who watch him are not expressing any of his joy and apparent happiness. They had fled suddenly and rapidly from their beloved Jerusalem with only the bare essentials. They had in fact, fled for their very lives. They had arrived here the night before last filled with worry, fear, and anxiety. Their well beloved leader had been just as anxious as they. Just yesterday morning he had been uptight and worried over their safety. His every action gave forth a display of his concern and care. He knew as well as they that they were in for some very bad times. As each day dawned it could very well be the last for all of them. The men knew that they were in for a bad day.

Someone has defined this by saying:

You know you are going to have a bad day when you have been away for a short period of time and when you go to your office the key doesn't fit, because the locks has been changed.
You know you are going to have a bad day when you are following down the highway behind a string of Hell's Angel's on motorcycles, and your horn suddenly is stuck.
You know you are going to have a bad day when you appear at the board meeting to have your salary reviewed and the board chairman can't remember your name.
A preacher knows he is going to have a bad day when he goes to his office on Monday morning and the phone rings. He answers it and the woman on the other end of the line says, "I've had it with your church, I'm going to leave it because I'm not getting anything out of it; it's boring and I'm not getting fed," and it's his wife.

These men and their leader knew they were going to have a bad day. Yet, here sits this red-haired man, ~~xxxxxxx~~ resting on his bedroll outside of his tent, furiously writing away with a semi-smile on his face. He had slept well, despite his troubles. A night under the stars, after a horrible first day away from Jerusalem had brought back memories of his shepherd days when the man who was then king hunted him like a rabbit from hill to hill, and cave to cave. But now he is back in control.

He looks to the ridge and sees one of the sentries posted around him looking towards Gilead where the attack would come from. He eyes his trusted valiant men near and around him as they check and double check their weapons and equipment to assure themselves that they are prepared to defend themselves and protect him.

There's Joab, his commander-in-chief. If there is to be a fight, then thank God for men like him.

There's Benaiah. He felt a special kinship to him for both he and Benaiah had killed a lion in their youth.

And there is Abishai who had once killed three-hundred men with a spear in hand to hand combat.

Joab and Abishai were his cousins, but no matter, they were valiant men loyal to him.

Only one man is missing from his mighty men and that is Uriah the Hittite. With a twinge of pain remembering the circumstances of his absence, David is thankful he is being protected by these mighty men.

After writing rapidly for a short period of time, with a flourish David stops writing and throws down his pen. "Listen to this Joab," and he reads, "Lord, how are they increased that trouble me! Many are they that rise up against me, 2" verse 1. Joab can't believe his ears. Here is his King writing a hymn while his ~~xxxxx~~ son Absalom is only a hill or two away and at the opportune time he intends to swoop down, destroy David's men and David himself and set himself up as King of Israel. And the king is writing a hymn.

The hymn speaks of the troubled days they had been going through. David had won the hearts and loyalties of the older folk, but the youth had risen up and sided with Absalom. So he could easily write, "Many are they that rise up against me," for it was the truth. But he had had a good night's sleep and yesterday was past and he knew that God was with him. All of these enemies both known and unknown would certainly say what he next wrote, "Many there be which say of my soul, 'There is no help for him in God.'" verse 2.

The Hebrew word help, can be interpreted as "salvation." "There is no salvation for him in God," is what his enemies are saying. But in the hymn David writes a word that is not only a special instruction, but which emphasizes what he is saying. He writes, "Selah." This word is a direction to the chief musician, or musicians who would play the music for this hymn. It is telling them at this point to "lift up" the music here. To give a crescendo to pull out all the stops at this point. Up to this point a soft accompaniment was taking place. Now it is to be emphasized; it is a musical punctuation point. It is actually saying in our language, "What do you think of that!"

"Many there be which say of my soul, 'There is no salvation for him in God,'" WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THAT !

This is followed by the affirmation, "But thou, O Lord art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of my head," verse 3. No salvation? No one to cleanse me? How ridiculous.

Wasn't it God who had pardoned the grievous sin David had committed ~~against~~ with Bathsheba? And didn't he compound that sin by having her husband murdered? And through it all, God had cleansed and forgiven him. God didn't condone that sin, nor does He ever condone it. But David did indeed have salvation. He had the cleansing from God.

He wrote in confidence, "I cried unto the Lord with my voice, and He heard me out of His holy hill," verse 4. And there it is again, "Selah! What do you think of that!"

He had been through the dark night before last, and the dark day of yesterday; but this was a new day and God had delivered him, "What do you think of that!"

"I laid down and slept; I awaked; for the Lord sustained me," verse 5. Everything looks better after we have had a chance to share it with God. When we talk it over with Him, no matter what the circumstances, God will reveal the need for trust and faith.

That faith is evident as David confidently writes: "I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about." There is a declaration of faith! Absalom had gathered most of the young men of the kingdom to his side. They were lured by the expectation of sharing the glory that was promised by Absalom when he overthrew his father and became king. But even though there were thousands of the followers of Absalom after him, David knew who he must place his trust in. Absalom had the numbers, but David had God.

David declares: "Arise, O Lord; save me, O my God: for Thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly," verse 7.

The battle with Absalom and his forces was yet to come. David was aware that it was not going to be easy. But David knew that the teeth of the lion were what ~~xxxxxx~~ inflicted damage. But David knew that God could and would pull their teeth and take the bite out of his enemies. In the background was the knowledge that in some way God had a plan which was being worked out. Paul tells us in Romans 8:28, "All things work together for good, to them that love God, to them that are called according to His purpose." David wasn't aware of it, but in the palace of the pretender to the throne was one of David's friends, Hushai the Archite, working like a secret agent and giving advice to Absalom which was contrary to the advice of Absalom's trusted advisor Ahithophel. But Absalom listened to Hushai because he had been an advisor to David. So God was working behind the scenes to bring about His plan, His will. But even before David knew these events were taking place behind the scenes, he could say with confident faith and assurance, "Thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly."

He closes his song with the words, "Salvation belongeth unto the Lord: Thy blessing is upon Thy people. Selah." "There, what do you think of that?"

"Salvation belongeth unto the Lord!" Salvation is not the property of the church, a preacher, a priest, or a pope. Salvation is only of the Lord.

(Illustration of Henry II of England, Thomas a Becket, and the pope)

A good example of this is the story of Henry II, King of England. He was the father of King Richard the Lionhearted. He appointed his friend, Thomas a Becket to be the archbishop of Canterbury, hoping that he had found an ally against Rome. But such was not the case and Becket was quick to point out the faults and mistakes of the king. The king was angered and sorry that he had elevated Becket to this position. It was then that a group of men took it upon themselves to murder Thomas a Becket and the king now had to face the wrath of the pope. The king was not responsible directly for Becket's death, but indirectly it came about because of him.

It was then that the pope placed England under what was called "interdict" and this meant the services of the church were to be withheld from the parishioners. There could be no marrying, no burying, no masses and candles and torches were extinguished. England plunged into darkness. This created panic because people saw salvation as coming from the pope.

At first Henry was able to hold out against this interdict from the pope. But before too long Henry had to give in. He went to Becket's crypt and lay there all night in front of the tomb. He kissed the very stones on which Becket had fallen dead, and he permitted the monks and priests at Canterbury to use the lash on his back. The priests could smite him five times while the monks could only smite him three times each. But his back was beaten with hundreds of stripes. He lay broken, bruised and bleeding before the martyr's tomb. He walked across Canterbury in his bare feet. And all of this was done to persuade the pope to relent.

But it was all for nought. If Henry II had read his Bible and known the true source of salvation he would not have worried what an earthly man was saying and doing. Salvation is from the Lord. He could have read this in Psalm 3, with the word Selah following that statement, which asked the question, "There, what do you think of that?"

Salvation is not in tears, or promises, or good works; it is not in the church, it is not in charities, or creeds, or baptisms, or communions, or rituals, or ceremonies, and it is not in denominations and belonging to a certain group.

David had written this hymn, and it was "Keyed To The Past," and it was keyed to the present and the future as well. He knew how God had provided Salvation in past times; he knew that God would provide salvation in the present; and he knew that God would supply salvation in the future as well.

We need to remember that friends, or relatives, or many others may ridicule, or scoff, or sneer at what we believe concerning salvation. Like David, we may experience what some may say that, "Of my soul, there is no help, (or deliverance) for him in God."

But we know that "Salvation belongeth to the Lord, and His blessing is upon His people." And all of this ~~was~~ took place on a hill far away, on an old rugged cross. We can declare today, "Salvation ~~is~~ belongeth unto ~~God~~ the Lord!" There, what do you think of that?"

"Keyed To The Past: Pleasant Dreams"

Scripture: Psalm 4

David had left Jerusalem on the advice of his military men. They had told him that it would be easier for him to identify his enemies in the wilderness than at the palace.

To under cover of darkness, King David and his men had gone from Jerusalem northward.

They crossed the Jordan and set up camp for a day. Things had been hectic for all of them with many loose ends needing to be tied. But after a refreshing night's sleep, David had the inspiration to compose the 3rd Psalm. He had then marched his men northward again, crossing the River Jabbok and stopping at Mahanaim. He had come northward to enlist the aid of the mountain clansmen. David was aware that a desperate battle probably lay ahead of them and he needed all of the help he could get. So they stopped at this point for the night and David sat down to compose this Psalm.

David begins this song with a plea to God. He asks, "Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: Thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer," verse 1.

David knew that he had a need. He knew that in his own strength he couldn't make it.

(Illustration of two men at beach, one in water in trouble, other on the beach)

There is a story that is told of two men at the beach. One is sitting on the sand working up the sunbline. The other is wading in the water. Suddenly, the man in the water wading where he thought it was shallow, steps into a hole and goes under. He comes up sputtering, and calls, "Help, help, I can't swim." The other fellow shouts back, "Neither can I, but you don't hear me taking a fuss about it."

The man in the water knew he needed help and so he called out. The other man had no sense of need. And it is like this in our relationship with God. When everything is going well, we don't realize that we need God to guide and direct us. But when we are in dire straits, we know of that need and we cry out to Him. David had relied upon God, but now he knew his situation was serious. So he pleads with God, "Hear me; have mercy upon me; hear my prayer. His request is threefold. But in between he remembers that God had been with him in the past and he reminds God that he does remember those times. Actually what David is calling for, is salvation and he wants others to have this as well, as he speaks to the others in need, (Read verse 2).

In verses 3 and 4, (read these), David speaks of that which should automatically follow salvation and that is sanctification. The secret is to "stand in awe, and sin not," vs 4. This is the quality which has been mostly lost in the world today. And that is to stand in awe of God and the things of God.

(Illustration of Mr. Brisley telling of ushers stealing church offering)

Just last night I was talking to a man who was telling me that in a Catholic Church in New Jersey, the priest has the ushers start taking the offering from the back of the church because when they did it the other way, money disappeared into the Usher's pockets. How can anyone steal from God like that? How can anyone enter a church and steal equipment such as is being done?

The answer of course is that God doesn't mean anything to them. There is no awe. There is ~~not~~ no reverence for the Almighty.

In order to bring this reverence for the Lord about, David instructs, "Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the Lord," verse 5.

There were three offerings which were given as sacrifices.

First, there was the burnt offering. The smoke of the sacrifice ascended to God and was ^{accepted} ~~accepted~~ as an act of worship.

Then there was the meal offering. This consisted of flour which was even and smooth. It was flawless in texture and depicted God's perfection. Which at a later time was Jesus Christ, and His sacrifice of His perfection.

Then there was the peace offering. It was this offering which brought God and the worshiper together in communion.

So David was saying that man should offer these sacrifices of righteousness which brought man and God together. And man could stand in awe of his creator.

Then David points out that there were some in his midst who believed that Absalom was stronger than David and his men. To be assured that David would prevail, they wanted visible proof. But David looked back and could picture what God had done in the past. He could rejoice that no matter what, God would take care of him.

And although Absalom was nearby, and the threat of an attack was imminent, David could say, "I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for Thou, Lord, only makest me to dwell in safety," verse 9.

What did David do? Why he lay down and went to sleep. He had trust that God would take care of everything, because everything was in God's control.

(Illustration of missionary going to Japan on Danish freighter and captain's story about his daughter not abandoning ship in a storm)

What are the problems surrounding you? Do you have an enemy waiting to attack which is striking fear into your heart. The answer is to be found in these closing words of this 4th Psalm, "I will both lay me down in peace and sleep." We can have "Pleasant Dreams," only in and through the Lord. This is possible only because, "Thou Lord, makest me dwell in safety." Trust in the Lord! lay your burdens and cares upon Him, and let Him give you what He wants for you, and that is, "Pleasant Dreams."

circumstance: Psalm 3

It was the late Jimmy Durante who used to sing, "You've got to start each day with a song." People who know about good health and nutrition tell us we need to start each day with a good breakfast. Some years ago to induce young people to eat cereal the slogan of one of them was, "The breakfast of champions." But it was King David of Israel who gives us the proper way to start the day. Up to this point in his life he had had a bad day, followed by a good day. And when he awoke that next morning he wrote of his trust in God and he wrote Psalm 3. After living through that day, before he went to sleep that night he wrote Psalm 4. On awakening the next morning he wrote Psalm 5. It was almost like he said the morning of the day before upon arising, "Good morning, Lord," and before going to bed he said, "Good night, Lord, and then on this next morning it was "Good morning, Lord," again.

But on this morning he arises with prayer on his lips. The imminent attack by Absalom and his forces has not materialized. Absalom didn't take advantage of his opportunity to attack while his father's forces were in a state of disarray. Now David had had time to get his forces in order and he was in control once again. But David knew that he couldn't survive without the help of Almighty God and so his early morning thoughts turn to Him.

David begins writing this hymn with the words, "Give ear to my words, O Lord, consider my meditation. Harken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto Thee will I pray," verses 1 & 2.

That's a strange way to begin praying to God, by asking Him to hear and to pay attention.

As though God ~~xxxx~~ wasn't aware that David needed help. David is speaking boldly to God. In Hebrew the term, "Give ear," literally means to "broaden the ear." It is like a deaf man putting his hand behind his ear to hear better. David is saying, "Lord, put your hand behind your ear so You can better hear what I have to say." The word "harken" in Hebrew means to "prick up the ear," as a dog does when he hears a sound that humans cannot hear. This is what David is demanding of God, but he is not using it flippantly or irreverently. David is using a holy boldness to approach God and he acknowledged Him as, "My King, and my God."

David speaks to God about the situation he now finds himself in. He begins by stating his faith that God will hear him and so he prays, (read verse 3).

He points out what he knows about God and His attitude toward sin in verses 4 through 6, (read these verses). David's own son Absalom had driven David from the throne that God had given to him. He knew that God would not condone this action. Absalom had stolen the hearts of many of the people through deceit and lies. He was handsome ~~xxxxxx~~ and personable young man. People were attracted to him because along with this he had become a good politician. But David knew that God would deal with this circumstance and His will would prevail. That is what David could say, "But as for me, I will come into Thy house in the multitude of Thy mercy: and in Thy fear will I worship toward Thy holy temple," verses 7.

David missed the familiar temple and its worship services. He was cut off from the sanctuary and he longed for the day when he could once more worship God as he formerly did. This is what he is telling God in prayer. The thrust of his prayer is, "Lead me, O Lord, in Thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make Thy way straight before my face," verse 8.

For there is no faithfulness in their mouths; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue," verse 9.

The Lord had probably written back to David that one of Absalom's advisors, Ahithophel had given Absalom the evil advice of raping David's wives and thus making himself odious in David's sight. This is why David can call these enemies, "Open sepulchres", because what they were doing was rotten and evil.

David calls upon God to "Destroy Thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against Thee," verse 10.

David had a secret agent in their midst, a man named Hushai. Absalom was listening to Hushai because he thought Hushai knew David's plans better than his own advisor Ahithophel. This is what David is praying for. He asks God to destroy them by their own counsels, their own supposed wisdom. David points out that what they had done against him, by seizing the throne, they had actually done against God who had appointed David to the throne.

David closes his prayer on a note of triumph. He prays, "Let all those that put their trust in Thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because Thou defendest them: let them also that love Thy name be joyful in Thee. For Thou, Lord, wilt bless the righteous; with favor wilt Thou compass him as with a shield," verses 11 & 12.

The word that David uses here for "shield" is not a regular sized shield, but a large shield which was called a buckler. This was made to protect the whole body and was usually twice the size of the ordinary shield. The Lord was David's buckler; his protection against these enemies. And David knew that God would not let him down. David probably thought back to the history of the Israelites and how God delivered them each time through one of God's servants. There was Abraham and Isaac and Jacob; there was ~~Moses~~ Noah, Moses, Hideon and many others. David knew that God Himself would deliver them in this critical hour.

(Illustration of when only the Lord will do)

A hurricane had struck. People were huddled together. An old preacher was praying with great oratory in the midst of this violent storm. He cried out, "Send us the spirit of the children of Israel, the children of Moses, the children of the Promised Land." At this, an old man with less oratory and more directness prayed, "Lord, don't send nobody. Come Yourself. This ain't no time for children."

This is what David was praying for. It wasn't substitutes, it was for God Himself to intervene in their lives as He had done in the past. David had that faith; that confidence that what he was asking, God would grant. So he could say with confident assurance, "For Thou, Lord, wilt bless the righteous; with favor wilt Thou compass him as with a shield."

This Psalm, or song, is "Keyed To The Past." It holds the notes of a part of the history of God's people. But it is a song that is just as modern as the technical age in which we live. It contains the words which can lend strength and meaning to our sometimes meaningless lives.

(Illustration of woman whose daughter was killed, and how she learned to trust the Psalms)

A woman had a daughter who was eighteen and went out riding and was thrown from her horse and killed. The mother had seen her ride out with that radiant glow of youth and she now saw her brought back with her once sparkling eyes closed, and her face stilled in death. She could not accept it and could not recover from the blow. So she decided to go away by herself for a while. She went to a place way out in the country. But, the memory of it all went with her as those memories always do. One evening as she sat in her room thinking over the events of this tragedy, she reached for her Bible and she opened it. It opened at the Psalms. And she began to read. First, the first Psalm, then the second, then the third, and so on until she had read every word of every Psalm, and then she closed the book. She sat in quiet reflection; then she said to herself, with complete conviction: "The men who wrote those Psalms knew about life! They went through suffering just as I am, and they found the answer. And so have I."

At that moment her old stability returned to her; and she was able to pick up her life again. Later, her minister asked her what the reading of the Psalms had done for her, she replied, "They gave me the answer I was looking for. And I believed it. The God of the Psalms can be trusted."

God directed the truth of the Psalms to her needing and hurting heart. He found that the men who wrote them did indeed know life. They knew it with its joys and happiness. But they also knew the pain and ugliness of some of life's situations. This woman knew the loss of her young daughter through an accident. David knew the loss of his son through willful sin and disobedience. He cried out to God for help and God inspired him to write his thoughts and prayers for others to benefit from them. The woman cried out for help and God provided it through the Psalms that David and others had written under similar trying circumstances.

God is directing each of us to sing in our hearts the songs of the past and to rest in the comfort and strength which God can give us through them.

Are you going through a trying time? Are there perhaps family problems or circumstances that you are wrestling with? Join a father whose son sought the death of his father so he could inherit his throne and kingdom. Think of the heaviness of David's heart. But look at the pattern of his life and see that he entrusted all of this to God's care through prayer.

Turn your problems over to Him and accept His invitation to, ~~xxxxxxx~~ Him "Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy-laden and I will give you rest."

"Keyed To The Past: Pay Day"

Scripture: Psalm 6

There is an old saying that says, "Your chickens come home to roost." Paul stated it in another way in his letter to the Galatians. He said, "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap, for he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting." Gal. 6:7-8/

King David writing at another time in his life penned the words, Also unto Thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for Thou renderest to every man according to his work." Psalm 62:12

As I said, this was at another time in his life. At the point in his life when he wrote the 6th Psalm, David was going through a time of great anguish. This 6th Psalm is the first of seven penitential Psalms which he wrote.

In the first seven verses of this Psalm we read of his great anguish. This is not confession. It is the soul's wail coming from the tortured soul of David in the night. He is so distressed that he cries all night long.

David's sin with Bathsheba brought on this anguish. He had taken Bathsheba the wife of Uriah one of his thirty valiant men. Uriah had marched with David in the old days and had served him faithfully. To cover up his adultery with Bathsheba, David had Uriah killed in battle so he could marry Uriah's widow and make the baby she was carrying legitimate.

He had tried to bluff this whole situation through, but even if no one else knew except David and Bathsheba, God knew. This Psalm gives evidence that David was being severely punished by God. This punishment took the form of some sort of frightful illness. From what we read in the Psalms David could at first hide it from his servants and friends. Speculation is that he became a leper. But in his anguish, which caused him to wail and cry out at night, the word leaked out and that word spread from the palace to the city and even reached the ears of his enemies. The cry was, "There's something wrong with the king. He wakes up in the night sobbing and screaming."

David calls upon God for His mercy, because he says, "I am weak," verse 2A. Then he tells God, "I am weary with my groaning; all night the night I make my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears," verse 6.

He is acknowledging to God that he knew he was suffering for his sin and he desires release from his affliction. Somehow David was able to put on a good front during the day. He would get up each day, bathe, get dressed and try to hide the sleeplessness which his face must have showed. Somehow he went about the royal business. But as soon as he possibly could, he must have retired for the night dismissing his servants and flinging himself on his bed, every night to cry and weep because of his illness. He did his best to cover it up, but eventually his secret was known.

After the girls left the room, Mrs. Morrow breathed a sigh of relief and said to her guest, "And now Mr. Morgan, will you have cream or lemon in your nose."

Scripture tells us, "Your sins will find you out." David's had been discovered and the consequences that he had to bear because of them became known also. It was becoming increasingly clear to David that his enemies knew of his illness, and he was facing no one because this was showing on his face as he states in verse 7, (read this).

David had taken care of the situation with his schemes and had even married Bathsheba to set everything right, but he had forgotten that it is impossible to erase the past.

(Illustration of young boy and his temper; nails in the gatepost, removed, but scars remain)

The scars of Davids' sin still remained.

David sought release from God but as the beginning of this Psalm points out, he was unwilling to go to the root of the problem.

(Illustration of Brother Andrew and his monkey with wire around stomach, and his release)

Once the wire was removed, the monkey was released from his pain. And once David came to the place of repenting of his sin, he found release. We don't read of that in this Psalm, but we do read of a complete about face in the 8th verse, (read this). He reiterates this in the 9th verse by saying, "The Lord hath heard my supplication; the Lord will receive my prayer."

David had received his "Pay Day" for the sins he had committed. But now he was penitent and had turned to the Lord and received the help he sought. Our present age is much like this only multiplied many more times. It is fairly considered fashionable to do your own thing because we are told there are no absolutes. Robert Walsh writing in "Focus on the Family," in 1987 wrote this: (Read excerpt - The Image Idolizing 80's).

How can we overcome this type of thinking and teaching? By looking at the role model God set before us in the person of Jesus Christ. He sought the Father in everything. His life was one of complete obedience. We know that we are not perfect for He was and is. But we should know that as we live there are sins we commit and will commit. But we need to bring them to the Lord and trust Him as we are told that He will be faithful and just and will cleanse us and forgive us from all unrighteousness. He can't sweep our sin under the rug. David learned this lesson. We have the example of being able to follow in the footsteps of our Savior Jesus. Take Him at His word and we need have no fear of "Pay Day."

"Wake Up!"

Scripture: Amos 6:1-8

I must admit that I didn't see the humor in this sermon title until later this past week. It is just possible that should one of you begin to doze this morning I could shout, "Wake Up," and it would merely be a repetition of the title. So be forewarned.

In the account of creation we read that God said, "Let there be light, and there was light."

(Illustration of Robert Louis Stevenson and watching lamp lighter)

When Robert Louis Stevenson was 12 years of age, he was looking out into the dark night from his bedroom window watching a man light the street lanterns. A member of the family came into the room and asked him what he was doing. He replied, "I am watching a man cut holes in the darkness."

That is precisely what God did at creation. But when He cut holes in the darkness He provided not just light, but all sorts of enlightenment that go with it. In His earthly ministry Jesus was speaking against ~~the cities of Capernaum and Chorazin and~~ the cities of Capernaum and Chorazin and He said, ~~"If the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in~~ "If the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom it would have remained until this day" Matthew 11:23B.

Then He said, "It shall be more tolerable for Capernaum, for Chorazin, for Jerusalem, than for San Francisco, Chicago, New York, and Washington D.C.,"

No, He didn't actually say that. But I believe He would say that to us today. The point Jesus had been making in His speaking against Capernaum and Chorazin was that they had received more light than Sodom and Gomorrah. Yet, with that light, they still had not repented. This was the message that Amos was telling the people of Israel. It was a message calling the nation and people back to God. That ~~was~~ message was relevant then, and it is relevant now. The message Amos shared with his people needs to be shared with our America today. There was a sense of complacency in the land. Amos warning of what would happen if this trend continued wrote, "Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who feel secure in the mountain of Samaria;" ~~verse 1.~~ ~~verse 1.~~

Zion was the city of Jerusalem, the capitol of the Southern Kingdom, and Samaria was the capitol of the Northern Kingdom. Although Amos was a good Jew and for him Jerusalem was the place for their worship and religion, he still had strong feelings for both the South and the North. He was saying "Wake up!"

~~verse 1B.~~ ~~verse 1B.~~ The distinguished son of the foremost of nations, to whom the house of Israel said, "verse 1B."

The people of Israel were mixing with the other nations around them intermarrying and collaborating in all things. They were beginning to look up to ~~these~~ the leaders of these nations to the neglect of remembering their history and their ancestors. The far warning, "Go over to Babylon and look, and go from there to Hamath the great, then go down to Gaza of the Philistines. Are they any better than these kingdoms, or is their territory greater than yours?" verse 2.

All of these cities had been destroyed. They were once proud, prosperous, thriving cities.

Now they laid in ruin. Amos was telling his people that the very same thing could happen to them. Just because they were the people of God didn't mean that they could escape the judgement of God as many of them believed.

(Illustration of Scottish Minister visiting the United States)

A Scottish minister visited the United States and was taken on a tour by the friend he was visiting. The friend took him to New York, City and showed him the sky scrapers, the latest in modern technology which included a visit to an air-conditioned medical complex; he took him to Washington and the minister saw the buildings and monuments; and then the friend took him to Florida to visit the Kennedy Space Center. After he had seen all of this, the minister remarked, "How does a visiting preacher say to the people of the United States, 'You cannot save yourself'?"

With all of our technology, all of our latest scientific advances, America has come to the crossroads where we must make choices and we will follow. Will it be the gods of modern science or technology? Or will it be the God of our fathers? We are not self-sufficient. I wonder if anyone has thought that the weather of these past two years may well be warning lessons from God. Last year we didn't have much rain and we experienced a serious drought with little or no crops in most areas. This year we have had endless rain. God has promised that He would never destroy the world again with a flood. But He didn't say that He wouldn't give us a reminder of what He did many, many years ago in the time of Noah.

Amos cried, "Wake Up" Israel. We need to cry to our nation, "Wake Up" America.

As further proof that our nation and that of Israel were and are on parallel courses, the words of Amos stand out, "I have put off the day of calamity, and would not bring near the day of violence?" verse 1.

Israel was closing their ears and their eyes to the events taking place around them. The inevitable was going to happen soon, but they were too busy blinding themselves to that fact and Amos points this out to them by reminding them, "Those who recline on beds of ivory and spread on their couches, and eat lambs from the flock and calves from the midst of the stall, who improvise on to the sound of the harp, and like David have composed songs for themselves who drink wine from sacrificial bowls while they anoint themselves with the finest of oils, yet they have no grief over the ruin of Joseph," verses 4-7.

In their ease and their luxury, they were only interested in their own self-indulgence. They could relax and take life easy because they believed that their army and armaments were more than enough to beat off their enemies. They were giving no thought whatsoever that their nation was divided; that they had suffered defeat in the past and were going to have judgment rain upon them from God because of their turning from Him and their reliance upon themselves and their own strength and power.

(Illustration found in a book by J. A. J. is a cartoon)

A man who celebrated holidays quite frequently was celebrating the fourth of July. He staggered out of a bar after toasting the Statue of Liberty once too often and he was very visibly drunk. He wandered down the street and since he was rather disoriented, he wandered into a funeral parlor. Thinking an open casket was a bed he laid down and went to sleep. The next morning he awoke and looked carefully at his surroundings and then he asked, "If I'm alive what am I doing in this thing? But if I'm dead, why do I have to go to the bathroom?"

Israel was alive physically, but they were dead spiritually. The same can be said for America.

Amos predicted the future for Israel by stating, "Therefore, they will now go into exile at the head of the exiles, and the sprawlers haughtiness will pass away. The Lord God has sworn by Himself, the Lord God has declared: 'I loathe the arrogance of Jacob, and I detest his citadels; therefore, I will deliver up the city and all it contains,'" vs 7-8

They were prosperous and their prosperity had led them from God. Because of this, Amos points out that they will be overrun as a nation and people and they would go into exile.

All of their accomplishments would become a thing of the past. The handwriting was on the wall if anyone cared to see it. So it is also for America if we seek to depend upon our prosperity and achievements to the exclusion of God. After all, who needs any outside help when he is self-sufficient? We have gotten away from the church being the center of the community and have let the government step in and we expect the government to do everything for us. The pendulum is swinging in the other direction, but is it too late? Think of what would have happened if those who fought to give us the nation we have would have played it "cool" and acted with the complacency which is exhibited in our nation today.

(Illustration of those who might have "played it cool in 1776")

But these men didn't and we owe them a debt of gratitude. But now is the time for America to "Wake Up!"

(Illustration of little girl, statue of Liberty, and "somebody ought to help her")

A man took his granddaughter to New York, City on a visit. They rode the ferry out to see the Statue of Liberty. The little girl was overwhelmed by the sight of the great arm holding up the lamp of liberty. On the return to Manhattan she kept looking at the statue. That night when her grandfather tucked her into her bed, she said, "Grandpap, I keep thinking about the lady with the lamp." He asked her, "What are you thinking about her?" And she answered, "Don't you think somebody ought to help her hold it up?"

The answer of course, is, "Yes." All of us have that responsibility. Our freedom as a nation under God was given to us as a direct blessing from God. We sought His help and He gave it to us. We have become the most enlightened nation the world has ever seen. And since we have all of this light, God requires that as a nation, and as a people we should reflect that light. If we don't, we face God's judgement upon us. The cry of Amos to his nation and people was, "Wake Up!." Our cry to our nation and to our people is the same one. "Wake Up! America, Wake Up!"

"Keyed To The Past: Festival Song"

Scripture: Psalm 7

One of the Ten Commandments gives the order, "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor." Each year as he grew older, we can think of King David sitting in the Temple in Jerusalem in the fall of the year at the Feast of Tabernacles, or the Feast of Booths as it was also known. As he sits there the Temple Choir is singing under the direction of the Chief Musician. The songs they sang were special songs for the occasion and many of them were written by David. But one song in particular must have caused him to sit back and close his eyes and as he listened the words and the music brought a sense of satisfaction for he was reliving that time and this brought a smile to his face. It wasn't that the time remembered was a time of joy, because it wasn't. But it brought ~~xxx~~ satisfaction because God had brought him through this time of turmoil and God had vindicated him from his enemies.

As we read the Psalms we note that many of them have a superscription over them to indicate the occasion of writing or the special instructions of that Psalm. But many of them also have a subscription which is a note of closing instructions, but unfortunately, in the translating of these Psalms the subscription has been erroneously made into a superscription. This is probably the case in the 7th Psalm. If you look in your Bible, (if it has superscriptions, or introductions at the beginning of each Psalm), you will note at the beginning of the 8th Psalm that it states: "To the chief Musician upon Gittith, a Psalm of David."

This is probably the subscription, or ending instructions by David. It was addressed to the chief Musician indicating that it was to be sung at a special time. The time for it to be sung was "Gittith," which is a Hebrew word for "guitar." It was at the fall of the year that the people were moved into their booths which were made. It was also at this time that the Feast of Tabernacles, or tabernacles was held. This was a joyous celebration for the harvest. But it may also have been that David wrote this Psalm at the time of the wine pressing and it took place at an earlier part of his life. At this point in his young life he was an outlaw. He was in hiding for his life as he sought to elude King Saul.

Look at the superscription at the beginning of the Psalm. It states, "Shiggaion of David, which he sang unto the Lord, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite."

The Hebrew word "Shiggaion" means, "to wander." The implication of this is that David was at a "wandering" time of his life. But the Psalm also has a wandering from one point to another. Notice also that it states that "David sang this Psalm unto the Lord," and then the reason is given. That reason was, "Concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite." It identifies the man as Cush. We do not know who Cush was. Speculation is that it was Saul himself. Or it may have been someone who was very close to Saul as an advisor. In any event, the word means, "Black." The land of Ethiopia was called Cush. Thus, anyone from Cush, or Ethiopia was black. This person is further identified as a Benjamite meaning that he was from the tribe of Benjamin. So then the interpretation of this superscription is, "A wandering Psalm of David concerning the words of a blackhearted Benjamite."

Saul was a Benjamite and because of his blackhearted deeds concerning David, it is a very good possibility that he is the one David is naming here.

In this Psalm, David recounts that he is falsely accused by this person he calls Cush. He begins by crying out, "O Lord my God." Here, he directs two names for God. Lord, is Jehovah, which is the God of the Covenant; and God is Elohim, which is the Creator God. Jehovah the God of love, and Elohim the God of power. His cry is for God to deliver him if he is innocent, but if he is not, then let this "enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread ~~ix~~ down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honor in the dust," verse 5. But notice, David adds the word "Selah" which as we said before literally means, "There, what do you think of that." It would hardly be a statement that David would make ~~ix~~ to God if he were guilty of what this person is saying against him. So he is saying, "There God, I have told You the truth as You well know it, but take my life if it isn't so, "There, what do You think of that?"

His call to God then is, "Arise, O Lord, in Thine anger," verse 6A.

The Hebrew word for "anger" has a root meaning of "Foam at the mouth." Thus, David is calling upon God to become completely wrathful and strike down this enemy. David knew that God will ~~xxx~~ eventually punish the wicked and so his request for God's anger comes to the point of his being able to make a positive statement about this as we read in the 11th verse, (read this). He says that God is angry, (foaming at the mouth), with the wicked all day. every day. It isn't God's will that anyone should perish, but that everyone should have everlasting life, as the Apostle John writes in his Gospel. God's anger with the wicked is not anger seeking to exterminate him. It is anger that the wicked will not come to the point of knowing God's complete love and forgiveness.

But David also knew that eventually, the enemies he faced would have their day in which they would fail. He shares that conclusion by stating, "His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate," verse 16.

This is the principle of whatsoever a man shall sow, that shall he reap. Thus it is with this knowledge David could confidently say, "I will praise the Lord according to His righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the Lord most high," verse 17.

As the Temple choir came to this verse, David was inspired enough to sing along with them. While he was living through this time he trusted God to deliver him. He didn't know how it would be done, he just believed it. Now, he could look back and although he still could not understand completely how God did it, he knew for a certainty that God had. Here was a real "Festival Song." It was an example of how God watches over His own.

(Illustration of Ira Sankey, Confederate soldier & God stopping him from shooting Sankey)

We may not all be able to say so dramatically that we have been so divinely spared. But we can all point to times in our lives when we know for a certainty that God has certainly been with us. Are you trusting God to direct your life as you live each day? If you aren't, why not seek His aid today? He invites you through Christ to place your life in His care. Trust that He can and will take control of your life and let Him show you what He has for you of His riches in glory.

"Keyed To The Past: The Great Fall"

Scripture: Psalm 8

We all know the nursery rhyme, "Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall, Humpty Dumpty had a great fall, all the king's horses and all the king's men couldn't put Humpty Dumpty together again." Someone wrote a piece of graffiti about this and the writing appeared: Humpty Dumpty was pushed." But regardless of whether Humpty Dumpty fell or was pushed, the fact remained that he had a great fall.

~~This is~~ A great fall in the history of Israel was what occasioned the writing of the 8th Psalm. As we said before, the Psalms had superscriptions and subscriptions. What ~~actually~~ appears as a superscription for the 8th Psalm is actually the subscriptions of the 7th Psalm. We pointed this out last week. And what appears as the superscription for the 9th Psalm is actually the subscription of the 8th Psalm. If you will look at this in your Bibles you will note that it says, "To the chief Musician upon Muthlabben, a Psalm of David." What this means is that the chief Musician is to have this Psalm, and the occasion of the writing is identified as "Muthlabben." This is a Hebrew expression which means, "The death of the champion."

David as a young boy was thrust into a situation that had an impact upon the rest of his life. He had come to where the army of Israel was assembled against the Philistines to visit his brothers. The first thing he saw was that a giant of a man of the Philistines appeared on the brow of the hill opposite the army of Israel and taunted the Israelites. The Philistine army behind this giant laughed loudly at the apparent cowardice of the Israel army. And the soldiers of the army of Israel were visibly intimidated. David asked how long this had been going on and he was told it had been 40 days. "Where's the king?" he thought. "Why doesn't Saul fight him? He's almost as big as he is!" Or, "Why doesn't Jonathan fight him?" Or, why doesn't my brothers Eliab, or Shammah fight him?" Seeing that no one would accept the dare presented by this giant, David decided to fight the giant himself. Everyone thought Goliath was too big to fight. David thought he was too big to miss. Saul cautioned David and said, "You are only a youth." But David knew that he would succeed. Not in his own ~~strength~~ strength, but in the strength of God. When David approached Goliath we read in 1 Samuel 17:43B, (read this). David told him, (read verse 45).

(Illustration of Zig Ziglar & Bible story of David & Goliath to 8yr-old son)

Zig Ziglar, the Christian writer was telling the Bible story of David and Goliath to his eight-year-old son, Tom.

As he finished the story he said to Tom, "Son, David was really a brave boy to challenge Goliath wasn't he? He was a lad of seventeen and hadn't even started to shave, while Goliath was a man of war over nine feet tall and weighing over four hundred pounds. Tom looked up and said, "Yes Dad, David was brave all right. But Goliath was really the brave one." Somewhat startled he asked Tom how he figured that Goliath was the brave one. He said, "Dad, you've got to understand that Goliath was out there all by himself; David had God with him."

Looking at it from that standpoint, we could say that Goliath was truly brave. But actually he was foolhardy. For anyone to try to stand on his own merits, or in his own strength is to court disaster. God tells us in His Word, "apart from Me ye can do nothing." Oh, I know that we see many unbelievers who seemingly are succeeding in life. But are they? It is when we think we have it made that we are heading for the biggest fall of our lives. The apostle Paul writing about this to the church in Corinth said, in 1 Corinthians 10:12, "Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall."

We are vulnerable when we think we have it all together. Goliath believed that there was no one as big as him, or as powerful. But he didn't count on God being with David.

So it is that David wrote this Psalm "On Bulthabben" or literally, "The death of the man who went forth between the camps." David knew that God had delivered Israel and himself from this enemy and so he could confidently write, "O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth. Who hast set Thy glory above the heavens," verse 1.

David sang, "Yehovah, our Yehovah." That is, God of the covenant, God of love." But when he said that God's name was excellent in all of the earth that certainly seems like an exaggeration. And it is! Even today we cannot truthfully say that God's name is excellent in all of the earth. There are several billion people who do not fear, revere, or love the name of God. There are those who curse Him when they even hear the mention of the name God.

But David was not saying that everyone believed in Him. He was merely saying that there were men who owned that name and to those who do it is excellent. That name is a name above all names and we know it as Jesus Christ, the complete revelation of God's love.

David acknowledges God further by writing of Him, "Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast Thou ordained strength because of Thine enemies, that Thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger," verse 2.

Someone has said cynically said, "God is on the side of the big battalions." What he didn't know is that God doesn't need armies. All that God needs is a baby. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt had decreed that the people of Israel who were his slaves were too numerous and needed to be exterminated. This was to be done by killing all the babies. But a baby was born into a Hebrew home and was placed in a small boat in the weeds by the river's edge. Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe and found the baby and as she looked at this handsome little boy, he began to cry. A tear ran down his cheek and that tear broke the Princess's heart, and she went completely against her father's decree and raised him to manhood. That tear, God used to write the downfall of that mighty kingdom.

God used a babe in Bethlehem to break into the history of mankind and to free it from the slavery of sin and death. And long before that event, David was inspired to write that God didn't use strength, or might, or power. He used something as simple as a baby.

David wrote, "When I consider the heavens, the work of Thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which Thou hast ordained; what is man, that Thou art mindful of him? And the son of man, that Thou visitest him? For Thou hast made man a little lower than the angels," verses 3 to 5A.

As a shepherd, David saw the heavens at night and observed God's creation. He saw the vastness of it and compared that creation to the creation of man. And David questions God's creation of man. After the mind-boggling creation of the universe, stars, moon, sun, etc, David asks, "What is man?" The word used here for man in Hebrew is "Enosh." This word simply means "mortal man, man in his most simple form." But then another word is used for man in the next phrase of David's. In Hebrew there are four words used for man. This next word for man is "Adamah." It is simply man created from the dust and so when David asks, "The son of man," he is simply saying, "Son of Adam, son of the dust."

The term, "Son of man" is used about 100 times in the Old Testament. But it does not have the article "the" in it since there is no article in the Hebrew. It is simply "son of man." So it would read, "What is man that Thou art mindful of him? And son of man, that Thou visitest him?"

"Son of man" here is simply a descendent of Adam; mortal man from the dust. In the New Testament that phrase changes and it becomes "The son of man," with the article and it refers to Jesus Christ, the second Adam taking the place of the first Adam who forfeited the right to his inheritance through the fall. But Jesus Christ restores that inheritance to those who become His followers.

Then David looks at the mystery of what God has given man to do, "And hast crowned him with glory and honor. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of Thy hands; Thou hast put all things under his feet: All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field: and the fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas." verses 5B-8.

(Illustration of Queen Elizabeth of England, in army, then Queen)

At the outbreak of World War II, Queen Elizabeth of England was just a teenager. She wanted to join the armed forces and serve her country like everyone else. She asked her father who was King George VI to permit her to do so. When she was old enough he gave his consent and she joined the army as a Private. There was one non-commissioned officer who took particular delight in bossing and bullying her. It was Private Windsor do this, and Private Windsor do that." And all she could do was to say, "Yes, sergeant, yes, sergeant." She was made a little lower than the non-commissioned officers in order to serve her country. A short time after the war on February 6, 1952 she received word that her father was dead. Now her title became, "Her royal majesty, Queen Elizabeth II." No longer could anybody say, "Private Windsor do this or that," for now everyone had to follow her orders.

While we live this mortal life we are "a little lower than the angels." But one day that will end and because we are heirs of God, joint heirs with Jesus Christ, we shall be exalted above the highest archangels of glory. God had given man dominion over all that is on earth.

As long as we lived and we have lived longer on this planet, that dominion has changed from just domesticating animals and using them as necessary to man harnessing the forces of nature today. And David comes to the conclusion, "O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth," Verse 9.

David ends this Psalm as he began it. It all of His creation, which He made with His fingers not His ear, with His finger, this God loves us and has given us His grace; that gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ. It all begins and ends with God. In Genesis we read, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." His word ends with the word, "I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last," Rev. 22:13.

It all starts with God and ends with God. "O Lord our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth."

"Keyed To The Past: To Flee Or Not To Flee"

Scripture: Psalm 11

There are many instances where ~~we~~ a certain thing has been believed for many, many years, and there comes a time when we need to set history straight. One example is the naming of towns and cities in our nation.

(Illustration of how Albuquerque got its name)

Many, many years ago, King David of Israel was wrestling with a decision that had to be made. The proper choice would determine his future if there was to be one for him.

As he pondered this momentous decision he paced back and forth, and back and forth, and was heard muttering to himself, "To Flee Or Not To Flee, that is the question."

Several thousand years later, a playwright by the name of William Shakespeare wrote a play in which he copied those lines, but changed them to, "To be or not to be, that is the question."

But seriously, David was facing a decision which only he could make. In the life of David there were three periods which he lived through. The first period was that of the country. He was simply a country boy, a shepherd boy whose early life was simple and uncomplicated. These were the formative years. Then there was the court period. David had entered into this period of his life with his playing of lute. King Saul took note of this young, young country boy and made him a part of his court. In the court period, David never knew whether he was going to survive another day. His popularity caused an intense jealousy to develop in Saul and set him off in moods of hatred and depression. The third period of David's life was living in the caves. It was here that David learned the valuable lessons of survival in the caves, ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ These lessons taught him how to be the leader of men which he became.

It was during the period of the court that David penned the lines of the 11th Psalm. This was a very important time of his life. This is a very critical time for anyone who is facing a crisis of any kind. It is when we are driven that we are tempted to simply run away and hide.

David begins by making a matter-of-fact statement, "In the Lord put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, 'Flee as a bird to your mountain!'" verse 1.

David was faced with two choices at this point in his life. He had just been told that this was a very popular young man. People were beginning to sing his praises, especially the women of Israel. David could have very easily organized a revolt against the throne, but he didn't. Then there were those who must have advised him to flee to the mountains like a bird. But he didn't do that either. Instead, David stated, "In the Lord put I my trust." In order to have trust, one must have faith. They simply go head in hand.

To celebrate the 75th birthday of a F. Virginia Farmer a neighbor who was an airplane pilot offered to take him for a plane ride over the town where he had spent all of his life. The farmer accepted the ride. Back on the ground, after circling the town for twenty minutes, his friend asked, "Where was town?" "No-ow," was the laziest reply. "That I never did put on full weight now."

This is very much like most people trust God. They have faith up to a point, but no further.

(Illustration of little boy flying a kite and knowing it is there because of a little tug on the string every once in a while.)

Those who have experienced God in their lives know of it from "the tug on their lives" every once in a while. But that can only come to one who is willing to reach out in faith and trust

Just as David at a later time penned the lines in the 139th Psalm about being unable to flee from God's presence, so now he determined that he could not flee at this point in his life. He knew the wisdom of standing firm and facing his problems regardless of what they were.

In looking at the present situation David takes inventory of what is happening. He says, "For lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart," verse 2.

David knew that behind his back there were those who were conspiring with the king against him. They were warning Saul, "You better watch out for this young red-haired, handsome shepherd boy. He is stealing the hearts of the people and it won't be too long and he will have your throne." These things were being said behind David's back. That is what the word "privily" means. Basically it implies, "in the dark." ~~It~~ It is "in the dark" that these arrows are being shot at David and so he asks the question, "If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?" verse 3.

But he answers his own question by stating facts which are known. He writes, "The Lord is in His holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven," verse 4A.

I read of a minister who was going to preach on the text of verse 3 of this Psalm. Before Sunday of that week he received word that his son was killed in action in one of the battles of World War II. And so he began his sermon by asking the question, "If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?" And his answer throughout that sermon was, "The righteous will keep on being righteous. His courage in preaching on this text was evidence enough of what the righteous must do when the foundations are destroyed. There is always within each of us the ~~desire~~ desire to get away from it all; to run; to flee. But we must always come back to the basic fact that "God is in His holy temple." There is our strength for every circumstance of life. But notice how David adds to it. He says, "His eyes behold His eyelids try, the children of men," Verse 4B.

The Lord trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence His soul hateth," verse 5.

David is describing God as examining the things of life very carefully. When we want to look at something very closely, often times we will squint, narrowing our eyelids and thus limiting what we are looking at so we can examine it closely. This is what David is saying God does with mankind. He isn't dead, He is very much alive and God is narrowing His vision to see very closely and carefully what the righteous and the wicked are doing.

David knew from the past history of Israel that God ultimately stepped into their history in various ways. So he writes, "Upon the wicked He shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup," verse 6.

David knew of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah because of their gross wickedness, where God used fire and brimstone to do away with them. David knew that God would ultimately punish those who were seemingly getting away with their evil ways and evil deeds. So David is showing that his trust in God is justified because God has proved Himself many other times in similar circumstances.

Thus, David concludes this song with a confession of faith by stating, "For the righteous Lord loveth righteousness; His countenance doth behold the upright," verse 7.

David is pointing out that God is righteous and He loves righteousness. Those who are seeking to be righteous are noticed by the Lord. He sees, He knows and He knows the distinction between those who are living for Him, and those who are wicked.

To David it was a simple thing to seek to live for the Lord. It didn't involve a checklist of do's and don'ts. It was simply to live each day seeking to please Him. Too many people sincerely believe that they must show success in this life in order to know God fully. But God never called us to be successful. His call is to obedience. That doesn't mean we do not seek to succeed for Him. But it means that is not our number one priority. He simply asks that we seek Him and His will in every thing of life. That means to seek His will in the most simple and basic things of daily living, like telling the truth.

(Illustration of Him looking for telling the truth at risk of his life)

We may never face similar circumstances, but quite often our faith is tested in other ways. How do we stick up? How do we handle the low points of life? Is it a question of how often we are to bleed?

Once again we need to look closely at this Psalm and we can see that the 11th Psalm appears to have a superscription, but actually that is the subscription of this 11th Psalm. It states "To the chief musician upon Sheminith." Sheminith is a Hebrew word which means, "the eighth." The significance of this is found in 1 Chronicles chapter 15, and verses 20 and 21.

Here under David's direction the singers were appointed by the chief Levites. Some were read some were to sing "for Alamoth," and some on "Sheminith." Alamoth were the young women who sang the high notes. Those "in Sheminith" were the young men and they sang the low notes. But what class of young men were they? They were true Israelites. The term "in Sheminith" referred to those who had been circumcised on the 8th day as required by the Mosaic Law. These young men were looked upon as the true covenant people of God and they were called upon to sing the low notes which required a special skill. The other notes for the most part are easy to sing. But how are the low notes of life handled by those who are followers of Jesus Christ? Can we handle the low notes of life because we are in a right relationship with Jesus Christ? It is how we handle adversity that determines how deep our trust is in the Lord. Can we say like David, "In the Lord put I my trust," and stick it out regardless what life may bring our way? We can, only, if the Lord is truly our Savior.

municipal residence. Small business will also have to pay the higher income tax rates on their profits. For unincorporated businesses, sole proprietors, and partnerships, business income is taxed at personal rates.

Much discussion has focused on the merits of moving from property to individual income taxes. Income taxes are said to be more fair, and more stable. But little attention has been given to the downside of raising individual income taxes.

In recent years, a growing body of research has focused on the impact of individual income taxes, at both federal and state level, on economic behavior. One major study indicates that high personal taxes at the state level affect business location decisions and job creation. Pennsylvania is already above the national average in its reliance on personal income taxes.

It is hard to believe that the new PIT on both earned and unearned income will have no impact on small business growth and job

"Keyed to The Past: Deception"

scripture: Psalm 12

In the Gospel of Matthew in the 21st chapter, Jesus tells a very short parable. As is true of all parables, there are several points which can be made from it. In the 28th verse Jesus begins by asking a question, "What think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.'" He answered and said, 'I will not;' but afterward he repented and went. And he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go sir:' and went not." verses 28-30.

Then Jesus asked the question of which of them did the will of his father. The point that I believe which is not stressed in this parable is the point of "Deception," or deceit. The first son truthfully said he would not go, but he was sorry about his decision not to help his father and so he went to work. But the second son said that he would go and evidently he never had any intentions of going to work at all. That is outright "Deception."

This 12th Psalm of David's ~~is xxxxxxxx~~ was written on this very theme. It is a Psalm that anyone can use at many different times throughout life to find God's answer to a question we all ask from time to time. The question is, "How can the wicked prosper and get away with the wrong or evil things they do?" God answers this question as David points out at this time in his life.

No one actually knows when David wrote this Psalm. It could have been at the time when he was living in Saul's court and each day fearing that Saul would be successful in killing him. It could have been during that time when he was ~~fall~~ fleeing from cave to cave and hole to hole in the wilderness with his footsteps being dogged by Saul and his henchmen. Or it could have been when he fled as a King in Exile from his own son Absalom. Any or all of these days and times were reflections of what he was writing about here. David knew deceit and deception firsthand. He knew of the ungrateful citizens of Keilah and the Ziphites who cold-bloodedly planned to sell him to Saul; He knew the deceit of his son Absalom who wormed his way into the hearts of many of David's subjects and sought to take the throne; he knew the deceit of a trusted counselor Ahithophel who betrayed him and became the Judas Iscariot of the Old Testament. In all of these examples and others like them, David learned the "Deception" and "Deceit" were a part of life that was hard to endure. Many times he must have asked himself, "Just who can I trust?" Have you ever had someone that you thought you could count on, only to have that so called "friend" betray you and deceive you? It hurts doesn't it?

David, facing these circumstances cried out, "Help, Lord; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful ~~fall~~ fail from among the children of men. They speak vanity every one with his neighbor: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak," verses 1 & 2.

David was looking at the situation and much like Elijah was asking, "Am I the only one who is seeking to live for you, God?" David was seeing a decline of those who lived godly lives, and he was seeing ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ people everywhere turning away from God and the things of God. How similar to our age and our society. As I look back 30 or 40 years ago at the church I often think how exciting it must have been to be a pastor and see people coming to church in great numbers; of people bringing their families; of people being convicted to the Lord. But today we have a church full of people who have turned away from the church; of people giving up their Christianity and turning their backs on the church; of declining membership; of finding it difficult to get all the members of the family to come to the Lord's house. And it is so easy to sit back and shrug the shoulders and ask, "Why Lord, why?"

(Illustration of man substituting for blind beggar)

A pitiful looking man sat on the sidewalk with a black glass on a little tin cup. A kindly gentleman passed by and reached in his pocket and put some change in the man's cup. As he walked away he just happened to turn around and to his surprise the blind man pushed his glass up on his forehead and was staring the change in the cup. "I thought you were blind," said the gentleman. "Oh, no," he answered, "I am only substituting for the regular blind man today. I'm not blind at all." "Well, where is the regular blind man?" asked the man. "Oh, he's gone to the movie, it's his day off."

This type of action is identified today as a "Gee job." The two words mean "artists," and we know there are lots of them. David identified them in two ways. First he said they, "lack vanity." The Hebrew word for vanity here is "false speech, lying, guile, deceptiveness." Then David said, "With flattery lips and with a double heart do they speak." In Hebrew the word meaning of "double heart" is "a heart and a heart." It is the power she will tell him after he has deceived or is deliberately cheat. That person has a heart and a heart and both of them are bad.

But even though David is questioning the shoundness of these people and the lack of the godly, he knows their end. He may not be too happy at this point because they seem to be prevailing. But he comes back to the observation, "The Lord's all out of all flattery lips, and the tongue that speaketh good things: for he will say, 'With our lips will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is Lord over us?'" verses 1 & 4.

These people believe that they are in control and there is no one who is over them. They are their own gods; they are the masters of their destinies. This thinking is becoming more and more prevalent in our society. That is why we are seeing the falling away of the values upon which society and our own lives should be built. But it is a pervasive evil that is slowly creeping in and people are swallowing the lies which are being foisted upon us. The New Age Movement tells us that we are all gods in our own right. We do not need A GOD. The humanists are teaching that all we have to do is to lift ourselves up by our bootstraps and we can change the world. Both of these teachings and others like them are the lies of Satan. Jesus told another parable of a farmer planting wheat and at night an enemy planted weeds in the same field. When the wheat began to sprout, so did the weeds. What to do? The answer: to let them both grow to harvest and then at harvest to separate them. This is a picture of the world and the church if you will. Within the very church of Jesus Christ there are weeds among the wheat. But only God can do the separating and He will do that at the end of the age. Meantime, we must be vigilant and learn what is truth and what is "Deception."

David also saw God stepping in, "For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth up at him," verse 5.

God is on the throne! God knows what is going on in His world, and God is not mocked. A lesson we can learn and know that God repeats it over and over is the example of what He did with His people in Egypt. He saw the "Oppression of the poor," and He heard, "The sighing of the needy." And He delivered them out of that oppression and need.

David knew his history as the people of Israel and they were miraculously freed from their slavery and bondage. David knew also that when God stepped into man's history that he would personally watch over each of those who are his. That is why he could write, "I will not let him in safety from him that profits at him," verse 2.

If we can make a comparison between a "hillsman's" story and this verse it would be the story of the Three Little Pigs. The big bad wolf has declared that he will huff and puff against the houses of the pigs and he is able to do so with their houses made of straw and wood.

But when he huffs and puffs against the house made of brick, he is unable to blow it down.

So it is for the believer who has built his house upon the rock. God has provided us with that solid foundation which is Jesus Christ and as believers we are a part of the Church of Jesus Christ. The promise is that even the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

Although David didn't know all of this as he wrote, he was able to state, "The words of the Lord are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times," verse 6.

God's word shall stand forever and there is nothing which can prevail against it either.

All other words and writings are false, but God's word is truth. The perfect word in Scripture is 7, and David used it here as the word of truth. Silver is refined to make it pure. He uses this analogy to impress the reader or listener of this song with the absolute purity of God's word.

David came back to the one fact of life that he knows and that is, "Thou shalt keep them, O Lord, Thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever," verse 7.

Those who are the Lord's are his forever.

David is aware that merely stating his faith will not be enough if the promises, and the promises they continue to break and so he states conditions that are taking place in his particular time. "The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted," verse 8.

That word, "vilest" in Hebrew is a strong word which means, "To shake," or "to be loose," that is loose in morals. It can be compared to the morals of the people of Sodom and Gomorrah. What David is saying is that people of vile, or immoral lives are being exalted to positions of leadership. So what else is new? Haven't we seen this being repeated in our own time and in our age? But it is happening in the church as well.

(Illustration of Glide Memorial Church in San Francisco and Call to Worship)

Glide Memorial Methodist Church in San Francisco has this call to worship in their printed bulletin on Sunday and recited by the leader:

"We are all of us Christians - Jews, liberals, Catholics, socialists, socialists, Communists, Marxists, Democrats, civil rights, patriots, ministers, moderate Republicans, pacifists, teachers, doctors, professors, scientists, Latin-Americans, New Africans, Common Market, even Mao Tse Tung. Doubtless, from Lyndon Johnson to Mao Tse Tung, we are all Christians. The church has become a haven for dope addicts, hippies, homosexuals, and deviants."

The church which is supposed to be a beacon to the world has been reduced to a flashlight.

The reason is because the church has sought to be all things to all men. But we cannot be reasonable for what the rest of the church is doing. In our age where, "The wicked walk on every side," and "when the vilest men are exalted," we must remain true to our calling. God has called us to faithfulness, and He has provided the only salvation for mankind through Jesus Christ. Have we accepted that gift? And are we willing to stand forth in our society and be counted and known as Christians. We can have the assurance of God's approval both now

"Our C E O"

Scripture: Jeremiah 29:1-14

(Illustration of elementary school teacher asking how many points to the compass)

One morning an elementary school teacher asked her class how many points there were on the compass. She was surprised when one little boy stuck up his hand and said, "Five." She asked him, "Five? What are they?" He counted them off, "North, south, east, west, and where I am."

For a segment of the people of Israel they weren't certain just where they were. About 3,000 of them had been exiled to Babylon, this much they knew. For those who were in Babylon it was an experience they had to go through and they were living for the day when they could return to Palestine. For those living in Palestine they longed for all of their people to be back home. The prophet Jeremiah was led of God to write a letter to the exiles in Babylon and this is what our Scripture this morning concerns.

The thrust of God's word to these exiles was that they were to live in Babylon and assimilate themselves into the nation in which they lived. God was telling them to build houses, to ~~xxxxxx~~ marry, to have children, to raise their families and to await God's intervention in their midst to bring them back to ~~xxx~~ Palestine. They longed to be back home because to them they considered it a necessity to worship and make sacrifices in the temple. Without these rituals it just wasn't considered worship. Jeremiah had told them as recorded in ~~the~~ another chapter of the book ~~xxxxxx~~ that worship ~~xxx~~ could take place apart from the temple and it wasn't sacrifices that pleased God. But the message Jeremiah wrote to them from God was not pleasing. They were being forced to do manual labor and many of them were not accustomed to this. They had to use spades and hoes to try to farm and live off the produce of the land. Everything they had to do themselves and life wasn't too easy; and to make matters worse they were being told that the next 70 years they belonged to Babylon and would be separated from Palestine. ~~For~~ For many of them this was a bitter pill to swallow because they were in the advanced years of their lives and it meant they would probably die in Babylon and never see Palestine again.

It is after the 70 years that God spells out His plan for them and although this was their ~~plan~~ plan God was talking about, I believe that it was ~~and~~ is God's plan for all people. Therefore, I would like for us to look at it in this light. God's plan, then becomes our plan and hence the title, "Our C E O." For those of you who thought you had deciphered those letters and believed we were going to look at "Our Chief Executive Officer," I'm sorry to disappoint you. But "C E O" stands for the parts of God's plan.

At the beginning, when God created everything, He created man as His ultimate creation. Man was to be faithful and obedient and was to live eternally with God. But we know that man sinned and as a result became separated from God. This then in essence made man an exile to begin to live and wander in a strange land which was not his homeland. Man has from that time to this sought to get back home, but no matter how he may try it is impossible to do so on his own. So it was that God stepped into man's history and said, "For I know the plans that I have for you," declares the Lord."

Now as we said these plans were for the people in exile in Babylon, but I believe they apply to all mankind. As we read of these plans we see that they are very Comprehensive. They are very conclusive. He promises He will listen, that He will make it possible to be found, and that He will restore the fortunes of those who are exiles from Him. With these conditions we can see that His plans are quite adequate for us

It was Oswald Chambers who wrote of God:

"How He bends but never breaks when our good He undertakes;
How He uses whom He chooses
And with every purpose fuses him;
By every act induces him
To try His splendor out -
God knows what He's about!

The first part of ~~xx~~ "Our C E O" plan is that His plans for us are Comprehensive.

But not only are God's plans for us Comprehensive and all-inclusive, His plans bear the stamp of Excellence for us. Think of two of the most simple, but frustrating things of life we must all endure. One of them is what we have heard much about in our society and that involves the art of listening. How do you feel if you have been talking to someone and you assumed they were paying attention to you and then you discover they were never listening? It is infuriating isn't it? But it is God who says, "Then you will call upon Me and come and pary to Me, and I will listen to you," verse 12.

~~So you can see that from your friends, your husband, your wife, 100% of the time? Only God can make statements like that~~

~~and what was the other frustrating simple thing of life you thought of?~~

(Illustration of Erma Bombeck fan writing about young girl and her sweater)

Can you say the same thing about your family or friends not listening? I think we all can to a certain extent. But only God can truthfully say, "I will listen to you."

And what was the other frustrating simple thing of life you thought of? The 13th verse gives us the clue: "And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart." Ever lost something and looked high and low and couldn't find it? We all have. It is one of those things that really can work us into a lather isn't it?

(Illustration of Bobby finding a five dollar bill)

Five year-old Bobby came home with a five dollar bill. He told his mother he found it in the grocery store where she had sent him for a bottle of milk. She asked, "Are you sure it was lost?" "Oh yeas," he said, "I saw a woman looking for it."

Sometimes it seems like this is what must happen to something we are looking for. But how do we explain it when no one is around to have walked off with it? But God says, "And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart," and He adds, "And I will be found by you," in the 14th verse.

His listening, and letting us find Him is the Excellence of God. We cannot ~~xxxxxxx~~ expect to find this Excellency in life. It can only come from God. God knows that man cries out to Him when he finds he is hopelessly lost in this foreign land of the living. And man wants someone to hear him and to find him. And God has promised He would do just that and He did through Jesus Christ. The people of Jeremiah's time didn't have this revelation, but we have And it is ours for the taking.

God declared that His plans were for "welfare, and not calamity to give you a future and a hope."

But He also added in the 14th verse, "And I will restore your fortunes and will gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you," declares the Lord, "And I will bring you back to the place from where I sent you into exile,""

Here is a note of optimism in the midst of negative and pessimistic circumstances. The fulfillment of God's plans is to be welcomed home again. God fulfilled these plans by coming to earth in the person of Jesus Christ and for shedding His blood on Calvary for all mankind. It is when man cries out in his exile and his lostness from what is his original part of God's plan that God hears and is found, and man then has the opportunity to take Christ as his Savior. Man is then set free from wandering on the sea of the lost and becomes a child of God. But it can only take place through the shed blood of Jesus Christ. The people of Jeremiah's day were hung up on rituals and ceremonies. They believed that worship could only take place in the temple. And they believed that worship was only possible by bringing the right sacrifices. But in exile they couldn't do this and this frustrated them. But this is where God stepped in and told them He had other plans for them.

We shouldn't be looking at the church, or at ministers, or other leaders to bring us into the presence of the Lord. We should be looking to the Lord Himself.

(Illustration of storm tossed ship and sailor seeing the face of the captain)

A freighter was being tossed like a cork during a violent storm at sea. All of the men working below decks were frightened. One sailor working down there couldn't contain himself any longer and he rushed up to the deserted deck and went up to the bridge. He pulled the door open with great difficulty, closed it behind him and stood frozen in fright as he watched the captain wrestle with the controls of the huge ship. He saw how the captain maneuvered the wheel, checked the gauges, and with the skill of his mind and the strength of his hand was able to guide the ship around the rocks and shore to the open water.

The captain, sensing someone was behind him, turned slightly, looked at the frightened sailor and smiled. The young man returned below deck and told all of the other sailors that the danger was over and they were safe. When they asked how he knew, he answered, "I have seen the face of the captain, and he smiled at me."

If we have looked upon the face of the Savior Jesus Christ we can say the same thing. He smiles upon those who come to Him through the storms of life. He is the complete fulfillment of the plans God said He had for mankind. Today is our opportunity to have Him hear us, and to find us as we wrestle with the things of this life. Our Comprehensive, Excellent, Optimistic Plan is only possible through Him.

"Come Home"

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 5:6-9

(Illustration of "Landloed" begging for money for a needy family)

A knock at the door brought the lady of the house face to face with a man of sad countenance. He said, "I'm sorry to disturb you, but I am collecting money for an unfortunate family in your neighborhood." With great sympathy he went on, "The husband is out of work, the kids are hungry, the utilities will soon be cut off, and worst of all, they are going to be kicked out of their home if they cannot get the rent money by this afternoon." The woman was deeply moved and said, "I will be happy to help, but who are you?" He replied, "I am the landlord."

Probably the one thing in life everyone desires is to have a happy home, free from the cares and worries of the world. But just what is a home? Jesus said, "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man hath not where to lay His head," Mt. 8:20. We think of home as being a place where we live together with our families; a haven perhaps from the storms of life; a place of comfort where we can retreat from the world.

The Apostle Paul saw ~~ix~~ home in a different light. He was writing to the Corinthian Christians and looking at life from the perspective of all of the problems and concerns that an individual faces as he lives this human life. He states in the first verse, (read this). He is saying that the believer knows that he belongs to God and our real home is in heaven with God and this is our confidence and assurance. Then he says, (read verses 2 through 4). What he is actually saying here is that when we throw off this body, we will have another body in eternity with God. An unbeliever doesn't have this assurance and fears death as making him naked, or vulnerable to whatever lies beyond the grave. But the believer will be clothed by God.

Paul then states that this is from God as we read, (read verse 5). It is God who has given us our life, our being, and it ~~is~~ God who has created in us an insatiable hunger and thirst for the real meaning of life. And we only have our hunger and thirst satisfied when we come back to God. When we ~~come~~ "Come Home" that is. So Paul says, "Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: (for we walk by faith and not by sight:) We are confident I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. Wherefore we labor, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of Him," verses 6-9.

Paul is saying that "we are confident" and by this he means we are full of courage because we know where our real home is.

Will Thompson wrote, "Softly and tenderly Jesus is calling, calling for you and for me, Come home, Come Home."

It was pliny who wrote, "Home is where the heart is." And Jesus said, "Where the heart is, there will your treasure be also." So if believers are to be storing up treasure in heaven, and heaven is where our hearts are, and ^{if} home is where our hearts are, then "Home for the believer is heaven regardless of what this life may hold forth in riches or pleasures.

Paul is reminding those who are believers that for the believer, the passing from this life is merely the exchange of a temporary home for the permanent one prepared for us by Almighty God through Jesus Christ. And so the call of our Savior to "Come Home" needs response from each one of us individually. This morning as we gathered at the Lord's Table we expressed outwardly our return home. But have you returned home inwardly? Partaking of the Lord's Supper can be two things. First it can be only an outward sign of something that you feel an obligation to do. Partaking of His shed body and blood then is merely a formality and has no real meaning or purpose. If you came and partook in that manner, perhaps simply because you feel you are fulfilling a membership requirement, then we must say that you partook unworthily.

But if you partook of the Lord's Supper because you ~~did~~ truly desired to join your Savior Jesus Christ in true Communion, remembering His death and resurrection, and once again turning to Him for forgiveness and cleansing, then you have "Come Home."

(Illustration of young man asking for prayer and father had been praying for him)

Some years ago in Cincinnati a minister concluded his ~~sermon~~ sermon with an appeal by saying, "If anyone here desires help in getting to know the Lord, will you please raise your hand?" A young fellow quickly stood up and said with emotion, "Please pray for me. The burden of my sin is too heavy to bear." After the service the minister counseled with the man and he found peace by accepting Christ. The pastor advised him to write to his parents immediately after the boy said he had wandered the country for 8 years without contacting them. That very day he wrote a letter to them telling them of his conversion and how it came about. He asked for their forgiveness for his past disobedience. A few days later he received a letter from his mother. Through his tears he read, "My dear son, the joy of receiving your letter was mixed with sadness. As near as I can tell you must have accepted Christ at the same hour that your father went ~~to his home~~ home to heaven. He had been sick for a long time, and that day he was very restless. He tossed from side to side on his bed, crying out in misery, 'O dear Lord, please save my poor, wandering boy! Just as he slipped away, he began to murmur the same sentence again, but death sealed his lips before he could finish his plea. He was still praying when he went into the presence of Jesus. Son, I'm sure that one of the reasons you became a Christian was Dad's unceasing intercession.'"

Jesus is still extending the invitation to "Come Home." The author of Hebrew tells us that He is at the right hand of God, "Ever making intercession for us." If Jesus is speaking to His Father about us, then His invitation to "Come Home" is not something to take lightly. If there is anyone of you here, no matter who you are who have not "Come Home" yet, I invite you to come forward at the close of this service and do so.

"Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling. O for the wonderful love He has promised,

Promised for you and for me; tho we have sinned He has mercy and pardon,

Pardon for you and for me.

Come Home, Come Home, Ye who are weary come home;

Earnestly, tenderly Jesus is calling - calling, 'O sinner Come Home.'"

"Christian Pictures: A Son"

(Illustrations of Art)

FOR A zealous art student went to the art gallery to study the abstract art on display there. For a good hour she looked at the paintings trying to make sense out of some of them. Finally, she was attracted to a painting consisting of a black dot on a field of white, and framed in brass. "How much for this?" she asked. "That's the light switch," the man in charge told her.

Another man who had purchased a painting of abstract art from an art gallery, received a letter a few days later from them. It began, "Dear Sir or Madman."

In 1961 a painting by the artist Matisse hung upside down for 47 days before a visitor to the New York Museum of Modern Art discovered the mistake. We are told that is a record for a wrong side up display.

Now this may be the situation found in modern art. But one thing we cannot say about the Apostle Paul, and that is, "He never painted an abstract picture which was difficult to interpret." In this 2nd chapter of 2nd Timothy Paul paints 7 very clear pictures. These are pictures of the things that a Christian should be. For the next few weeks we are going to look at these clear pictures to determine the complete picture of a Christian.

This second letter to Timothy was written by Paul from a prison cell in Rome shortly before Paul's death. This letter is more of a personal nature than the first and in it he speaks to Timothy as he would if he were giving advice to his own son. So it is not surprising that he begins this letter ~~xxxxxxxx~~ by stating in the very 2nd verse of the 1st chapter: "To Timothy, my dearly beloved son."

It is in the first letter, chapter one, verse 2 that he says, "To Timothy my dearly beloved son."

The words "My dearly beloved son," have the special meaning of "My true son," and in Greek this is from the word GNESIOS=gnay-see-oss, which means, "Genuine, true born. This gives the word "Son" a double meaning at this point. The first meaning is that of an actual son. It is to us that in our Scripture for this morning the word, "Son," is from the Greek word TEKNON, which means, "a child," which is like a well beloved son or daughter. It is a term of endearment. The Apostle John used this term many times in his letters where he said frequently, "My little children," or, "My dear little ones, my beloved."

Timothy was a young man that at the Apostle Paul met on his second missionary journey when he came to Lystra. Timothy was the son of a Jewish Christian Mother, and a Greek Father. Paul was so impressed with this young man that he asked him to join their missionary party. We understand that when Paul made his first missionary journey when he preached at Lystra, Timothy was converted under that preaching. Two years after Timothy joined Paul on the 2nd journey, ~~he had matured as well as a Christian that he could be taken on~~ and in that 2 year span of time, he had matured and grown so much as a Christian that Paul took him on as an apprentice. It was because of this that Paul could write to the people in the church at Philippi in his letter chapter 2:19-23. (read this).

Paul was saying that he knew no one quite like Timothy and he said of him, that "As as son with the father, he hath served with me in the Gospel."

You all know what a father is don't you? "A father is a man who carries photographs where his money used to be."

(Illustration of ~~John Decker~~ Arthur Gordon and his father taking to circus)

A man named Arthur Gordon tells of the time when he was 13, and his brother was 10, and their Dad had promised to take them to the circus. But at lunch time there was an urgent telephone call and the boys braced themselves for the disappointment they believed was coming. But they heard their father say, "No, I won't be down. It will have to wait." When their Dad came back to the table, their mother said to him, 'The circus keeps coming back, you know.' 'I know,' said Father. 'But childhood doesn't.'

Paul spent quality time with Timothy and as a result he turned out to be like a son to him. But Paul was also saying something pertaining to another type of son. He told him, (read verse 2). His instructions are simply, share the things you have received with other men, so they in turn can pass them on. This is basically and simply one on one evangelism which is what the membership of any congregation needs to be about. Each member bears this responsibility whether they believe it or not. This is the only way the church of Jesus Christ can grow. But underlying what Paul is saying is the fact that Timothy through his direction, (Paul's), had become another son. Timothy had become a Son of God. This is what happens when a person accepts Christ, is Born again, is converted, or whatever you choose to call it. Contrary to what some major denominations may tell you, a person isn't born a child of God. Before a person comes to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ he is one of God's creatures. But only when he accepts the gift of salvation through Christ does he become a part of the family of God.

There are ~~several~~ quite a few examples which Jesus gave of this fact, but let me just share one relevant one with you as found in the Gospel of Luke. Luke records it in the 20th chapter of his Gospel. Perhaps while you are finding that in your Bibles I can give you the background. This is one of my favorite portions of Scripture. A group of people called the Sadducees came to him with a trick question. The Scripture begins with the 27th verse, (read this). It tells us they didn't believe in the resurrection and someone has said "that is what makes them Mad You See."

But let's read the Scripture to see what transpires. (Read verses 28 through 33). Jesus then answer, (read verse 34). And then Jesus says, "But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world,"

In other words, those who are believers and who enter heaven, those who ate death attain the life beyond with God. These people, "Neither marry, nor are given in marriage," there is no need for marriage in heaven. "Neither can they die anymore," death has been overcome through Christ and those who have come to Him, pass through death for it has been defeated by Him for the believer. "For they are equal unto the angels," no longer are the angels above the humans who have entered eternity through Christ. "And are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection," verse 36. "They are the children of God," and how is that relationship obtained? Jesus says, by, "Being the children of the resurrection." It is through Christ that a person is redeemed; it is through His shed blood that this happens, no other way; and through Christ not only is the person "bought with that price," but that individual has the resurrection to eternal life which also came through Jesus who came back from the grave defeating death and its power. Paul asks, "O death where is thy sting? O grave where is thy victory?" It has been defeated through Jesus Christ and for the believer he or she is a child of God. This is what Paul is also imparting to Timothy as a Son. The root of the Greek word - TEKNON comes from a word which is - TEKO - tech O. And that root means, "To produce from seed as a mother, or a plant, or the earth. To be born, to be delivered, to bear, to bring forth, be in travail." So Paul is saying to Timothy that he is not only like "A Son" to him, but he is actually "A Son" because he has come to ~~see~~ God through Jesus Christ.

When Dr. Wilbur Chapman tells of a time in one of his evangelistic services a man stood up to give his testimony. He said, "I got off ~~the~~ at the Pennsylvania depot as a tramp. For a year I begged on the streets for a ~~living~~ living. One day I touched a man on the shoulder and said, 'Mister, please give me a dime.' 'As soon as I saw his face, I recognized my father. 'Father, don't you know me?' I asked. Throwing his arms around me, he cried, 'I have found you; all I have is yours.' The man said to the people in that service, 'Men, think of it, that I a tramp, stood begging my father for ten cents, when for eighteen years he had been looking for me to give me all he ~~xxxxxxx~~ was worth!' "

So the heavenly Father is waiting for each one to come to Him and give them all that He has. The clear, accurate picture of A Christian, is that of being "A Son." Of being His child through Jesus Christ.

"Christian Pictures: A Soldier"

Scripture: 2 Timothy 2:3-4

(Illustration of Australia failing to build ships during World War I)

When World War I broke out, the leaders of Australia offered to do what they could in support of Great Britain. They asked what was the most useful thing they could do, and the reply was, "Build us ships: we want ships."

But the Australians were not ship builders, so they decided to do the next best thing which they could do, and they planted grain. They tilled all available fields, sowed seed and reaped the harvest to send to England. The grain was gathered ~~into~~ put into sacks and transported to the docks to await the ships from England to transport it to England. But the ships never came, because England didn't have the ships to spare. The grain sat stored on the docks and the mice began to get into it. The mice then went into towns and villages carrying their diseases with them, and one particular disease which attacked the eyes of many and blinded some.

And all the time Great Britain was crying for, "Ships! ships! ships!"

This is a part of what Paul was warning Timothy about. ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ Paul is painting in this picture of a Christian the portrait of the Christian as "A Soldier" is being painted on the canvas of life. Paul's words were, "Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ," verse 3.

Paul is saying one basic thing and that is "Be disciplined." Those of us who were in the service ~~from~~ in prior years can well remember what discipline meant. Discipline took on the form of a certain kind of haircut, no beards, no mustaches, no questioning of commands, and so on. Because of our so called, "Rights" and "freedoms" many of those disciplines are now a thing of the past. I have a relative who joined the service and because he was not given the job supposedly promised to him by the recruiter he went A.W.O.L. He was arrested, taken back to the base, stood trial and was given a very light sentence. He went A.W.O.L. again and ~~xxx~~ when he was arrested again he was discharged from the service. Discipline for him was simply if you don't get what you want, misbehave and you will be released from all obligations includin that of being of service to your country.

A mother brought her young son to the dentist. He was brought into the dentist's office and told to get up in the chair. He looked at the dentist and said, "No, and if you make me do it I'll take off all my clothes." The dentist said, "Go right ahead." At this the boy took off his shirt and his trousers, and the dentist said, "OK, now get up in the chair." He said, "No, and if you make me, I'm going to take off the rest of my clothes." "Go ahead," the dentist said again, and off came his shoes and socks. "Now get up in the chair," the dentist said. But again the boy said, "If you make me get in that chair, I'll take off my underwear." "Go ahead," the dentist said, and sure enough the boy took off his shorts. "Now, get up in that chair," the dentist commanded, and the naked little boy climbed up in the chair. The dentist scooped up the boy's clothes and put them in a closet. Then he worked on the boy's teeth while he sat still and quiet. When he was finished the dentist said, "Now you can go." The boy said, "But I can't go without my clothes." "No" the dentist said. "When we take away clothes here, we don't return them until the next visit." At this the little boy broke into tears and ran out into the ~~waiting room~~ crowded waiting room to his mother. The dentist expected the mother to storm into his office and demand the boy's clothes, but she didn't. At the next visit the little boy climbed up into the chair and didn't make a sound. When it was time for him to go, the boy's mother came into the office, and said to the dentist, "I want to thank you for what you have done. He has been threatening to remove his clothing in public everytime he didn't get his own way, and we didn't know how to handle it. But ever since you called his bluff, he's been perfectly obedient."

Paul knew that a soldier was not supposed to go into a temper tantrum whenever he had to do something he didn't like. And he knew that discipline whether it was in the army, or in the work of the church was a necessary ingredient ~~sixth~~ in the life of the individual. And he knew that it was discipline which produced the hardness to endure whatever came the soldier's way. The Greek word for hardness has the meaning of "enduring hardship, suffering affliction or suffering trouble." Jesus was the example for all followers of Him. It was the prophet Isaiah who prophesied of Jesus long years before He came on the scene, "He was oppressed, and He was afflicted, yet he opened not His mouth: He is brought a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so He openeth not His mouth," Isaiah 53:7.

Paul is exhorting Timothy and every follower of Jesus Christ to be just like Him. And to be like Him requires discipline! It is a discipline that cannot be understood outside of, or apart from Christianity. Only those who are truly committed to Him have an idea what is expected of them as followers of Him.

It is then in this "Christian Picture" that Paul gives the remaining requirements of "A Soldier." In the 4th verse he writes, "No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier," verse 4.

There is within Scripture a good example of just such a soldier. It is found in the book of 2nd Samuel. Ironically, it is found in chapter 11. We know of chapter 11, in our society today as signifying bankruptcy and it is in this chapter that we read of the spiritual bankruptcy of King David. Now you may have never thought of Uriah in the light of exemplifying what Paul was writing to Timothy about in this Scripture of this morning. But I submit to you that it is precisely what Paul was talking about.

Now we all know about David's adulterous relationship with Uriah's wife Bathsheba and the results of it. We are not going to go into those details again. Instead, we are going to look at the soldier Uriah. David has been told by Bathsheba that she is going to have his child. David, seeking to cover this up thinks of a way in which he could do this. He hits upon the plan of simply recalling Uriah from the front where he is serving in David's army. So it is that we read in the 6th and 7th verses, (read these). Having now dispensed with formalities, and putting Uriah at ease, David now says to him, "Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet," verse 8A.

This ~~is~~ was a saying much like someone would say today, "I'm going to unwind." It meant to relax and spend time at home. But we read of Uriah, "And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of meat from the king. But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of ~~the~~ his lord, and went not down to his house," verse 8B-9.

David had sought to do everything within his power to make sure that Uriah went home to his wife. But Uriah did not. "And when they had told David, saying, 'Uriah went not unto his house,' David said unto Uriah, 'Camest thou not from thy journey? Why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?'" verse 10.

David is disturbed because things are not falling into place as he thought they would.

"And Uriah said unto David, 'The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.'" verse 11.

David accepts what Uriah tells him, knowing that Uriah is being true to his role as one of his soldiers. So he takes another tack to get his plan accomplished. He tells him, (read verse 12.

So it is then that we read: "And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of ~~the~~ his lord, but went not down to his house," verse 13.

It is then that David saw he wasn't going to be able to pull this off, so he plotted to have Uriah killed in battle, and ~~just~~ perhaps no one would recall that Uriah didn't do to his house to spend an evening or two with his wife, and when the baby was born people would possibly believe it was Uriah's. But what underlies this Scripture is the loyalty, and dedication and devotion to duty of the soldier Uriah. He didn't go to his house because when soldiers were engaged in battle as Uriah was, they were not supposed to go near any women lest they would expend their physical strength which was to be exerted for the kingdom. To prevent this, Uriah didn't go home. But he was also proving his loyalty to his King by his actions. David expected this kind of obedience and loyalty from his soldiers, but he sought to have one of them act disloyally, and his plot failed. And this is exactly what Paul was writing when he said, "No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier."

Uriah sought to please his master who had chosen him to be a soldier and he didn't entangle himself in the affairs of civilian life because he believed that he was still on duty.

(Illustration of John and "Bob" - dog and master, and monument to the dog)

John and Bob were inseparable friends. In 1858 when John died suddenly, Bob was heart-broken. From the time of the funeral Bob would not leave the churchyard where he was buried. Even when he could be coaxed into a warm home for food and fellowship, he stayed only long enough to take care of that need, but always returned very quickly to the churchyard again. So it was until in 1872, Bob's lifeless body was found lying at his friend's graveside and he was buried near John. Today, in front of Candlemaker's Hall in Edinburgh, Scotland, there is a fountain dedicated to the faithfulness and tenacious love of ~~John Gray's friend~~ John Gray's friend, a little Skye terrier named Bob.

True, this is the love of a dumb animal for a human. But that dog loved his master above all else. The example we can take from this is that as creations of God who can reason and think, our love for our Master should be every bit as strong. Like Uriah, we should serve our Master to the exclusion of our comfort and well being. This is exactly what Paul was saying in painting this picture of "A Soldier." God as our Commander-in-chief calls us to be obedient and faithful. If we have not acknowledged Him as Lord and Savior that must be our first step. But if we have then we need to look at our lives to compare how faithful we have been. If we have backslidden, then perhaps this morning we need to answer the invitation and rededicate our lives to disentangle ourselves from the affairs of this life in order to please Him who has chosen us to be "A Soldier." Will you answer His challenge to lead a new and righteous life today? Will you report for duty and be faithful as He desires? Will you accept His invitation today?

"Christian Pictures: An Athlete"

Scripture: 2 Timothy 2:5

(Illustration of those who overcame handicaps)

If a man is determined, what can stop him?

Take a man and:

Cripple him and you have a Sir Walter Scott
Blind her and you have a Fanny Crosby
Put him in prison and you have a John Bunyan
Bury him in the snows of Valley Forge and you have a George Washington
Have him born in abject poverty and you have an Abraham Lincoln
Afflict him with asthma until as a boy he lies choking in his father's arms and you have a Theodore Roosevelt
Stab him with rheumatic pains until for years he cannot sleep without an opiate and you have a Charles Steinmetz
Put him in the grease pit of a locomotive roundhouse and you have a Walter Chrysler Make him a second fiddle in an obscure South American orchestra and you have a Toscanini

None of these men were world renowned athletes, but each ~~ix~~ possessed the qualities needed to enter any contest. Paul has painted a picture of "A Son," and a picture of "A Soldier." Now he speaks to Timothy and paints on the canvas of life a portrait of "An Athlete." He doesn't go into detail here, all he says is, "And if a man strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned except he strive lawfully." verse 5.

"And if a man also strive for masteries," is how Paul begins to speak of an athlete. In some of his other letters he referred to life as being a race. And he compared that race to athletes competing in it. In his 1st letter to the Corinthians in chapter 9, verse 24 he says, READ this verse). This compares to what he is telling Timothy, "If a man also strive for masteries." Or, "If a man desires to be ~~an~~ Athlete," he must run to "obtain" or to win. There is no point in running the race if you only expect to be an also-ran. If you run, you must put everything you have into it and run to win. To "strive for masteries" as Paul puts it requires the word we used for Soldiers last week and that word is "Discipline." But ~~with~~ ~~xxxx~~ discipline can only come forth after a period of training.

The strong man at the circus gave a demonstration of his strength by squeezing an orange to pulp, then offered a reward to anybody who get another drop of juice out of it. A small, very thin, weak looking older man stepped up, took the orange, squeezed it, and out came several more drops of juice. The circus strong man was astonished and he asked the man how he could ~~xxxxxx~~ perform such a feat. He said, "I'm experienced at this sort of thing. I've been a church treasurer for 30 years."

In 1972 Jim Ryun was picked as the winner of the 1500 meter race at the Olympics held in Munich, West Germany. There were only 500 meters left to run when a runner from Pakistan swerved into Ryun and made contact with Ryun's feet. The contact with Ryun made Ryun fall and in doing so he bumped into a runner from Ghana knocking him down. By the time the two fallen runners came out of their daze, they realized all of the other runners were ahead of them. The runner from Ghana threw up his hands in disgust and walked off the track. But not Jim Ryun. He knew that he wouldn't win the race, but he picked himself up and stunned, and injured he finished the race, placing ninth in the race.

(Illustration of Jim Ryun's training to run)

Jim Ryun tried out for the track team in high school when he was a freshman, but he was too frail. He tried out again in his sophomore year and convinced the track coach that he had possibilities. The coach decided to put him on a rigorous training schedule. So after he had delivered all of his morning runs each morning, he would run six miles regardless of the weather. Then in the evening he would run some more. Early risers saw this lonely figure running across the prairies in the outskirts of Wichita, and they shook their heads in puzzlement. His parents thought he would hurt himself physically because he took his track so seriously. He would actually vomit after every race, and would come home at night and flop into bed without eating. Because of this self-disciplined training, Jim Ryun became the world's fastest mile runner.

Paul is saying to Timothy, in fact, to all who would be Christians, to train for the Christian life. He knew full well that believers would run up against strong opposition in their daily walk and in order to be the Athlete God wants us to be, we need to be trained. Our training comes through seeking the things of God. That means reading and studying His Word. It means attending church and worshipping Him with like believers. It means serving wherever, and whenever He calls us to serve. And it means being in touch with God through constant prayer. If we as believers are seeking to grow in our faith daily, we must do as any Athlete would do, and that is to keep in tip top shape and that involves the use of God's Word, church, ~~prayer~~ service, and prayer.

But Paul makes a rather strong point by adding, "Yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully."

He is saying that the Athlete cannot expect to be in competition for the crown, unless he is doing everything according to the book. That means keeping the rules and regulations with no desire to use any means or method which would give the Athlete what has been called, "a competitive edge." In every sport there are those who seek to win at any cost. The old standby used is the reply, "whatever it takes." That may mean in boxing to poke a thumb in the opponents eye; or in baseball to deliberately slide into the second baseman with intent to injure him; or in football to maim the quarterback, or twist someone's leg or arm in a pileup. These tricks have been used for years, but today we have a very subtle trick that has reached epidemic proportions.

(Illustration of Ben Johnson, 1988 Olympic runner and steroids)

Last year, 1988 the whole world cheered a Canadian runner who blazed his way to an Olympic gold medal. But then the world gasped when it was discovered that he was using the so called "competitive edge" by taking steroids. His medal was stripped from him in disgrace and rightly so.

Paul writes that such "An Athlete should not be crowned because he has not strived lawfully. Paul was saying that a true Athlete, one who is striving to be the victor in the race, is one who is continually taking the discipline necessary for the preparation and he is also continually bearing the conflict involved in the race. But that discipline involves never trying to have an advantage over anyone else that is wrong or illegal.

But there is also involved in the running of the race, the discipline of the desire to keep on running even after defeat, or loss of the crown.

You may have heard of Kathy Ormsby who was a student at North Carolina State in 1986. She was in pre-med, on the dean's list and in April of 1986 set an American Collegiate record ~~xxxxxxx~~ for the 10,000 meter race. She had qualified for the 3,000, 5,000, and 10,000 NCAA championships in Indianapolis in June of that year. Everything was going right for this 21 year-old college junior.

The day of the race in the 10,000 meter run she quit at 6,500 meters, left the stadium and jogged to a bridge two blocks away, and jumped. She fell 40 or 50 feet. Now, she is paralyzed from the chest down. Kathy Crmsby will never run again.

What made a girl like Kathy seek to end her life? There is no logical answer, but one thing is certain, and that is somehow or other she didn't have the stick-to-itiveness needed to continue running the race regardless of winning or losing. But in that same year, 1986, in November, a 40 year-old man from California finished the New York City marathon as the 19,413th and final finisher. But his story is unique.

The man's name is Bob Wieland and when he crossed that finish line on November 6, 1986, he was the first man to run a marathon with his arms instead of his legs. His legs were blown off in Viet Nam. He sits on a 15 pound saddle and using his muscular arms like crutch lifts his torso to swing it forward. ~~Max finished the xxxxxxxx marathon~~ ~~xxxxxxx~~ Bob starts at 8:23 A.M. Sunday, more than 2 hours before anyone else. His average speed is about 1 mile per hour. The man who won the race, ran the entire race in the time it took Bob Wieland to cross the Verranzano Bridge. Race officials say he recorded the slowest time ever run in a marathon history. It took him 4 days, 2 hours, 48 minutes, 17 seconds.

Asked why he did it, he said for the same reason 20,000 others did it. But he had 3 specific reasons; to test his conditioning, to promote the president's Council on physical fitness, and to show his born-again Christian faith.

It was Paul who talked about running the race as "An Athlete" should. But Paul not only talked a good race, he ran one. He wrote to Timothy in the 4th chapter of this 2nd letter, and in the 7th verse states, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

And he adds in the 8th verse, "Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing."

Paul doesn't say like Frank Sinatra, "I Did It My Way." He says, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

He did all that God asked him to do as he was able. And now he was ready to meet His God.

What can we say about the course we have been running? Has it been according to God's plan, or has it been according to ours? Are we keeping on at keeping on? Or are we ~~we are~~ ~~planning~~ because we are letting the world dictate our race? God is asking us to evaluate the race He has set before us. He invites us to run the race in His strength, in His ~~mx~~ power, and to do it with courage and faith. Will you accept that challenge today?

"Christian Pictures: A Farmer"

Scripture: 2 Timothy 2:6

I must confess that this morning's topic is not one that I can truthfully say I know an awful lot about. Being born and raised in the city, farming has never been a subject I know too well. The old saying is, "You can take the boy out of the city, but you can't take the city out of the boy," and I'm probably a testimony to that fact. I must admit that I'm somewhat like the city slicker who asked the farmer, "Please tell me how long cows should be milked?" And the farmer answered, "The same as short ones." But if there is one consolation in this topic of farming, I think it is that Paul wasn't too informed on farming either.

In this picture he is painting of a Christian as "A Farmer," he doesn't say anything pertaining to how farming is done. All that he says is, "The husbandman that laboreth must be first partaker of the fruits."

That is talking about ~~xxx~~ perhaps the best part of farming and that is the reaping; the taking out of the field the produce that has come forth. Now anyone, including me, knows that in order to have a crop of any kind, you must first plant it. But before you plant the seed, the ground needs to be prepared. But even though Paul does not state those things here, it is implied. How else could a "Farmer" or, "husbandman" as he is called here, take his share of the crops if he didn't ~~plant~~ work and plant the field? But Paul does instruct Timothy in another chapter of this letter, and he tells the people in the Church in Galatia. In the 6th chapter we read of this. To understand what Paul is trying to get across as his message, we need to note that Paul thought of a Christian as first "A Son," then as "A Soldier," then as "An Athlete," and now as "A Farmer." The Christian is to be the embodiment of all of these things. He is to possess the attributes of A Son, A Soldier, An Athlete, and A Farmer. To do so requires in each instance preparation. And although Paul does not spell this out in this 6th verse it is implied because it is impossible to have a crop come forth without first planting it. Even a city boy like me knows that.

It is in the 4th chapter of this same letter that Paul tells Timothy, in verse 2, "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine."

The preparation of the soil for planting is very important. If it is a field that has never been planted before the trees and shrubs must be removed; then the stumps and large stones. Then it must be plowed and fertilized and cultivated. All of this before the seed can be sown. The Christian here is pictured as A Farmer and the seed he sows is God's Word, His message of salvation. Paul was telling Timothy to work on the hearts of those who do not know this message. This must be done regardless of the season, regardless what the weather. There is a crop to be planted and the soil must be prepared.

A farmer had a son who wanted to learn to be a farmer just like his Dad. So his Dad tried to show him everything he knew. In the spring he told his son that now that he was driving the tractor he would teach him to plow. He took him out to a field and he pointed to the field right next to this one and he said, "See how nice and straight those rows are?" The boy asked, "How do you get them so straight?" He answered, "What you have to do is to look to the horizon and pick out an object and steer right toward it. Then when you turn at the end of the row, pick out an object in the opposite direction and steer toward it. That way, your rows will be nice and straight." The boy said, "Well, I'll try Dad."

I know Sunday School teachers who are discouraged because a few or none of their pupils show up. Personal calls don't seem to improve the situation and these teachers are ready to quit. But we cannot give up. The weeds always seem to keep coming back. As we strive to nurture anyone in the faith we must be aware that Satan throws many roadblocks in our paths. But we just never know what may come forth in the life of just one person we are nurturing in the ~~fact~~ faith. We cannot, we dare not quit. We must keep on, keeping on fighting the weeds. This is what Paul is saying when he tells Timothy, "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine."

Paul states a truth in this verse that is the privilege every ~~farm~~ farmer has. He says, "The husbandman that laboreth must be first partaker of the fruits."

In other words, the farmer gets to be the first to share with himself and his family from the crop that comes forth. The Christian is to see himself in this same way.

Years ago Chinese farmers decided they would eat the big potatoes and plant small ones for seed. But they learned something through the years that followed. By doing this it reduced the size of the potatoes to marbles. They learned they could not keep the best things of life for themselves and use the leftovers for seed.

But today we all know that too many Christians are still planting small potatoes and this is why so little is being done for Christ today. When we give the big potatoes to Him, He will always open the windows of heaven and pour out His blessings. This is what Paul was saying in this verse. The meaning is that we have been recipients of the firstfruits, which is Jesus Himself, the firstfruits from the dead. We have received forgiveness of sins and the resurrection to eternal life through Him. We in turn are to take ~~these~~ these gifts and share them with others.

An American tells of a time when he arrived in Austria very late at night. He didn't know exactly where he was, didn't know how to get to where he was going, was hungry, tired and didn't have any money. His friends were to meet him here in Vienna, but he had missed them. He was standing in this street car station leaning against a pole when this little old wrinkled woman came up to him. She was a cleaning lady and it was her job to sweep out the station. She asked him if he was hungry and before he could answer, took her lunch from a brown paper bag and offered him half. He said that she had not only helped his hunger, but had lifted his sagging spirit in an unforgettable way. He said he could never forget her. She talked to him for over an hour. He learned that her life had been very hard. She had been raised in the country and knew nothing but hard work on a farm. She lost her husband and two sons in the war and only her daughter had survived. But she said she was thankful for many things. He asked her why she had shared her lunch with him and she said, "Jesu ist mein Herr. Gott ist gut." (Jesus is my Lord, God is good.) She understood and lived the story of Jesus in a way that most sophisticated scholars could never do. He asked himself, "Who was it I really met that night in Vienna?"

We met someone who showed him Jesus Christ in her life. Who do people meet when they meet one of us? Do they see Jesus Christ? Are they looking into His face? Are they seeing the firstfruits that we are gladly and willingly sharing? Each picture of a Christian that Paul paints shows a different aspect of a Christian's makeup. But in each one the picture should always show others a reflection ^{of} the Savior from that life. Can we say that is where we are today? And if not, what are we going to do to change that picture?

"Christian Pictures: A Workman"

Scripture: 2 Timothy 2:15

(Illustration of schoolboy and the "Good old days")

A father tells of the time his son came home from school on the day when school had closed for the summer. He bounced into the house, flung his bookbag in the corner and asked, "Dad, can you take me swimming?" His dad answered, "Yes, if you can be ready in five minutes because I've got an appointment."

He was down the stairs and out of the house in less than five minutes with a towel flung around his neck. When he got to the car he stopped, and opening his arms wide as though he was embracing the world, said, "Now Dad, for the good old days."

His father said this made him think because most people look back on their lives and say, "Those were the good old days." But not this twelve-year-old. He was not looking back, nor ahead, but only at the present, the moment of here and now. And he was right. Isn't the present, the moment now, the only thing we actually have? Can't we all say, "Now for the good old days," and mean the very moments we are living now?

It was Bishop Polycarp one of the early Christian martyrs of the church who said in AD 155, "My God, in what a generation You have ~~placated~~ caused me to live."

These are the days in which our best energies are demanded, our finest talents asked for, and the expert management of our time required. Because of this we could be like the little boy who loved molasses and was always stiking his finger in the barrel sitting on his back porch. One day, leaning over the barrel he fell in and the molasses was over his head. As he slowly starting sinking into the ~~molasses~~ thick mountain delicacy he was headr to pray, "Lord, make me equal to the opportunity now at hand."

This ~~may be an~~ oversimplification of what Paul was tryin to paint in this picture of a Christian as "A Workman." Let's look at how Paul spells out the living of the "Good old days," in this verse.

Paul begins by saying, "Study," verse 15A. The word study as we know it is too limited in this context. What Paul is really saying is for Timothy "to make every effort, to be earnest to be diligent," in his Christian walk. ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~

Next, Paul says, "Study to shew thyself." The word "shew" means, "to stand beside, to exhibit to be at, to be handy, ready, prove." ~~So the verse would read up to this point, "Make every effort to exhibit and prove thyself."~~ But for what reason? Paul adds, "Approved unto God." The word "approved" means, "tried, accepted, communicated by teaching." So the verse would read up to this point, "Make every effort to exhibit and prove yourself as tried, ~~accepted~~ and ~~xx~~ and accepted by God."

The picture painted for Timothy and all believers is thus far of one who is to be all that God wants him to be. It is at this point then that Paul reveals what the Christian is to be like and it is simply, "A Workman." Is this what God really wants each of us to be? There may be many Christians who look at this and sort of turn up the nose at the very idea of being a common workman. But this is exactly what Paul is saying. He is speaking of a "Toiler, a teacher, a laborer," which in his time were all pretty much on the same level. But can't you hear somebody saying, "Me, a common toiler, or laborer. I have more talent than that. My job should be to give orders. I'm more in the management category and not a blue collar worker." But that is where the call to be a Christian takes on a different aspect from the ways of the world.

Back in the days of the stagecoach a man was going on a journey and applied for a ticket. He was ~~asked~~ asked whether he wanted first class, second class, or third class. ~~He~~ As far as he could see all the seats were alike to him so he bought a third class ticket. Everything seemed to be going well for a while and he was congratulating himself on saving himself some money. But then the stagecoach stopped and the driver ~~shouted~~ shouted, "All first class passengers keep your seats, second and third class passengers get out." When the man got out he saw that they had come to a very steep hill and just as he was wondering what was going to happen, the driver shouted, "Now all second class passengers walk beside the coach, and all third class passengers push from behind."

What is needed in the church today is more third class passengers - those who are willing to get out and push. We have enough of the first class passengers who are content to sit and look while others are working; and not second class passengers who are willing to walk away when the real work begins; but third class passengers who are willing to do the work of the kingdom. Jesus said that those who really wanted to be His needed to be workers like Him.

A group of reporters were being shown around a leper hospital. They saw the work being done there by committed Christian doctors, nurses and helpers. One reporter stopped to watch a nurse change the bandage on the leprous arm of a patient. The wound was oozing and it was a ~~horrible~~ horrible sight. He said to the nurse, "I wouldn't do that for a million dollars." And the nurse answered, "Neither would I."

Are we willing to stoop to the menial tasks of the kingdom and count our labor as joy to serve our Lord?

Paul says that this workman should be so approved by God, "that he needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

And the remainder of the verse means exactly what it says. To be unashamed means simply to have no embarrassment about the work or labor the workman is doing for the Lord.

The word "rightly" means, "In a straight manner." It is thought of as a plowman, plowing a straight furrow. There's the farmer again! And the story of the son learning how to plow straight rows would apply here as it did last week when we looked at the picture of A Farmer. The word "Dividing" is added to the word "rightly" and it also means to dissect in a straight manner. Thus "Rightly dividing" means to cut through something in a straight line."

The "Word of Truth" is God's Word. The Christian as "A Workman" is to ~~know~~ know God's Word and to use it not only for his life, but for the lives of others. He is to be at work in his part of God's kingdom doing and being for the Lord. And that is actually the definition of what a Christian workman is. The Wycliffe Bible Dictionary states it is the, "Maintenance and productivity to maintain one's being." We live and move, and have our being in the Lord.

During the peak of World War II a group of coal miners came to Winston Churchill. They discouraged working at their seeming unimportant occupation and demanded that they be permitted to volunteer and go to the front and fight. The next day a meeting was arranged and Churchill addressed the 4000 miners in attendance. He said, "Gentlemen, they say that Hitler is coming and that he has 100,000 men on the sea, 100,000 On the land, and 100,000 men in the air. But I say to you that one day we are going to be victorious in this matter and one day we will walk down the streets of London in victory and I will say to a young soldier, 'Where were you in Britain's finest hour?' And he will answer, 'I was in the trench with my rifle fulfilling my responsibility, doing my part for my country.'"

And I will say to a wife and mother, 'Where were you in Britain's finest hour?' She will say, 'I was in a hospital caring for the wounded, fulfilling my responsibility and doing my part for my country. And I will ask some of you, where you were during Britain's finest hour and you will say, 'I was down in the pit of the mine with my face against the face of the coal, fulfilling my responsibility, doing my part for my country.'"

And likewise, when God calls us home at the end of this ^{life} and were to ask us to tell Him what we did during this lifetime He gave us, will we be able to say, 'I was at the tasks You gave me, fulfilling my responsibility and serving where You placed me.' This is the essence of what Paul was saying when he painted this picture of a Christian as "A Workman."

"Make every effort to exhibit and prove yourself as tried and accepted by God, ~~anxious~~ a common toiler, a laborer that doesn't need to be ashamed, who like a farmer can plow in a straight line, and dissect in a straight manner the truth of God's Word. That in a paraphrase is what a Christian Workman is to be.

~~xxx~~ Can you see yourself in this picture as you live your life day by day? Will you answer God's call to be "A Workman" for Him?

"Christian Pictures: A Vessel"

Scripture: 2 Timothy 2:20-21

Recently I was in a room which had two pictures on the wall. They were paintings of large earthenware vases. One had some flowers in it and the other was empty with the flowers beside it. Now I'm sure that many of you ~~xxxxxx~~ probably share my lack of enthusiasm for paintings such as these. But someone thought it of value and so he or she painted it. This past week I was served a meal on absolutely plain dishes. The plate, cup and saucer looked like the pottery which is made in Mexico. Although ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ you wouldn't find this exquisite pattern in the finest restaurants, that china served its purpose. The plate held the food, and the cup held the coffee and after I started to eat I never noticed the vessel which held my food and drink.

This is ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ a portion of what Paul was trying to say in our Scripture for this morning. With the exception that he is pointing out the vessel is visible and how it looks and is makes an impression. Paul states, "But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honor and some to dishonor," verse 20.

The allusion here is to the home of someone who is wealthy and living in a mansion. Within that house are dishes which are used by the family which may be made of gold or silver. But in the servants quarters you will find dishes of wood and clay, or earthen dishes. Naturally the good dishes would be reserved for the exclusive use of the family, while the dishes of wood or clay would be used by the servants. But some of those wooden and clay vessels would be used for various purposes around the house. Naturally, you would not use the wooden or clay vessels which are used to hold cleaning solutions to hold food or drink. That is the meaning of some vessels being used "to honor and some to dishonor."

But when Paul speaks of a "Great house," he is alluding to the church. Within the Church are the faithful and the unfaithful. There are those who stand out like gold and silver. They are of much value to the ongoing ministry of the church; it is they who do much for the kingdom. Then there are those who are like wood and clay. They are common, ordinary, perhaps not much in the world's eyes, but to the Lord they are the ones who are willing to stoop to the menial tasks and do not flinch from the common ordinary things which must be done. But the comparison between gold and silver and wood and clay can also be made that the precious metals denote all of those who are faithful within the church regardless of their station in life. And the wood and clay are those who are just members and nothing in or about the church changes them, or will change them. Within the church there will always be those who are of much value to the Lord and those who are of little or no value. What Paul is saying here is actually a continuation of the advice he ~~xxx~~ had given in the the 16th through the 18th verses. If you look at those verses you see that Paul exhorts Timothy and believers ~~to~~, "But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness. And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus; who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some."

The two men whom Paul mentions were Gnostics who believed that there was no resurrection and within the church they were spreading their lies and unbelief. We need to be alert always within the church that what we preach and teach, and what we believe squares with God's Word. That is the duty of each one of us because within the church of Jesus Christ today there are those who are like Hymenaeus and Philetus.

An Arlington, Virginia minister said, "We have closed our minds to such trivial considerations as the question of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. If you fundamentalists wish to believe that nonsense we have no objections, but we have more important things to preach than the presence or absence of an empty tomb 20 centuries old."

What would the Apostle Paul tell us today in our 20th century? His advice would be, "Shun profane and vain babblings; for they will increase unto more ungodliness."

But are congregations with such heretical preaching standing against it and throwing out those who preach or teach in this manner? For the most part no. And these people are having their influence spread throughout the church of Jesus Christ. It is important what we preach and what we believe. Paul's advice in this picture of a Christian is, "If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honor, sanctified and meet for the Master's use and prepared unto every good work." verse 21.

Paul himself had been one such as Hymenaeus and Philetus. He knew what he was talking about. But he answered God's call and was changed from a vessel of wood or clay to a vessel of gold or silver. He says that anyone can make that change and become a "Vessel of honor, sanctified." That means, "Holy, set apart." That's what God desires from each of us.

There are two teachings that Jesus gave which reflect this entire idea of a Christian picture as "A Vessel," to be used for the Lord.

These two teachings are found in the Gospel of Matthew. The first is found in the 13th chapter of Matthew beginning at the 48th verse. This is one of His short parables, but it explains this thought of Paul's more fully.

Jesus said, "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind; which when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away."

What Jesus is saying is that like a net cast into the sea, it gathers both good and bad fish. The fish in the net cannot be determined until the net is brought up out of the water and the sorting begins. The church, gathers both the good and the bad, the vessels of gold and silver and wood and clay. But only when the Lord judges His church and people will it be discovered who was the good vessel, and who was the bad. Jesus said, "So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth and sever the wicked from among the just, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth."

There will be a judgement day at the end of everything and everyone good and bad will have a chance to stand before their Maker, Almighty God. It is then that it will be revealed what kind of vessels we were when we lived here on earth.

The second lesson Jesus taught which relates to what Paul is saying here is found in the 23rd chapter of Matthew. It is in this chapter that Jesus takes the Scribes and the Pharisees to task. These were the religious leaders of the Jews. And make no mistake about it, they were good men. But they were so bent on observing the complete letter of the Law that they missed the whole point of the Law. Beginning at the 23rd verse Jesus says to them, (read verses 23 through 28). Here, Jesus is making clear that the implied religiosity of these men is strictly external. They sought to keep the smallest detail of the Law and taught that this is what everyone was supposed to do.

(Illustration of Gordon Avery and cup in restaurant in Jerusalem)

A friend of mine who is a minister told me of being in Jerusalem on Saturday, the Jewish Sabbath and stopping at a Kosher restaurant for a cup of coffee. (I can't understand why this restaurant was even open on their Sabbath if the owner was such a devout Jew as he claimed, but since then the regulations have become more strict and most of Jerusalem businesses are now closed on their Sabbath.) Everything would have been fine, but he insisted on ruining his coffee by putting cream and sugar in it. The waiter told him that he could not give him cream since that would defile the china since it involved mixing a dairy product in a cup which was not to be used for dairy products. One of the ladies on the tour said, "That's all right Pastor, I have some non-dairy creamer I can give you." So he took the non-dairy creamer and put it in his coffee and the waiter became furious. He informed Gordon that he would now be required to throw that cup and saucer out.

This is the kind of dishonesty that Jesus was getting at. ~~It isn't a matter~~ It isn't a matter of just maintaining the a part of the Law but secretly avoiding a part of it. It is truth completely and fully. It is somewhat like the sign that appeared in the window of a store in New York City. The sign read, "Don't be fooled by imitators who claim to be going out of business. We have been going out of business longer than anyone on this block."

Paul was merely saying in another way ~~what Jesus~~ to the Church what Jesus was saying to the organized religion of His day. The same principle applied and that was and is to be what you are supposed to be. If you claim to be a Christian, be one.

(Illustration of preacher and people of congregation in lumber mill stealing logs)

A young preacher was called to his first congregation. The church was a small one and composed entirely of the population of a small logging town. Everyone in town worked for the lumber mill which was its only business and was involved in fierce competition with the mill upstream. The preacher was taking a walk through the woods one day and saw workers at the town mill pulling logs out of the stream, cutting off the branded ends, and running them through their own mill. The preacher was very disturbed by this and worked all week on a powerful sermon. That Sunday he preached on, "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's property." The sermon seemed to go very well. Everyone told him as they left church how much they liked his preaching. But the next day he went for another walk and saw sadly that it was business as usual at the mill. They were still stealing logs. So the next Sunday he preached an equally powerful sermon on, "Thou shalt not steal." "Fantastic!" the people told him. They all said it was wonderful how he preached. But on Monday morning the other company's logs were still being stolen by the town mill. Enough was enough! There's only so much a man can take and then he's got to act and this time the young preacher determined his sermon would be no holds barred. That Sunday he got up and preached on the topic, "Thou shalt not cut the branded ends off someone else's logs" They ran him out of town.

It's not popular to preach that a Christian should be different from other people. Not in the sense that he has to be a radical or obnoxious. But a Christian is to be each of the things Paul paints as the total picture in this chapter. He is to be "A Vessel" from which and through which flows the evidence of not only faith in his Savior Jesus Christ, but that Christ may be evident in what he does and says.

What kind of vessel are you? Is the inside the same as the outside? Jesus invites us to be like Him! Let's accept that invitation today and this week seek to begin to be "A Vessel" for Him.

"The Attitude"

Scripture: Psalm 65

(Illustration of an optimist)

Someone has said an optimist is someone who has a 28-pound turkey for Thanksgiving and the next day asks, "What's for lunch?"

Someone else has said that when you eat Thanksgiving dinner out and the pie is included in the price of the meal, it's hard to decide whether to lose the money or gain the weight.

Thanksgiving is many things to many people. For instance, an incident is related from Thanksgiving Day of 1713:

(Illustration of Indian and bear shot on "Ye Lord's Day")

On that Thanksgiving Day in 1713, the governor of Connecticut and the king's commissioners were just preparing to dine when it was announced that the bear prepared for the occasion had been ~~xxx~~ as they said, "shot on ye Lord's Day." At that dismal news none would touch a bite of the roast bear until the Indian who had shot the animal should be whipped and made to pay the price of the meat. Then, having inflicted as it is recorded, "a just and righteous sentence on ye sinful heathen," the company fell upon the roast bear with clear conscience and left nothing but the bones.

Just what is Thanksgiving? Is it a special day? Or is it something we observe by decree? Thanksgiving is actually an Attitude. But what is "The Attitude?"

Let's look at this Psalm of David which is a song of Thanksgiving. Although all the Psalms are actual songs, this is one of those which is identified as not only a Psalm, but a song. The Psalm is in three divisions. The first division is verses 1 through 4. ~~xxxx~~ The second is verses 5 through 8, and the third verses 9 through 13.

The season of the year when this was written was Spring. All nature had come alive; the flocks and herds were in the pastures; and the valleys were showing the signs of a bountiful harvest later in the year. David is reminded of the complete love of God toward His people and so he writes, (read verses 1 through 4). He is saying that because of God's immense love the people willingly give forth their praise. In the fourth verse he speaks of God selecting those whom He will. And with this selection, God makes it possible for the individual to approach God and come near to Him. David sums up his thoughts by writing at the end of the 4th verse, "We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Thy house, even of Thy holy temple," David began this verse with the word, "Blessed." And in Hebrew that word meant "Happy." Just as in the Beatitudes Jesus spoke of, "Blessed" and in Greek that meant "Happy," so in Hebrew it also meant "Happy." David is saying, "Happy is the man whom God admits into communion with Him." And with that happiness David has added, "We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Thy house." And the word "House" here has a very broad application and David is not just speaking of the temple, but of the Family in which the people of Israel found themselves. It was the family of God and he is saying simply that "We," those who are in that family, "shall be satisfied with the goodness of Thy House." Here is "The Attitude." What is that Attitude?

To give you the answer we need to look at another portion of Scripture found in the New Testament in the Gospel of Luke, chapter 17. Here in this Scripture Jesus is confronted by some men seeking healing. (Read verses 12 through 18). What is "The Attitude" of Thanks-

(Illustration of John Haggai and father preached on Sin, & the "Worst" Sin)

John Haggai is a minister and his father was a minister before him. He tells of a time when he was a boy and his father was preaching a series of sermons on Sin. He announced that on a certain date which was several weeks away he was going to preach on what was the "Worst Sin." People pressed him for the answer but he only told them to be in the worship service that day. Up to that time people were speculating, "Was it murder?2 , or was it blasphemy against the Holy Spirit?", or "Idols?", or just what? On that Sunday everyone waited in expectation as Rev. Haggai began his sermon. He started by saying, "The Worst Sin is"----- and everyone waited for the next words. "The Worst Sin," he repeated, "Is Ingratitude." People gasped, because they had never thought of that as being the worst sin.

But think of it for a minute. What was it the 9 lepers showed after they were healed? It was Ingratitude. They didn't even acknowledge that they had been given a new lease on life. Where once they were complete outcasts in society, now they were acceptable and could go to the temple or just mingle with anyone. But it never crossed their minds to thank the one who made this possible.

Someone has rightly said, "If you want to find gratitude, look for it in the dictionary." How many times have you perhaps gone out of your way for someone, only to experience a heart of ingratitude?

(Illustration of King Alphonso XII and beggar at dinner)

There was once a good king in Spain named Alphonso XII. The king heard that the young pages in his court forgot to ask God's blessing upon their daily meals. So he determined that he would rebuke them. He arranged for a banquet to be held and they were all invited. The table was spread with every kind of good thing, and the boys ate with evident satisfaction. But not one of them had paused to ask God's blessing on the food.

During the feast a beggar entered the room. He was dirty and ill-clad. He seated himself at the royal table and ate and drank to his heart's content. When the beggar came in and sat down the pages were amazed. They looked at him and at the King, but the King never said a word. When the beggar had finished he rudely burped, got up and left without a word of thanks. Then the boys could keep silence no longer. "What a despicably mean fellow!" they cried. But the King silenced them, and in clear, calm tones he said, "Boys, bolder and more audacious than this beggar have you all been. Every day you sit down to a table supplied by the bounty of your Heavenly Father, yet you ask not His blessing, nor express to Him your gratitude!"

Do we express our Gratitude for all that He gives us, or has given us? "The Attitude Is Gratitude."

David then recounts the evidence of God's power to all of the earth. David writes in the 8th verse, "They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at Thy tokens," vs 8A. The tokens of God are the wonders of nature, lightning, thunder, these and others are tokens of God's power and majesty. But also God, "Makest the outgoings of the morning and evenings to rejoice," vs 8B. The sun rises out of the East and goes out to the West, and the sun sets in the West to go down and out until the next day. People the world over have been and are enthralled at sunrises and sunsets. They are a thing of exquisite beauty and they too are evidence of God's power and majesty.

It is then that David turns his thoughts to the abundance that God brings forth from the earth. He could probably look out of his house or palace wherever he wrote this song, and he was able to see the farmlands stretching out toward the horizon. He could see the plowed fields and think of how God was supplying rain and moisture to make the crops grow. All of this would come to a bountiful harvest and David sings out, "Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness; and Thy paths drop fatness," verse 11.

All of nature joined in with the singing of the people as he writes, "They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side. The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing," verses 12-13.

For all of this, "The Attitude" of Thanksgiving is Gratitude.

(Illustration of construction worker, six children, shoes, and family with crippled child)

A man by the name of Clarence Powell was a construction worker was laid off. He had six children and school was starting. Three of the children needed new shoes because their other shoes were completely worn out. He was wondering how he could get an extension on his credit to buy shoes for his children when his wife informed him that the washing machine was broken. It was now at the point where it needed replaced since it had been repaired so many times. He saw an ad in the paper and he called about it and went to the house where the washer was for sale. The house was of above average means and he felt a sense of envy when he walked up to the front door because it was evident the family living there had so much. When he was ushered into the kitchen where the washing machine was he saw the latest of everything including a brand new washer. ~~xxxx~~ They showed him the washer and he couldn't understand ~~xxx~~ why they bought a new one because this one was hardly used and they were not asking much for it. But he was elated that they were selling it so cheap and he began to tell them how pleased his wife would be to get it, and how they were sort of up against it at the time. He complained how his kids had worn out their shoes and how it was difficult to make ends meet. Then he said, "You must be very happy to live in a house like this."

When he said this, the woman bit her lip and her face grew pale. She gave a little sob and almost ran out of the room. He thought to himself, "Now what did I say wrong?" He turned to the husband and said, "I'm sorry. Did I say something wrong?" The husband just looked at him for a little while and then he said, "No, you didn't say anything wrong. You couldn't have known. We have just one little girl and she has never taken a step in her life. We would gladly give this entire house if she would just wear out one pair of shoes."

"The Attitude" of Thanksgiving is Gratitude. What are your problems when you compare them to others? How much do you have to be thankful for and to show Gratitude for? You may have a few aches and pains, but how does that compare with some illnesses that others have? You may ~~xxx~~ not have all the equipment or furnishings that many others have, but how much more do you have than a lot of others. And for all that you have, what are you returning to the Lord in gratitude for what He has given you? Paul wrote in 1st Corinthians 4:7, "Wherever it is given to us, it must be found faithful."

Faithfulness brings forth a sense of Thankfulness; and Thankfulness brings forth a sense of Gratitude. The Lord invites us to respond to what He has given us. And what we give, and how we give it determines what we think of the Lord. We had the opportunity to show that Attitude of Gratitude this morning. How did you respond? Did you give what you really could? Or was your giving with an attitude of "That's good enough," or, "Let others give their share and then I'll give mine? God knows our hearts and may this Thanksgiving be one in which we all see "The Attitude" of Thanksgiving is Gratitude.

"Christian Pictures: A Servant"

(Illustration of man weaving rug as seen from the wrong side)

A woman who was traveling in the East wanted to buy an oriental rug for her home. She looked in all of the ~~xxxxx~~ shops and then she came to a shop where a man was at work on a very colorful rug. She thought that this rug was just what she was looking for, but somehow it didn't look quite right to her. She told the man she thought it was beautiful but she was having difficulty making out the pattern if there was one. The man smiled and said, "If you will just wait a minute I will show you the design." After he tied a few threads together, he turned the rug over and there before her eyes was the beautiful design. He explained, "What you were looking at was the wrong side. In order for it to not unravel, the thread must all be tied together in the back, and on that side, the design cannot be made out.

This is precisely what Paul was writing in this Scripture. Taken piece by piece as we have looked at this painting, it doesn't look like much of a picture. But pieced together, piece by piece it all becomes a part of the whole. And thus we have the completed picture of what a Christian should be. Each of the six parts of the picture, pointed out a different aspect of the ~~ix~~ Christian's life.

Paul painted the Christian as "A Son, An Athlete, A Farmer, A Workman, A Vessel, and now he adds the final touches of paint to the canvas of life and portrays the Christian as "A Servant." In each part of the painting there are the different aspects which color the canvas. And each of those aspects blend into the entire painting to give it the finished look. The individual Christian believer is "A Son," because he has been born into the family of God; he is "An Athlete" because he runs the race set before him; he is "A Farmer" because he seeks to prepare the soil of others lives for planting and he seeks to sow the seeds of Christianity; he is "A Workman" because he isn't afraid to get his hands dirty being about the work of the Lord; he is "A Vessel" that is fit to contain the things of God; and now he is "A Servant."

The word "strive" here is used as meaning to not quarrel, or fight, or dispute. It goes back to the 20th verse where we read, (read this verse). The Great House you will remember is "The Church." The vessels within that house are the people, the individual members who make up that body. The vessels in the Great House are to be vessels to be used for honor. The servant is to be gentle, to everyone; he is to be apt to teach, which means he has learned what the faith is all about and he is able to pass that on to others; and he is to be patient. "A Servant" or a member of the church, which is what the servant is, cannot be or do these things unless he is involved and committed.

A woman attended a luncheon given by her good friend Runa. At the luncheon, Runa served a crab-meat casserole which everyone loved. Runa's best friend raved about the recipe and persuaded Runa to give it to her. Sometime late this woman was giving a luncheon and when Runa arrived she took her aside and told her, "Guess what Runa? I'm serving your gorgeous crab-meat casserole today. But she confided to her, "Since fresh crab meat wasn't available, I had to substitute canned tuna. And for the white sauce, I substituted mushroom soup, because it is easier. And the sherry and blanched almonds were omitted because I forgot to put them on my grocery list. So it was that moments later when she plunged a well planned, well prayed about program which any outsider could see was very much needed. They not only raised the $260,000, they exceeded it by over $6,000.

From this little incident I was able to see firsthand how Satan can cause division within the church and that division was being spread by well-intentioned good Christian people.

But they were not taking the time or making the effort to seek whose will they were following. What Paul is getting at here is a matter of choice. What is the choice of one who would be "A Servant" of the Lord? Is it to serve God, or is it to serve both God and the world?

Obviously, no one can serve two masters, which is a strong point Jesus made.

In 1839 two men graduated from Middlebury College. They were at the top of their class and so jointly they shared these honors together. Ironically, both of them had been born on the same day of the same year.

After graduation in a conversation between them the man named Foote asked his friend about the decision he had made to become a missionary. He asked, "Why bury yourself among the heathen?" The other man was R.G. Wilder who went as a missionary to India and worked there for 30 years. He preached in more than 3,000 cities and villages, gave out more than 3 million tracts, and gathered into schools over 3,300 children of whom 300 were girls. It was evident that Wilder had Christ. What of his friend named Foote? Foote chose to be a lawyer and rose rapidly in his profession. He amassed wealth and married a beautiful young woman. But in the midst of his prosperity death took his wife and daughter from him. Overcome with sorrow which he could not handle he blew his brains out. Who made the better choice?

We are faced with choices all of our lives. We are asked practically daily to make choices which serve the Lord, or serve Satan and the world. In each of these pictures which Paul has painted for us, giving us the ingredients of the total picture of a Christian, what are the choices we must make? Are we going to live for the Lord and be A Son, A Soldier, A Farmer, An Athlete, A Workman, A Vessel, and A Servant, as we should? Are we willing to make the necessary changes in our lives to bring that about? It's our choice! What will we choose?

the serving spoon into this casserole, she casually announced to the guests, "If this casserole isn't any good, don't blame me. Blame Ruma, this is her recipe."

This is somewhat how people either do or do not pass on the Christian life. As servants, we are to pass on the faith as it has been passed on to us. We don't need to alter it to suit our likes or dislikes. The faith is ours to share and that is why we should grow in it and through it enough that we can pass it on.

Paul also was aware that with the passing on of the faith there would be opposition and some times that opposition would come from the very least expected source, those within the "Great House," or, fellow-members. So that is why he wrote, "In meekness, instructing those that oppose themselves" verse 25A.

~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ He is saying that "A Servant" may run into opposition in seeking to teach, or instruct within the church, and if so he is to be mild, gentle, and in a state of humility deal with those who are in opposition. The ideal of this is that, "If God, peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth," verse 25B.

It just may be that with the humble, gentle teaching of "A Servant" within the church, perhaps God will move in the heart of those in opposition so they may see the truth and recognize it, and repent of their opposition and come over to the right side.

But that is only half of the task of "A Servant" of the Lord. This is because not only are there those within the church who come into opposition with things of the faith, they are this way because of a certain spiritual reason. Jesus spoke of this shortly before He was arrested as John the Apostle tells us. In the 16th chapter of the Gospel of John is recorded ~~the~~ some of the warnings of Jesus to His disciples. At the very end of that chapter in verse 33, we read, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

What Jesus was saying was that as a believer seeks to live for ~~the~~ God, he will be attacked for his beliefs. We are to know that Satan seeks to pull any and all believers from God. He attacks us in many different ways. Therefore, we are to understand that what Paul was painting as a picture of "A Servant," is summed up in the 26th verse of this Scripture. He writes, "And that they might recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will."

Not only will there be people within the church who will oppose what is being taught, but these people are blindly following the "Snare of the devil," as Paul puts it. Now knowingly no one within the church will seek to follow Satan's will. But as soon as we form an opinion about something within the congregation and put up opposition to it, do we pray about it to receive God's answer concerning that issue to question whether our opposition is proper or if the issue is of the Lord? The answer of course is "No!" Too often we think we know what is the proper moves to be made in the congregation and we neglect talking to the Lord about it and instead use our own wills and influence in opposition to the issue at hand.

Recently I was involved in a financial campaign put on by Chase Associates to raise money for a very strong evangelical congregation in Toledo, Ohio. The money to be raised was not for buildings, but for ~~capital~~ property improvements, and outreach programs of the church. The goal sought was $260,000. On some of the calls I made, speaking with those who ~~are~~ were supposedly the leaders of that congregation, their response was very definitely negative. They were saying loud and clear to anyone who would listen, "We are not for this campaign and we believe they will never reach the goal. They were in opposition to what had been

"The Three Whys: For What Purpose?"

(Illustration of "How Great Thou Art")

One summer day in 1886 at a ~~place~~ country place called Kroneback, Sweden, Carl Boberg along with some other men who had been invited to a ~~meeting~~ meeting of women who came to sew for the benefit of missions, tells of the beautiful summer's day it had been. Everyone had enjoyed the day with all of nature dressed in her summer finery, and both young and old roamed the large estate being a part of it. But a dark storm cloud appeared above the horizon and soon the sky was overcast. Lightning flashed across the ~~sky~~ dark sky and a downpour drove the visitors under cover. Soon, the rain stopped and ~~a~~ a rainbow appeared. From a church across the bay a funeral was in progress and the bells of the church could be heard pealing their doleful tones. Caught up in all of this, Carl Boberg sat down that night and wrote:

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the works Thy hands hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.

And who hasn't at one time or another marveled at the Majesty and Power of Almighty God? All of nature itself speaks of that Might. Thus the grandeur, the Majesty, the Power, the Might of Almighty God lends itself to questions as we look at the birth of Jesus Christ. The question is, "Why did God become man?" As we think this through there are three very definite "Whys" which we can point to. The first of these we will look at is, "For What Purpose?" Just "What was the Purpose of God becoming ~~a~~ a man?"

Luke explains how Mary, a peasant girl was visited by the Angel Gabriel and told of the miraculous and marvelous thing which God was going to accomplish through her. Mary's reaction is no different than the reaction any of us would have had. Luke records that she asks, "How shall this be? She explains just briefly, "seeing I know not a man." Mary is simply stating that she is a virgin, and has not had sexual contact with a man. But there is also within her question of "How shall this be," a "Why shall this be?" "Just why would God want to come to earth, and come in the form of a man?" Mary knew that she was dirt poor, and to bear this baby and bring it into the world would put Him on the same poverty level in which she found herself. Raised ~~in~~ in the Jewish faith she knew the Scriptures, especially the Psalms. And she knew from the Psalms that God was spoken of as being the owner of everything. He owned the cattle on a thousand hills; He was sovereign over all; Majesty and honor, and power were His. "Why would the One who owned all of this want to become man? "What was the purpose of this?"

Mary may not have had the answers to her questions, but as the life of this Son Jesus began to unfold before her eyes, she began to get the answers she was looking for.

But the "Whys" of all of this must have been asked by Mary over and over throughout the rest of her life. And even today, what took place ~~xxx~~ 2000 years ago is something that lacks an explanation ~~xxxx~~ causing countless people to ask, "Why did God become man? What was the purpose of all of it."

Christmas shoppers and she is explaining the Christmas scene to her son by saying:
"No one is quite sure how Christmas worked out like this dear. Theologians are working very, very hard on that question right now."

This is the truth of Christmas in our time. ~~Naxxxx~~ It has gotten out of hand to the point that very few people know the real meaning of Christmas and for most people, including many Christians who should know better, it is simply a season of hustle, bustle, buy and sell; give, in order to get. I read of a department store that advertised: "One way to keep Christmas with us all year long, 'Buy things on our monthly payment plan.'"

In seeking to explain why God came into the world the Apostle Paul wrote to the Christians in the church in Philippi an explanation of sorts. It is found in the second chapter of that letter. He wrote: "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made ~~mf~~ Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross." 2:5-8

What is Paul trying to say? He is saying that Jesus, being in the form of God, knew that ~~although~~ He was equal with God, but man could not grasp this and so He came in the only way man could understand, and that was in the form of man. But more than that, He came as a servant.

It was Christmas Eve of 1935. The Depression was at its height. A young widow and her six-year-old son were about to eat their Christmas supper. This year it was a very simple meal because she couldn't afford anything else. This year, there would be no real presents no candy, or toys. She had knitted two pair of mittens. One for herself and one for him. That was all. But as they sat down to their meager meal, the little boy raced to his bedroom and came back proudly holding a gift for his mother. The gift was wrapped in an old newspaper and done as any six-year-old could do. "Open it Mommy, open it!" he urged his mother. His eyes were dancing and sparkling with excitement. She carefully removed the paper and inside was an old cigar box. She opened the box and there inside was a shining copper penny and a piece of paper written in crayons and terribly misspelled. The note read, "I Luv Yu Mome!" Tears welled up in her eyes as she read the note over and over. Hugging him she cried, "Thank you, thank you, thank you. This is the best gift I have ever received." Thus a bleak Christmas was turned into a joyous celebration of love. It wasn't wrapped real fancy, but oh what a treasure it contained. For it contained a pronouncement of love to a special person.

That is what God did through Jesus Christ. The King of Kings abandoned heaven to come to a borrowed bed in a stable. He made Himself nothing and then His attitude of servanthood led Him in submission to give Himself completely ~~for~~ for mankind. Mary asked the question, "How ~~xxx~~ shall this be?" And no matter how we try to explain it, much of this is still a mystery we cannot understand and we can only point to God and answer "this was His plan."

There is a story that has been circulated every year at Christmastime which perhaps explains it in simple language that anyone can understand. It is simply called, "The man and the birds."

(Illustration of Man and The Birds)

It was Christmas Eve. A man and his wife finished eating their supper. The man went into the living room to read the paper while his wife washed the dishes and began to get ready for church. The man was not a church-going person so his wife was going to go by herself. When it came time for her to leave it had just started to snow. He waved to her as she pulled out of the driveway and noted that it looked like it was snowing much harder.

He was glad to be home and settled into his easy chair to read. Suddenly, he heard a thud. He didn't pay any attention to it and continued reading. But then there was another thud. "Probably the neighbor kids t rowing snowballs against the house he thought." But then there was another thud, and still another. Getting up out of his chair he went to the window to look out. The snow was now several inches deep and he couldn't see what was causing the thudding against the house. So he went to the front door and when he opened it and looked out he saw birds huddled in the snow near the living room widnow. For some strange reason they must have been seeking shelter and got lost in the snow and fell exhausted against the house. "Probably need something to eat and a place to get warm," he thought to himself. He decided to open the garage door and turn on the light so they could get in out of the cold. So he put on his boots and hat and coat, and getting some of the birdseed they had, he trudged out to the garage. He opened the door, turned on the light and threw some birdseed on the floor. Then he stepped aside, but none of the birds moved from where they had fallen. He went over to where they were huddled in the snow and tried to shoo them toward the garage, but all he succeeded in doing was to make them fly a short distance away and huddle into the snow there. He moved over to where they were, but there was no way he could get them into the garage to the shelter and the feed which was there. As he thought how he might accomplish this, he said to himself, "If only I could talk to them and explain that I won't hurt them. But in order to do that I would have to become a bird so they wouldn't be afraid of me." It was then that he heard the church bells pealing in the distance and he then knew what the Christmas story was all about, as he knelt in the snow and bowed his head.

And that is precisely what God did for us. He knew that the only way He could relate to us was to become one of us. He did this in that baby born in that stable in Bethlehem. The answer to the "First Why, For What Purpose," is simply that God became a man to reveal Himself to mankind. He became man to manifest God to man.

The Apostle Paul sums this up in his 2nd letter to the church at Corinth in the 8th chapter, the 9th verse. (READ THIS VERSE). There it is! The One who was with God at the creation; the One who was the creator of everything stripped Himself of His ~~His~~ Majesty and took on the nature of a servant; the Sovereign ruler of the universe came and lived among us starting out as a helpless infant. Our joy not only at this time of the year but for every day of our lives is that we can have a personal relationship with the God of the Universe, the Creator of all. Think of it! God became man just to be your personal Savior and friend. Do you have that personal relationship with Him? Are you His because you have trusted Him for your salvation? You can have that if you just ask Him to come into your heart this day.

"The Three Whys: Why An Offering?"

(Illustration of father making a "perfect human being")

On August 16, 1952 a proud ~~father~~ new father called a press conference in a Brooklyn hospital. To the few reporters who showed up he said, "Meet my new daughter Edith. She's going to be a genius. I shall make her into the perfect human being. During the years that followed, the man and his daughter astounded educators and the press with their experiment. When she entered school at the age of 6, she was reading two books a day along with the New York Times. Later she scored consistently around 200 on a IQ scale that rated 150 as genius. At age 20 the woman was interviewed by a reporter. One of the questions asked was whether she felt her father had created the perfect human being. He reply was, "How can imperfection create perfection? I'm sitting here overweight, having withdrawal symptoms from something as silly as gigarettes, and wishing I had something sweet to stick in my mouth, and you're asking me if I'm perfect.

God created man perfect, but man became imperfect through sin. Because of this separation, God tried to bring man back to Himself in various ways as recorded in the Old Testament. But those means all failed. Not because God couldn't do it, but imperfect man could not come into the presence of the Perfect. In each of the various ways which God sought to bring imperfect man to Himself there can be seen the ultimate plan which God would eventually bring forth. He used priests, ~~prophets~~ and prophets to speak for Him and to give His plan to mankind. One of these means He employed was by certain offerings. One of those offerings was what came to be known as the Day of Atonement. The details of it are recorded in the Old Testament book of Leviticus in the 16th chapter. (Read and explain verses 2 through 22, and 29 through 33.)

The question is, "Why an Offering?" The answer is that God had to have something, or someone to overcome the sin of man. Something had to be offered to make man right in the sight of God. In the Old Testament we read that it was lambs, and bulls, and goats. But none of these were able to do the complete job. God had several options. He once destroyed the entire population with the flood. But from Noah and those that survived sin came forth once again. So God could have destroyed everyone once again and started over, or He could have separated Himself from mankind and the world and left mankind to their own devices. And again, a question arises, "Why didn't God just chuck the whole thing and forget about man?" ~~Scripture~~ Matthew records the words of Jesus in the 18th chapter, verse 14, "It is not the will of your Father which is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish."

God didn't want any of His creation to perish. The only way God could accomplish this was to become as one of us, and this He did in the person of Jesus Christ. Matthew records the words of the angel of the Lord as he appeared to Joseph. In the 21st verse of the first chapter we read, "And she shall bring forth a son." How different this is from the announcement which was made to Zacharias. In that account as recorded by Luke we read, "And she shall bear thee a son." Mary is not going to bear a son by Joseph. The angel told Joseph this would come about through the Holy Spirit. Joseph was to name this child Jesus, because the angel relates, "For He shall save His people from their sins." The very name Jesus meant, "God is Salvation," or, "God saves.

A minister had become friends with his barber who was an atheist. One day they happened to be walking together through the city slums. The barber, seeing the derelicts of society around them said, "This is why I cannot believe in God. He is called a God of love.

But if He is as kind as they say, why does He permit all of this disease, and poverty, and squalor? How can He allow these poor people to be addicted to drugs and other character destroying habits?" The minister remained silent as they walked on. Then they came to a man who was especially unkempt and filthy. His hair hung down to his neck and a half-inch of stubble covered his ~~xxxx~~ face. The minister then remarked, "You can't be a very good barber, or you wouldn't permit a man like that to continue living in this neighborhood without a haircut and shave." At this the atheist became indignant and said, "Why blame me for that man's condition? I can't help it if he is like that. He's never given me a chance! If he would come to my shop, I could fix him up and make him look like a gentleman." Giving the barber a penetrating look, the minister said, "Then don't blame God for allowing these people to continue in their evil ways when He is constantly inviting them to come and be saved. The reason they are slaves to sin and evil habits is that they refuse to accept the one who died to save and deliver them." The barber saw the point.

All of us question why more people do not come to that saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. We wonder why people continue to ignore the offer of free salvation from God when He willingly stepped into our world and became one of us and offered Himself up on our behalf. And that is exactly what the angel is stating to Joseph as recorded in the 22nd and 23rd verses of this Scripture. We read, "Now all of this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, 'Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call His name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, 'God with us.'"

God used the prophet Isaiah to speak these words about 600 years prior to this. This was a part of His ultimate plan which He finally brought forth in the lives of Mary and Joseph. God was speaking of an offering to be made. "What An Offering?" It was the only way God could get man's attention.

Someone wrote on the ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ unfinished wall of a men's room in the wet plaster at the University of Texas, "God has cancer"

And isn't that exactly the point of the Incarnation? Though He was rich, yet for our sakes He became poor. He took upon Himself all of our problems, all of our earthly things to show us how much He loved us. It was an offering. But that offering had a price tag.

We think that the day in which we live is unique. We read and hear of hostages being taken and a price exacted for their release.

(Illustration of Richard the Lion hearted and his ransom)

Sometime between 1091 and 1094 a conquering king returning home from the Crusades was captured by some of his enemies and placed in prison. A colossal ransom was demanded for his redemption. The people of England submitted willingly to heavy taxation and many rich nobles contributed large sums that their king might be set free. Thus, King Richard the Lion Hearted was released and it was from the gathering of this large amount of money that the phrase, "A king's ransom," crept into the English language.

This is precisely what God did through Jesus Christ. He gave Himself as a ransom for the world. That, was the offering which God gave to the world and it was given through complete love.

(Illustration of little girl saying her prayers before Christmas)

A little girl was saying her prayers a few nights before Christmas, when she stopped suddenly and asked her mother a question with a worried look on her face: "What are we giving God for Christmas? What does God want for Christmas?"

We may smile at the innocence of that child, but is God on our Christmas list? And what are we giving God for Christmas? What does God want from us? There is actually only one thing that God wants from us. And that is our hearts. Does He have that? And if not, are we willing to turn that over to Him?

"Why An Offering?" To redeem the world and all it takes is for us to say "Yes" to God's offering of Himself through Jesus Christ. For anyone to have a Merry Christmas this year or any year all that is necessary is to come to God through Christ. It was His offering that makes Christmas. Not presents or expensive gifts beautifully wrapped with ribbons and pretty paper. It was the simple birth of a Savior born in a smelly stable and wrapped in diapers ~~that~~ to live humbly and simply among mankind and to die as a substitute for all the sinners of the world, that, is what makes Christmas.

If you don't know that, or Christ is not a part of your life right now, His gift of salvation can make this Christmas and every Christmas something special.

"The Three Whys: Why The Streams?"

Scripture: Luke 2:1-20

William Cowper wrote the hymn, "There Is A Fountain Filled With Blood," and the fourth verse of that hymn proclaims:

And since by faith, I saw the stream Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme, and shall be 'til I die.

Our question this Advent has been, "Why Did God Become Man?" This has brought forth the theme, "The Three Whys." The first Why was "For What Purpose?", and we determined that the purpose was to reveal God to man. The second Why was, "Why An Offering?" and we determined that it was to redeem the world. Our third Why is, "Why The Streams?" William Cowper wrote of the stream of the Blood of the Lamb. But long before that took place, God was pointing to that stream with His Streams of Revelation. ~~Like any mighty~~ Like any mighty river starts with a small trickle of water way up in distant mountains, so the Streaming Blood of the Savior begin with a trickle in the beginning of time. It began with a promise God gave to Satan as revealed in Genesis 3:15, "And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

It culminated in the ~~px~~ song of the angel to the shepherds on a hill overlooking Bethlehem. The shepherds were told, "Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord." Luke 2:10-11/

From that song about 33 years later, all of the streams of prophecy and revelation ended on a hill outside Jerusalem called Calvary with the death of this One called, "A Savior which is Christ the Lord."

Let's look just briefly at the stream as it began with a trickle and flowed in many different directions, but yet it all came together with God's final act of this Savior. We will only scratch the surface because the Scriptures are too numerous for us to mention them all. But all of them point to the promised Messiah, or the Anointed of God, who was Jesus Christ. From Eve to Mary there was an ongoing Messianic line that was perpetuated through Old Testament persons.

The Savior was to be a descendant of Seth, Noah and Shem, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Judah, and David. Each of these instances has Scriptural quotations to prove it. The New Testament begins with chapter 1, verse one of Matthew and we read, "The book of the generations of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham."

Then follows a genealogy which establishes the legal right of Jesus to be the divinely ordained king of Israel.

Luke gives a genealogy which traces Christ back to Adam, the first man. Luke's genealogy demonstrates the physical right for Jesus Christ to be the King of the Jews and the redeemer of the world.

History records Satanic attempts to destroy the human line of the promised seed of the woman. First, Cain killed Abel; Pharaoh attempted to kill all the male Jewish babies; Haman sought to exterminate the Jews during the time of Esther; and it was Herod who sought to kill all Jewish babies two years of age and under around Bethlehem at the birth of Jesus. But ~~in~~ each of these Satanic attempts proved to be unsuccessful and God's Anointed was born and lived to fulfill God's plan of redemption.

The Messiah was to be a prophet, a priest, and a king. But in Israel, although priests and kings could be prophets, no one could be both a priest and a king. It was either one or the other. Priests came from the tribe of Levi, and Kings came from the tribe of Judah. So with the prophecies concerning the Messiah as being prophet, priest, and king, we see these three streams flowing together to form one river.

Isaiah saw this Messiah as the root, stem, and branch of Jesse. Jeremiah also sees Him as a Branch. Micah sees Him as coming from Bethlehem and calls Him "The Breaker." Ezekiel sees Him coming as a shepherd and prince. Zechariah sees Him as just and having salvation, lowly, and riding into Jerusalem on a donkey. Each of these streams flows into the main stream of prophet, priest, and king, and becomes ~~xxx~~ a part of the main tributary flowing from the throne of God. All of this culminated in the infant birth of the Christchild in a stable in Bethlehem. Why did God become man? To become the anointed Son of God, making it possible that all of mankind could have that relationship with God that He desired from the very creation of the world. Paul sums it up by saying in his letter to the church in Galatia, (read chapter 4:4-7).

But how do we adequately explain this Incarnation bit so people can understand what it is we are trying to say? I believe an 8 year-old boy from Chula Vista, California has done it quite well. Listen to how he explains God, as seen through the innocent eyes of a child. (Illustration of Danny Dutton and how he explains God)

A simple belief is ~~xxxx~~ all that it takes to understand God's plan for mankind through Jesus Christ.

We look at this season of the year and instead of things being simple, they seem to become so confused and mixed up that many people including Christians are glad when the Christmas season is past.

(Illustration of how "Bedlam" came into being)

In 1247 in the Bishopsgate part of London, England, there was a Catholic monastery known as St. Mary of Bethlehem. The monks there had their own form of speech, which was not always the king's English. When they pronounced the word "Bethlehem" it came out "Bedlam." During King Henry VIII's reign, all monasteries taken over by the Crown and St. Mary of Bethlehem became part of the city of London. In 1547 it was turned into an insane asylum. The name "bedlam" became irretrievably linked to the noise and confusion that went on within the walls of what was formerly the monastery.

Someone has said that only man can take "Bethlehem" which means "house of bread", and corrupt it so that it comes out "bedlam", "House of confusion." It appears we have turned Christmas into chaos and even the practice of giving gifts has become "bedlam."

But this isn't what God meant for His coming into the world to become. From the simple Streams flowing through Old Testament history to the culmination of the birth at Bethlehem, God's plan was simple.

This is precisely what God did through Jesus Christ. He came in the flesh of a human and sacrificed Himself, gave Himself, for the very creature that He had made. Why did God become man? To reveal Himself to mankind, to provide Redemption, and to make it possible for man to be reconciled to God. He invited you to share this special gift because He loves you. Won't you accept that love today and make everyday Christmas by abiding in that love?

Christmas Monologue 1989
"The Light Word"

Good evening my little children! It is so good to see you at worship tonight. I'm glad that I can share this time with you in worship. ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ A recent conversation with John Mark has prompted my desire to share this message with you ~~tonight~~. You all remember John Mark I'm sure. But in case you may have forgotten he is the one who went with Paul on his first missionary journey and then refused to go with him on the second one. And it was this same John Mark who wrote a Gospel about Jesus which came out about fifty years ago.

Mark just read my Gospel and he asked some questions which many of you may have wanted answers for as well. Perhaps the most pressing question is why I wrote as I did. The answer to me is very obvious, but perhaps it does need some explanations. I was able to write as I did because I had access to some information which only Luke and I shared. Then Luke wrote his Gospel and it was different in still another way. But let me tell you how Luke and I shared some of these things and how we were influenced to write. My story actually only begins in the spring of the year 33 A.D. It was early April and the Feast of the Passover that year turned out to be the turning point for the world. Just prior to that feast, Jesus was arrested, tried, convicted, and sentenced to die. In one way or another I was involved in all of this although sometimes in the background. But I was there on that hill called Calvary outside of Jerusalem where He was executed. To say it was horrible is putting it mildly.

Along with Mary, the mother of Jesus and some other women, we had to watch as He suffered and finally died. But before He died, He spoke to Mary, His mother, and to me, and from that conversation my entire perspective of Jesus changed. I took His ~~mother~~ mother to my home and it was from her that Luke and I learned what we could have never learned just from being with Jesus day by day. Oh, I know, that was a special relationship. But following His death, and His miraculous resurrection, and His Ascension, I truly learned just WHO He was.

~~But let me bring up another perspective to when I was about 25. My~~ ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ older brother James and I were a part of our father Zebedee's fishing company. We enjoyed a bit of success at this business and James and I had a boat of our own on the Sea of Galilee. We also had the Disciple Peter as a partner. Ironically, my mother was Salome ~~xxxxxxxx~~ a sister of Mary, the mother of Jesus. This of course made Jesus a cousin of mine from the earthly relationships. James and I started out following that rather unusual individual called John the Baptist. Shortly after his ministry began, we witnessed the baptism of Jesus and decided to follow Him.

James and I proved to be rather difficult problems for Him. Each of us was possessed with an awful ~~temper~~ temper, so much so that Jesus gave us the nickname "Sons of Thunder." I can recall one time when we came to a Samaritan village and were refused hospitality by them. James and I demanded that Jesus call down fire from heaven and destroy them. Is it any wonder that He called us "The sons of thunder."

But with the passage of time He tempered my temper by teaching me love. That's how a part of my trademark has been my expression in our worship services, "My dear children, love one another."

But as I walked with Him, and talked with Him, and shared a very close intimacy with Him, so much so that he called me "His beloved," I didn't really get to know Him until after He was gone. It was then that Mary related to Luke and I many of the events that few people knew. It was from these background conversations that Luke could write, "Now it came about in those days that therewent out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all of the world, should be taxed. And this taxing took place when Cyrenius was Governor of Syria." And then he told of that miraculous birth in a stable which was revealed as he ~~wrote~~ wrote, "For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior which is Christ the Lord." Oh, what simple yet profound words. I almost wish I had been inspired to write that myself.

But I'm told by many that my words in themselves are rather unique. Mark and others have asked me how I came up with the profound statements I made in the first chapter of my Gospel. God gave me those words is all I can say. But the truth of the matter is that I was able to see in Jesus that He didn't just come to earth as a baby. Oh, I know that His birth was unique and even though Mary was His earthly mother, she was made pregnant by God's Holy Spirit. But He existed before that birth with God from the very beginning of time. So God inspired me to write, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

A simple truth that God entrusted to me. And I know the question that everyone asks, "How ~~xx~~ could a stupid fisherman write such deep theological thoughts?" HA, ha, I marvel at that myself. But all I can say is that it was almost as if God was moving my hand as I wrote. But the point I was trying to make is that Jesus was the Light come into the world and the darkness could not put it out. Jesus was from God, in fact, He was God in the flesh come to live among us. When He did so He encountered the power of darkness, Satan, and his kingdom. But Satan, the power of darkness could not extinguish the Light that God had brought forth.

It's been sixty some years since Jesus walked on this earth. And I wanted to write this down so future generations could read of God's complete love through Him. That is why God inspired me to write in the 3rd chapter of my Gospel, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish, but have everlasting life." You, my ~~fixxx~~ friends are the "Whosoever" that God had in mind. ~~If~~ What God has inspired me to write is the Christmas message for the world. Come to the stable in Bethlehem again and see the Babe lying in a manger. Follow the star and see the Light of the World. Come like a simple shepherd and see the Good Shepherd. Luke wrote that the angel told the shepherds, "For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior which is Christ the Lord." I sort of ~~wish~~ wish I had written that. OH well, he wrote what God inspired him to write, and I wrote what God inspired me to write. May God use it to bring mankind to Himself as He will. "My dear children, love one another," in the name of the Lord.

"Three R's"

Scripture: Joshua 3:1-5

"Then Joshua rose early in the morning." It was the day after the spies returned and gave their encouraging report. The distance they were to travel to reach the eastern banks of the Jordan was about 8 miles. These several million people were to cross the Jordan River to enter the Promised Land. They encamped there for 3 days. This gave them time to get everything prepared to enter the land and meet the enemies who were there. The officers passed through the camp giving instructions to the people.

They told them, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God with the Levitical priests carrying it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it," verse 3. ^{and on the march, in the middle of the procession} Normally, the ark was in the center of the camp, and it was the Kohathite Levites who carried it. But when they crossed the river, it was the priests who would carry it. They were the ones who ministered on the solemn occasions in Israel.

The instructions were, "When you see the ark," then they were to begin to march. This time, the ark would go in front of the procession. In order for it to be seen, kept in sight, the people were to keep a distance of about 2000 cubits behind. That meant the ark would be approximately a half mile in front so they could plainly see it.

And Joshua told the people, "For you have not passed this way before," verse 4B.

These words spoken by Joshua thousands of years ago are applicable to us as we face 1990 and the new decade leading toward the year 2000. The coming days, weeks, and months will be filled with many new experiences. They could be the best days or the worst days we've ever known. Only God knows that. But the new moments to come are in the hands of God and whether in joy or sorrow, in health or sickness, God goes with us in every circumstance. We in turn, need to be prepared for the continuing journey the Lord has placed before us. I personally believe that a simple formula can be used for our lives not just at the beginning of this year, but at intervals of the year as well. I call it, "Three R's." Some of you can remember that the term, "Three R's" makes you think of school. It was in school that we learned the "Three R's." Remember them? Readin, & Writin, & rithmatic. Most adults don't like to be reminded that life is a continuing ~~xxxx~~ program of learning, that we learn everyday whether we like it or not. Many adults seek to continue learning throughout life, but many others resist it like the plague. But the fact of the matter is, we need to go on learning if we are to grow. The Roman scholar Cato started to study Greek when he was over 80. Someone asked him why he tackled such a difficult task at his age. Cato said, "It's the earliest age I have left," and continued to study.

How many of us are willing to assume such a task at the present age in which we find ourselves? We may not seek to learn Greek at our age, but we should seek to learn spiritually what God wants us to learn. Thus, I submit to you that as we look to the New Year, we begin by learning the "Three R's." The first "R" is the word "REVIEW." We must stand back and "Review" what this past year, or years has been. What have we done for the Lord? Can we honestly answer that we have served Him as we should? Or what word would adequately describe our love and service? Would it be Complacency? Or lukewarmness? Indifference? Backsliding? Spiritual deafness, or hardness? Rebellion against God? Which word would best describe you personally? Not your wife, or husband, nor your children, or neighbor, or another church member. But YOU!

★ ILLUSTRATION OF BOY EXCUSE FOR SCHOOL. "DON'T SAY I THREW UP. I WANT TO SAVE THAT FOR SHOW & TELL"

It was the prophet Ezekiel who said, "Son of man, you live in the midst of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see but do not see, ears to hear but do not hear; for they are a rebellious house," Ezekiel 12:2.

We live in a rebellious house. There are those who don't see or hear. Everything is meant for someone else. There are those who will put forth a small amount of effort and add, "Let someone else do the rest." There are some who do nothing. It is always good to look back to see where we have come from and what we have done. But as members of the body of Christ, does a look back fill us with a sense of joy, or does it bring a twinge of embarrassment? ~~xxxx~~ Can we say, "Lord, I didn't do everything I could, but I tried," or must we say, "Lord, I didn't do anything for You?" "Review," and then make the necessary changes for the next year.

The second "R" is "RECOGNIZE." The prophet Isaiah wrote the words of the Lord, "And it shall be said, 'Build up, build up, prepare the way, Remove every obstacle out of the way of My people,' Isaiah 57:14.

We need to look at our lives and "Recognize" the obstacles which are hindrances and stumbling-blocks to our spiritual growth. Each year that God permits us to live should be a year in which we grow stronger spiritually. What are the things of this world and this life which are intruding into our lives and keeping us from living for and serving the Lord as we ought? All of us are in this category and it doesn't give us a sense of pride to admit it. Just what are the hindrances and obstacles which keep us from a close personal walk with the Lord? I'm sure you can see evidence of the things which have crept into our society which perhaps we overlook and accept as normal, but they are completely worldly and stand in the way of godly living. I don't know about you, but the "something for nothing" element really bugs me. I check out in a supermarket and the cashier comments on the total of my purchase that it is a good number to play on the lottery. Or I'm waiting in line while the cashier and some customers are discussing the numbers they have been playing for weeks or months. People are spending money they can ill afford to lose in a get rich quick scheme sponsored by the state. Or you are watching TV and some lawyer comes on the screen and tells you to sue your mother or father because you were injured in an accident while they were driving.

What are our personal hindrances or obstacles?

A man had been going from church to church trying to find the right one. Finally, he came to a little church and he entered just as the congregation read with the minister, "We have left undone those things we ought to have done and we have done those things which we ought not to have done." The man slipped into a back pew and murmured, "Thank goodness, I've found my crowd at last."

Anyone of us can say that. But we need to "Recognize" the hindrances and obstacles which confront us in our lives and overcome them.

The third "R" is "RENEW." David, ~~xxxx~~ called, "a man after God's own heart," knew what it was to be renewed by God. After his horrendous sins with Bathsheba and Uriah, David wrote the 51st Psalm and in it he wrote, "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me," Psalm 51:10.

A "steadfast," or "right" spirit is a spirit in tune with God. It is the spirit which God desires us to have. In fact, God desired the renewal of man that He spoke of it in many different ways in His Word.

Isaiah wrote, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength," Isaiah 40:31.

Paul wrote, "And be not conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind," Romans 12:2A.

"Do not lie to one another, since you laid aside the old self with its evil practices, and have put on the new self who is being renewed to a true knowledge according to the image of the One who created him," Colossians 3:9-10.

"He saved us, not on the basis of ~~our~~ deeds which we have done in righteousness, but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit," Titus 3:5.

We are to renew our strength, our minds, our knowledge, and be Renewed by the Holy Spirit.

Joshua told the people, "You have not passed this way before," but then he added, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you."

Each day we are confronted with the next day which will be tomorrow. But it only seems that we take it seriously when that tomorrow is stepping into a New Year. That always seems to make us take an assessment of the days which lie ahead.

(Illustration of liberal Bishop in C.S. Lewis's book, The Great Divorce)

C. S. Lewis wrote of an imaginary liberal Bishop in his book The Great Divorce. This bishop died and went to the Valley of the Shadow of Light. He had always been a sceptic and always had more questions about faith than he had answers. He had no deep sense of commitment to Christ, the church, or anything else. In the story, the Bishop is given one last chance to visit heaven to decide if he would like to stay there.

But heaven didn't appeal to him either. Before he left he tried to engage one of the individuals there in a conversation about religion. The person answered, "We don't know anything about religion here. We know only Christ."

That is the resolve we need to make as we stand at the end of one year and look to the New Year ahead. All is past. We cannot undo that. But there are spotless seconds, and minutes, and hours, and days, and weeks, and months ahead waiting for us to know Christ in them. How will we live for Him? Are we willing to go through those periods of time, "Reviewing, Recognizing, and Renewing?" The time which God gives to us, He wants ~~to use~~ us to use living for Him. The one resolution we should make for 1990 is to be His completely.

PERSONAL TESTIMONY

Ralph C. Link

I am the youngest of five children. I was born just prior to the onset of the Depression. Our family was very poor. My father was an alcoholic and my mother was a very religious person who was searching for the Lord. During my childhood she did her best to teach me the things of the Lord. Later in life she came to a personal relationship with Him.

I grew up in the Evangelical and Reformed Church where salvation by grace alone was not preached nor taught. I knew all about Jesus, what He did, how He lived, His miracles, His death and resurrection, but I didn't know Him personally.

My life had many ups and downs and all the while I was attending church and striving with my good works to please God. At a very low point in my life when we were deeply in debt and my wife and three children were all ill, I came to the crossroads. I watched a Billy Graham Crusade on television from some distant city and the message he preached seemed to be directed right at me. I wrestled with making that commitment to Christ, but didn't. The next afternoon and evening at work on the 4 to 12 shift I came to the conclusion that I needed to make that commitment to Christ. It seemed like there was no other choice if life was to have any meaning. That night when I came home from work at 1:00 A.M., I laid face down on the living room floor and told God that I couldn't live my life in my own strength and I accepted the gift of salvation from my Savior Jesus Christ. My life has never been the same.

Through several meaningful circumstances I was called by God to serve Him in the Christian Ministry and to help spread that wonderful message of salvation through the shed blood of Jesus Christ. What a wonderful and rewarding time it has been and I give Him all the praise for my salvation and the opportunity to serve Him.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

Ralph C. Link

I believe the Bible, both the Old and New Testaments to be the inspired inerrant Word of God. I believe the Bible is the complete revelation of His will for the salvation of men and it is the final authority for the Christian faith and life.

I believe in one God, who is eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

I believe in the Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ that He is true God and true man. I believe that He was born of the Virgin Mary, that He lived in sinless life, that He performed the miracles recorded in Scripture, that He died on the cross as a sacrifice for our sins, that He bodily arose from the dead, that He ascended on high where He is at the right hand of Almighty God as our intercessor.

I believe in the Holy Spirit and that He comes and indwells each believer at the time of conversion. I believe that He lives in each believer to lead, to instruct, and to convict so that a believer may live a more godly life.

I believe that through the shed blood of Jesus Christ and through His resurrection, this is the only ground for justification and salvation for all who receive Him. A Lord and Savior and to such as receive Him, they are born of the Holy Spirit and become children of God.

I believe water baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of the Church but are not means of salvation.

I believe in the personal and premillennial and imminent coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I believe in the resurrection of the dead, for the believer to resurrection of life and joy with the Lord, for the unbeliever to resurrection of judgement and everlasting punishment.
